LEGAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

TUESDAY'S DAILY, MAY 1.

More Burglarizing.—The show belonging to the establishment Mrs. Wilkinson, on the Kimball block, First South Street, was broken into last night. The thiefed away four hair switches, and a blonde wig worth five dollars.

Committed.—John Stockford, the abandoned young scoundrel charged with assault and attempted rape on person of Selina S. Sanberg, was committed to jail. He waived examination and was held to answer to the grand in the sum of $500. In default of the required securities he was committed to jail.

Stolen Property Found.—Yesterday we noted the fact that Tullidge had been robbed of a quantity of brushes, paints, etc., by some person who broke into their shop. Property was found by some boys last evening, hidden in a box of sage brush, on the west side of the mouth of City Creek, and it had doubtless been hidden by the thief.

Departure of Missionaries.—Wm. Thomas Stewart, John Hance Stewart, both of Cedar, also Isaac Fox, of Salt Lake, left this city by the 8.40 train for their fields of labor in New Zealand and the two last to Sandwich Islands. Elder Brim accompanied by his wife and two sons. Elder W. T. Stewart had charge of the party.

Stolen Clothing.—There is any amount of petty stealing in progress at present. This morning a man at the Walker House called the City Hall and informed the officers that he had had an overcoat and walking coat and vest stolen from him. In passing the clothes of a tailor in a small way business, on commercial St., he found the identical overcoat hanging in the place. He suspected that other garments were somewhere in the same shop and solicited aid of an officer to get possession of the lot.

Repulsive Quartette.—The man in which an Italian got his fifteen off and his head pounded by some fellow countrymen was before Justice Spiers to-day. Three besides the mutilated man interested. The difficulty from the loss of a knife, which the man that was hurt claimed. It was out in the testimony that at commencement of the fight the man who got his head damaged by a package of three razors and a pair of scissors, with which to carry side of the conflict. He was killed, and then seized the hand of the others between his arms. The fellow whose hand was damaged by being cannibalized by his assailant by the side-head, and tore off a large bite. The case was not finished by three. The parties to the affair are as repulsive a quartette as one is likely to see in the course of a couple of months, even in the proceedings of a police-court.

Tempest in a Tea Pot.—A few days ago a scrubby little fellow who does chores around the Court house, named Hurd, at John Connelly's place of business. While he entered another on the outside. Mr. C. inquired what his business was, the answer being that he wished to see Annie Gallifant.

"What is your business with the lady?"

"I will state that when I see her." "You get out of here. I don't want any sneak thieves around my establishment. If you don't go I will throw you out."

As Hurd waited upon the order of his going and did not go at once, Mr. Connelly bundled him out.

For thus ejecting an intruder who refused to make known his errand, Mr. Connelly was arrested. He appeared before United States Commissioner McKay, at 1 o'clock to-day, and, having taken excellent legal advice, he waived examination to the evident disgust of parties who, we are informed, intended to make immediate capital out of the incident, which appeared to have been put up for a purpose. The accused was held to answer to the grand jury in two hundred dollar bonds.

A FATAL FIGHT.

ONE OF THE COMBATANTS RECEIVES A CUT AND DIES.

The following special was received by Deseret Telegraph, from Beaver, this morning:

"At about 11 o'clock last night a soldier by the name of Henry Stears, and Robt. Keys, Sen., both being drunk, after having an altercation, began fighting. It resulted in the latter cutting the former in the arm near the shoulder, severing the axillary artery and making a gash about six inches in length, from which, in about three-fourths of an hour, he bled to death. Keys was arrested and is now in custody in the county jail awaiting a hearing, when more facts may be ascertained."

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

BADLY INJURED BY A GUN-EXPLOSION.

A horrible accident occurred on Saturday to a man named Oswald, a mason, who lives about a quarter of a mile north from White Bridge, which spans the Jordan River, on the western border of the city. It appears that he was hunting, in the vicinity of his house, and while in the act of firing his gun the piece exploded, inflicting frightful injuries upon his face. A person who saw the unfortunate man this morning states that his right eye is entirely gone and the other very badly hurt; so much so that at present he is blind. A large piece of bone has also been carried away from the forehead above the right eye.

Oswald is about thirty seven years old, and came to this Territory from Germany about a year and a half ago.

THE GREEN RIVER MURDER.

THE ALLEGED PERPETRATORS IN JAIL AT PROVO.

Sheriff John Turner, of Provo, and Deputy Sheriff Thomas Fowler, of Lehi, reached Provo on Sunday from Green River with a couple of exceedingly hard men in their custody, one being William Gibson, charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, and the other, Thomas Meadows, indicted for murder. A party named Col. F. Thomson had also been arrested for complicity in the same crime charged against Meadows.

The victim of the murder was named Hicks, who was killed at Green River several weeks ago. Nothing was done in the case until recently, when a friend of the murdered man arrived at Provo and made complaint before U. S. Commissioner Smoot, Jr., against the parties who did the killing.

Warrants of arrest were placed in the hands of Sheriff Turner, and that able officer, accompanied by his efficient deputy from Lehi, set out for Green River. On reaching that place they discovered that Col. F. Thomson, one of the parties they were after, had just departed for Salt Lake. Sheriff Turner immediately telegraphed to Provo for an officer to meet the train at that point. This was accordingly attended to and Thomson was arrested and placed in jail.

Meadows, the man accused with Thomson, was found at Green River, and the officers also, at the same time fell in with Gibson, charged with another offense. Having ascertained their stopping place, Sheriff Turner and Deputy Fowler called on them quite early in the morning, giving the couple of desperadoes a sort of surprise party. They were in bed when the officers reached them. The blankets were turned down and a demand made for surrender at the muzzle of a six shooter. The prisoners had no alternative, so they were handcuffed. The Denver and Rio Grande R. R. Company, who extended numerous courtesies to the officers, placed a car at their disposal for use as a temporary jail until the arrival of the next train.

Thomson and Meadows are to have a hearing this week as soon as the witnesses can be got together.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, MAY 2.

Smallpox in Bear Lake.—The Bear Lake Democrat says:

We are sorry to report that the smallpox has made its appearance in this valley; it was to be desired that we might escape the epidemic, but we understand it has broken out in the family of Jos. M. Phelps, of Montpelier, and also in other two families in that settlement. We learn that the citizens and authorities of that place are trying to corral the disease by quarantining the neighborhood where it has broken out, and it is to be hoped they may be able to prevent the further spreading of the contagion.

More Reservoirs.—The enterprising citizens of Spanish Fork, feeling the necessity of an increased water supply for their farms and gardens, have set themselves to work constructing a reservoir near the eastern limits of the town, on the bench. This reservoir is partially natural and partially artificial, and will hold in reserve water from Spanish Fork River. Its dimensions are about 30 rods wide by 100 long, and will hold about 16 feet of water in depth.

There is also another reservoir in contemplation, 21 miles up the canyon, which, if completed as designed, will hold 15,000,000 cubic feet of water.—Enquirer.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, MAY 3.

Information Wanted.—Mrs. Rebecca Hodge, whose address is Karangahape Road, Auckland, New Zealand, wishes to hear from her brother, Edward Cassidy, who left Aberdare, Wales, for Utah about 28 or 29 years ago.

Sunday School Excursion.—Pleasant Grove Sunday School met at the Meeting House on May Day. The programme was excellently rendered. It consisted of crowning of the Queen, speeches, songs, recitations, music by the brass band. A procession of about 70 vehicles laden with living freight and lots of picnic, proceeded to Battle Creek Station (D. & R. G.). Utah Lake. The weather was very unfavorable, which marred the enjoyment somewhat. B. W. Driggs Jr. has been to considerable expense fitting up the grounds, with swings, croquet rings, boats etc. He has a fine dancing hall also, where the young folks of the town spent last evening in a social dance.

A Presentation.—The Ogden Herald contains an account of a presentation made by prominent citizens of that town to John Reeves, Esq., on Monday night. The token of respect was tendered on account of the appreciation felt by the donors of the able manner in which he had discharged the duties of agent of the Utah Central Railroad, at Ogden, since 1869, and the esteem in which he was held on account of the many excellent traits he had exhibited in all the walks of life. The memento presented was in the form of a massive gold headed cane, besides an address, the latter being signed by the following:

Lorin Farr, L. J. Herrick, D. H. Peery, Jos. Hall, Thomas D. Dee, James Forbes, W. B. Doddridge, Aaron F. Farr, A. G. Fell, W. P. P. St. Clair, Winslow Farr, Wm. Driver, L. B. Adams, Wm. Van Dyke, L. W. Shurtliff, C. F. Middleton, N. O. Flygare, James Taylor, Joseph

Parry, John Seaman, Thomas J. Stevens, Francis A. Brown, John Pingree, N. Tanner, Jr., H. S. Young, S. W. Sears, Wm. W. Burton, Barnard White.

The presentation was made by Mr. Doddridge.

During Mr. Reeves' absence in Europe, his son will act for him, as deputy, in the capacity of railroad agent.

Back from the Sandwich Islands.—This morning we received a call from Elder Sidney A. Coray, of Provo, who returned on Tuesday from a mission to the Sandwich Islands. He left this city three years ago to-day. He enjoyed his labors very much, and the work is steadily progressing on the Islands. During the half year ending April 6th, 219 members were added to the Church, and the work is still increasing. He left all the Elders in the Mission in good health and spirits.

Elder Carl Anderson, of Coalville, another missionary, with his wife and two children came home at the same time as Elder Coray. He was absent nearly four years, having left here for the Islands in June, 1879.

Both Elders Coray and Anderson mastered the native language so as to be able to speak it with facility.

Toleration in Norway.—In Norway, until recently, there has been little or no toleration toward the Latter-day Saints. The law gave toleration to all Christian sects and to Jews, but no others. The question of including Latter-day Saints was raised a good many years ago, when a council of Bishops decided that they were not Christians. In view of the fact that the very title of the Church implies Christianity, this decision was very absurd. The Saints considering they had been under the ban of this ridiculous and partial judgment long enough, sent in a petition with 688 signatures to the Storting (Parliament), on the subject. Mr. Neldel, a lawyer, and member of the legislature, introduced the matter in one branch of the body, while Messrs. Berner & Sparre did the same in the other House. The result was that the section of the law relating to religious bodies was so changed as to include the Latter-day Saints, although not named specially. They have now the right, under the law, to establish churches, or branches, organize and conduct services without fear of molestation or interference. This information is gleaned from Norwegian papers.

Camping in the Tithing Yard.—A large number of people from all parts of the country who come to the city with teams go direct to the Tithing Yard to camp. So prevalent has this custom become that numbers of people who do not belong to this community at all—transients passing through—fall into it, apparently as a matter of course. In past times when the population was comparatively limited, the affording of such accommodations was no special inconvenience, but as the surrounding country becomes more densely populated there must of necessity be some limit to the custom. We learn from parties in charge of the premises that campers are becoming so numerous in the yard as to frequently be an obstruction to business, besides rendering it exceedingly difficult to keep the place clean. It appears advisable, and even really necessary that those who camp in the yard should be mostly confined to parties who have had in the past or do have actual business with the Tithing Office. We should think that everybody will see the necessity for the existence of some limitation regarding this matter. For general camping purposes the City Council have designated Washington Square, in the Eighth Ward.
