THE CHRISTMAS NEWS

FOR 1901.

A UTAH-COLORADO EDITION.

The Christmas edition of the "News" this year will be printed on Saturday, December 21st, 1901. It will contain an exhaustive review of the year's developments in business, mining, commerce, real estate, building, and all other branches of business, and will form the most elaborate compilation of the resources and attractions of Utah which has ever been issued.

Our sister state, Colorado, and its industries and attractions will be well represented in the issue, many beautiful views of Denver and Colorado scenery being given. A big part of the edition will be circulated in Denver, and Colorado's principal cities.

Especially attractive articles will be prepared by a corps of selected writers, and leading men of the community will contribute timely articles on current topics.

As the holiday number will be issued several days ahead of Christmas, it will form an invaluable advertising medium to local dealers for the Christmas trade. The general advertiser could find no better means for reaching the people of the great west. The "News" will pledge a circulation of at least 20,000 copies for the Christmas issue. Special rates will be accorded advertisers who wish their notices printed in the Semi-Weekly News as well, giving them a total circulation of nearly 45,000 copies.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Work on the city's new flooding ditch at the head of Parley's creek will begin in a few days, the surveying having almost been completed.

Rev. Louis O. Reynolds will begin his series of lectures on "The Great Men of Jewish History," at the synagogue this evening. His subject is "Philo the Jew." The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. William Iglehart will deliver the third of her series of lectures on "Great Authors" at Rowland hall this evening. Her subject will be "Shakespeare," with special attention to a study of "Portia" as the ideal woman.

The Forest Dale team won from the Granite Stake Academy in a hotly contested game, although greatly outclassed in weight. The victory was the speedy playing of the larger boys of the academy. The score was 5 to 0. The star feature of the game was the long run for a touchdown by Olsen.

The entire service at the First Congregational church next Sunday evening will be devoted to Handel's "Messiah." Rev. Dr. Brown will deliver an address on the oratorio, and some of the solos will be rendered by Mrs. Finner, Mrs. Cocks, Mrs. Perry, Miss Dyer, and Mr. Gilbert. Some of the choruses will be rendered on the organ by Prof. Radcliff.

A most interesting and artistic Thanksgiving observance was given by the young ladies of St. Mary's academy last evening. The auditorium was filled with the parents and friends of the talented girls and an evening of thorough enjoyment was spent. A sprightly bit of drama called "My Aunt's Heiress," was presented in artistic style, the principal performers being the Misses Mullen, Clark and Gottstein.

A portion of the Utah and Idaho stockmen left for Chicago today to attend the National Livestock convention. The remainder of the session will leave tomorrow. The convention opens at Studebaker's hall next Tuesday. On Wednesday State Engineer A. P. Doremus of Utah will deliver an address on "Arid Land Reclamation and Water Supply." The lecture will be illustrated by stereopticon views.

DESERTED HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN

Ernest Welschke Claimed to Have Been Called on a Mission, Received a Benefit From His Ward and Then Levanted For Unknown Paris.

A forsaken and heartbroken wife and child, a host of credulous friends who feel that later than Dec. 3rd, 1901, the blasphemous use of a sacred calling, are some of the things that are left in the wake of Ernest Welschke, a German barber, who for the past year or two has been operating in a shop on State street. Welschke disappeared last Tuesday in a mysterious manner and under circumstances that stamp him as a rogue and a villain. Some two or three weeks ago he made his friends believe that he had been called on a mission to Germany. The latter accordingly prepared a farewell entertainment in his honor, which was given in the eighth ward meeting house two weeks ago. On that occasion a purse of something like $50 was contributed and presented to him. He trunks were the first things she missed and after sitting down and thinking the matter over she concluded that her situation was that of a deserted wife, and she wept bitterly. Later in the day she obtained further evidence which confirmed her suspicions.

That Welschke was a rascal is the only conclusion that can follow an examination of his record. He had for some time been corresponding with two women in San Francisco. Pictures and letters of affection were interchanged and the German was impudently come on to the bay city. It is confidently believed that he has gone to them, although no one who knew him saw him leave the city, so there is no absolute knowledge as to which direction he has taken. Nearly all of his acquaintances, however, concur in the opinion that he has gone to San Francisco.

Welschke did worse than desert his wife, he robbed her of the society means that was necessary to her support.
