Salt Lake 1; Butte, 0.

That's getting 'em, eh?

Only about 25 untried fans saw the struggle, but they saw a game worth going miles to look upon. There has been no better here or elsewhere in the N. P. league this season. From the beginning it was a pitched battle between Tozer for us, and Hoot for them, and Tozer took the candy. He pitched a great game, holding 'em down to six scattered singles. Salt Lake also threw with the m'f'ers. Hoot was getting but five hits. For six innings there was nothing doing. In the seventh, Hoot bunched the horsehide off Delmar's anatomy after Hansen struck. This put Bill at second, Glen fanned, Eschick flew out at second but Forsythe sent a sizzler down to middle. Then Bill Hansen began a sprint. He kicked up so much dust he could hardly be seen, but he beat the ball home and won the game. There was a pretty rally in the third, but Tozer got to third on a hit, and McJannet knocked one to Glen. Hootling started for home and Bill fielded the ball straight to the home plate to Tozer. Nothing doing for Hootling. Here is the score:

Boise, Sept. 23.—The Boise team started one of its whirlwind finishes in a game that have been successful in many games during the recent series, but they could not stretch it far today, and the game was won by Spokane by a score of 6 to 0.
