OGDEN, Sept. 29.—The nineteenth annual state convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union began a three-day session yesterday afternoon, with President Lulu B. Shepherd in the chair. There were about 40 delegates in attendance. After the opening had been called to order Mrs. Shepherd, the state president, delivered an address, reviewing briefly the work which the union had accomplished during the past year.

From the reports submitted by the president and others, the work of the W. C. T. U. is spreading over the entire state. Seven new unions have been organized this year, four of which began their organization in Utah county last week following a visit from President Shepherd. The membership rolls show that 200 names have been added during the past year. All of the delegates who are present are furnished with handsome badges, and the church in which the exercises are being held is profusely decorated with the banners of the union.

Owing to the absence of all of the local presidents, except Miss L. Frost, Brigham, Miss Freida Drensel, Ogden, and Mrs. C. A. Walker of Salt Lake, the reports from other unions could not be read yesterday. The balance of the program for the day was carried out, however, with but little change.

The program last evening included an address by Joseph S. Perry on the question, "Do Saloons Build Up a Town?"

The leading subjects discussed this forenoon were: "Especially for W. C. T. U. Work," by Mrs. F. C. Jensen of Mt. Pleasant; "Mothers' Clubs," by Mrs. William Craig, Ogden. Following is the program this afternoon:

"Why Have a Local Temperance League?" Mrs. E. P. Sherman, Green River; "The Part of Temperance Literature," Mrs. R. T. Miller, Springville; Mrs. F. E. Cook, Tremonton; "Alcohol in Medicine Unnecessary," Mrs. W. H. Smith, Salt Lake City; "The Onward March of Prohibition," members of Ogden union.

Following this last paper, an adjournment will be taken for a trolley ride to the canyon and picnic supper.

OGDEN, Sept. 29.—The State School for the Deaf and Blind was opened today for the year's work with a large attendance. Superintendent Mrs. M. D. Driggs thinks that the total enrollment will be nearly 120 pupils, which will include those sent from Arizona, Nevada, Colorado, Wyoming and Idaho. The larger number of pupils, however, are from the various cities and towns of Utah.

OGDEN, Sept. 29.—Licenses to marry were issued by the county clerk to the following:

Cassie M. Murphy and Verna A. Fowler, both of Ogden; Adrian Baker and Gertrude Kanning, both of Ogden.

FRUIT BLAMED FOR CONTAGION.

OGDEN, Sept. 29.—Samples of water throughout the county will be sent to State Chemist Herman Harris to ascertain if they are free from typhoid germs. City water has been found to be pure. The health department lays the blame for what contagion there is in the city to unwholesome fruit. Overripe fruit and fruit on which dirt is allowed to accumulate is believed to have bred typhoid germs.

San Francisco, Sept. 29.—August Chamot, honored by France with the cross of the Legion of Honor, and thanked and rewarded by other nations for having saved the lives of many foreigners in Berlin during the Boer rebellion, died yesterday at Larkspur, Cal., of consumption.

BUSINESS BEFORE UTAH COUNTY BOARD

Commissioners Decide They Cannot Legally Allow to State Fish Hatchery.

(Special Correspondence.)

PROVO, Sept. 29.—The board of county commissioners yesterday decided that it had no authority to contribute money to the state fish hatchery now being established near Springville. Deputy Fish and Game Warden Madsen asked the county to appropriate $1,000 to be used to enlarge the capacity of the plant, with the understanding that the increased output of trout fish, which would result from the enlarged plant, would be planted in Utah lake. The commissioners were desirous of making this arrangement, believing as do all who have given the subject any consideration that it would prove a very profitable investment for the county; but as the board was advised by County Attorney E. J. Dugdale that such an appropriation could not be legally made, it was reluctantly decided not to make it. J. L. Lytle, engineer in charge of the Strawberry valley reclamation work, was granted, in behalf of the United States reclamation service, a franchise to construct an electric pole line from Spanish Fork canyon to Spanish Fork.

The Knight investment company asked for a franchise to construct a pole line along the county road from its electric plant in Santaquin canyon to Tintic. The matter was referred to Commissioner Lisle to be reported on at the next meeting.

LIBRARY AND GYM. CONVENTION AT U.

Thursday October 7 at 2 p. m. is The Date Set for the Gathering.

ORGANIZE A STATE LEAGUE.

Cities and Towns of Utah Interested in The Movement on Behalf Of the Young.

The State Library Gymnasium convention has been set for Thursday, Oct. 7, at 2 p. m., at the University of Utah. The purpose of the gathering is to organize a state league and to push the work this fall under the commission granted by the last legislature. Many cities and towns of the state are already interested in the movement, which is intended to be the positive side of prohibition, by affording the boys and girls of the state something of an elevating character to do during their hours of leisure. It is stated that a number of towns in Utah will probably vote the tax this fall. Every mayor and town president in the state is invited to be present at the convention and to name one or more delegates. Others interested are also invited to attend.

As showing the interest already manifested in this movement it may be stated that Eureka will dedicate the Carnegie library Oct. 12, at which time the governor, superintendent of public instruction and the state library commission are expected to be present. Many experts soon to have its $25,000 gymnasium and opera house completed, the money for which has been raised by the citizens. It has been leased for ten years to the state, but will be used also by the general public.

Tooele is also getting ready to build its Carnegie library. Forest Dale has its library, and other towns are following along this line, all of which shows the great interest of the people in the establishment of these institutions for the benefit of the young.

INSPECTOR GETS TIPS ON KETCHUP

Chief Food and Drug Man of the Bureau of Chemistry Here Absorbing Information.

Chief Food and Drug Inspector Walter G. Campbell of the bureau of chemistry, department of agriculture, has arrived in town from the east, bringing with him William W. Paine, food and drug inspector in the same bureau, from the Boston office. Mr. Paine is a Harvard 1908 graduate, and has already quite a reputation in his new line of work. He will be left here to take the place of Inspector H. C. Kitchen, who has been promoted and transferred to Indiana. These three officers were the guests, with Utah Food Inspector Willard Hansen at the Commercial club. Mr. Campbell is en route to Spokane and the Pacific coast cities to visit the station bureaus there.

Mr. Hansen was anxious to meet Mr. Campbell to get his views on some of the workings of the new national law, and Mr. Hansen says he has found some of the Utah canning factories using refuse scrap from tomatoes prepared for canning, for the manufacture of ketchup. It seems to be widely done down east without interference from the government authorities. Mr. Hansen felt some hesitancy about taking radical action in preventing the practice here until he had consulted with the national bureau. His talk with Mr. Campbell will largely guide him in the matter. This refuse includes spoiled tomato spots and other imperfections in the tomato which must not go into the cans, but are considered all right by manufacturers for ketchup. They may not be absolutely deleterious to health, but are not nice to have in mind when one reaches for a bottle of sauce. Judging from Mr. Hansen's expressions, it is fair to infer that the manufacturers will not be allowed to heavier to manufacture ketchup except from the simple pure, perfect tomato. Manufacturers say "the honest farmer" is largely responsible as he persists in unloading all kinds of stuff on the canning factories, and if there is a complaint, merely hauls off his goods to some other canning factory where they are not so particular. However, Mr. Hansen has a little scheme which he believes will checkmate this move. It is for the canner to accept the consignments of tomato from the payment of all around tomatoes found in the lot. Then when the grower protests, the state will step in and back up the canner—all agricultural belligerency that may be exhibited.

Mr. Frank C. Hapsham, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For many years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purpose, but I can say a better profit. I have sold it so sure to effect a cure, and my customers are certain to appreciate my recommending it to them. I have sold it with the preference" for sale by all druggists.

NATIONAL COPPER BANK.

Will Probably Secure Elegant Quarters In the Newhouse Building.

The first step in the organization of another strong national bank in Salt Lake City, has been taken by W. W. Armstrong and associates, who have secured the approval of the comptroller of the currency to their application for the establishment of the National Copper Bank of Salt Lake, with a capital of $500,000. Word was received from Washington and printed in The News yesterday that the application had been received, and the next thing in order is a meeting of those who have subscribed for stock in the new institution, at which the details will be presented and approved, including a decision as to the quarters to be occupied by the bank. While it has not been confirmed it is stated on good authority that the bank will occupy the elegant new banking quarters in the Newhouse building.

Five names only are mentioned in the application. They are, W. W. Armstrong, P. J. Moran, Lafayette Armstrong, John I. Brown and Duncan McVie. Associated with them are a number of Salt Lake's wealthiest men, a number of them being mining men, from which it is inferred the bank will cater for the mining business of Utah and adjoining states.

With the organization of the National Copper Bank, the number of banks in Salt Lake will be increased to fourteen. They are: Deseret National, McCormick & Co., Walker Bros., National Bank of the Republic, Zion's Savings, State Bank of Utah, Continental National, Salt Lake Security & Trust company, Utah Savings & Trust company, Utah Commercial & Savings, Utah National, Merchants' bank, the Deseret Savings and the new National Copper bank.

ALL PARALYSIS NOT HOPELESS

This Man Had a Form That Was Curable and There Are Hundreds of Cases Like His.

There are still people who say that no form of paralysis can be cured. If you have partial paralysis or some other severe nervous disorder, do you think it is better to be treated by someone who insists that you are incurable, or to take a treatment that grateful patients throughout the United States testify has cured them?

There are several forms of paralysis that are curable by the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and remarkable proof of the fact that the disease can be cured is found in the case of Mr. Willard P. Cress, of No. 813 Maple street, Kansas City, Mo., who is shipping clerk for Bracken & Turpin. He says:

"About twelve years ago, when living at Appleton, Wis., I was paralyzed from my hips down. I became in this condition shortly after a fall while playing at school. There was not a particle of feeling in my legs and I could not use them. I could not feel electricity from a battery. I had to be lifted out of bed. I had no strength at all and lost a great deal in flesh. There was a steady, dull pain across my back, which kept me in misery all of the time. My kidneys were affected and I was in bed for two years.

"I was treated by several physicians, who pronounced my case spinal trouble. The last physician, that I had, treated me for about a year and finally told me that he could do nothing more for me. Through my grandmother I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I took several boxes when I noticed a decided change for the better. I had confidence in the pills and took them until cured." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are guaranteed by the manufacturers to contain no opiate or narcotic or anything that could injure the most delicate system.

Those who are interested in the treatment which cured this case can obtain further information by writing for the booklet, "Nervous Disorders," which we send free on request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
