The Boers were evidently surprised at the appear ance of the British. This order has been re-ceived with enthusiasm. The march was very trying, but the troops are now encamped amid very pleasant surroundings. Their health is excellent and all are confident."

Will Watch Indians Hereafter,

Chicago, Jan. 19 .- A special to the Chicago Record from Denver, Colo., says:

Further depredations by Indians in vestern Colorado will be prevented by the co-operation of the war and interior departments. Governor Thomas recently made a vigorous appeal for re-lief, and today he received letters in reply from Secretary Hitchcock and W A. Jones, commissioner of Indian affairs, both of whom promise every assurance that the Indians will be more carefully watched in the future than they have been in the past.

Great Men Not from the Ranks of the Rich-No Use for Gamblers and Tipplers-Charity Giving.

New York, Jan. 19 .- Andrew Carnegie addressed the Young Men's Bible Class of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church last night on "Stepping stones to success in business." He said in part:

"As a young man I had the best education in the world with which to begin life. I was born to the blessed heritage of poverty. I hope I speak to poor young men tonight. It is my earnest hope that none of you are burdened with the care of riches. When this burden is laid on a young man and he acts his part well he deserves double credit. He is surely the salt of the earth

"In these days we hear a lot about poverty. The cry goes up to abolish poverty, but it will indeed be a sad day when poverty is no longer with us. Where will your inventor, your artist, your philanthropist, your reformer-in fact, anybody of note-come from then? They all come from the ranks of the poor. God does not call His great men from the ranks of the rich. "To my mind the first thing for a young man starting out in life is to determine to do more than his simple duty. Don't be afraid of your employer. When you know you are right stick to it, and fight it out with your boss. The boy that can beat me in an argument is the boy that I want in my employ. He is the boy that some day will get into the firm

"I say to fight it out with your employer when you are right. He may want a partner some day. He will go home and tell his wife about you. He will talk about you, and-who knows-may be he may have a pretty daughter. There are several qualifications that the successful young man must have. First, he must be honest. He must be moral and he must be sober. I tell you that the young man who drinks can never be successful. You can't trust a drinking man. He must not gamble. want to say that I had just as lief trust the man who gambles at Monte Carlo as the man who gambles in Wall street.

"Then you' must never do anything wrong in business-not even if your employer wants you to. Stand up for your own rights and be a man.

"The successful man is not the one who is proficient in one thing and not in others. He must be a good all round man, capable of doing all things well.

"Business is affected by the small things in life. Events in far off climes affect the business status in this and in every country. The terrible war, the awful massacre now going on in the Transvaal-the effort to strangle a republic-is having its effect upon our business. Then the man who stumbles along is not the man who is successful There has been much discussion recently as to the advantages of wealth and what enjoyment can be obtained from it. The pleasure enjoyed from riches is the good we can do for our fellow

"There are three classes of young mer who start out in life. First, there is the one who says he aims to acquire riches. Then there is the one whose main ambi-tion is to obtain a vaingiorous reputation is to obtain a vaingiorious reputa-tion. He is the young man who would step in front of a cannon to attract the attention of men. And, by the way, this shooting business is bad business. I don't believe in taking a shot at a man, and worse, going out of your own country to kill a man. I believe that the only time to kill is when your na-tive land—your own home—is in dan-ger of invasion. The third, and the man who will be successful, is the man who starts out in life with self respect and who is true to himself and his fel-

Should Have Died Ouicker.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 18 .- The post mortem examination of the body of Charles F. Seeberger, the electrician, who was shot last Saturday night at Brunswick, Md., by Conductor Jerome Swartley, and died Tuesday, revealed the fact that Seeberger lived sixty hours with a bullet hole through the center of the heart.

The wound in the heart, the doctors say, was of such a nature that instanus death should have resulted, and that the man lived sixty hours after receiving it is regarded little short of miraculous

EUROPEAN WAR LIKELY.

Will Start Between Russia and Japan, and Involve Others.

Chicago, Jan. 18 .- "War between Russia and Japan is looked for as inevitable by the naval officers of those countries who have been nearest the probable scene of future operations." said Lieut, Romanoff of the Imperial Russian navy, who arrived in Chicago to-day. The lieutenant has just completed a three years' cruise in Asiatic waters on a Russian battleship, the Sissoi Veliky, and is on his way to St. Petersburg. He continued: "How soon such a war may begin it is difficult to say, but events little short of miraculous must occur to avert it. The Japanese are building warships as rapidly as possible, in anticipation of the outbreak of hostilities, and Rusas she can.

"Taat Russia must have a naval base between Port Arthur and Vladivostock is conceded, and that she will try to get it in Corea is certain. In the event of such a war it is considered probable in Russian naval circles that Russia will have the aid of Germany and that England will take the other side. An European war will follow the outbreak hostilities between Russia and Japan.

The movement of Russian troops to ward Afghanistan and British India borders, the mobilization of trans-Caspian troops at Baku and Herat, and other military maneuverings on the part of Russia are taken by official Russia to mean the beginning of a movement to eliminate English influence in territory heretofore held by her, beginning by Kabul. It is certain that England will have to fight to retain her

What Bryan Says, Goes,

New York, Jan. 19 .- A special to the Herald from Washington says: When Mr. Bryan reaches Washington Saturday the time and place of holding the Democratic national convention will probably be determined.

While the determination of these questions is in the hands of the committee and will not, therefore, be for-mally settled until the meeting of that hody in February, there is a disposi-tion on the part of the party managers to make whatever action may accord with the wishes and the judgment of the man who, it is believed, is certain to be the party's nominee for the presidency.

trict, and have probably been left at Chieveley and Frere camps, with work in reserve for them in front of Colenso. General Buller has two divisions available for attacking the enemy's positions beyond the Tugela, and one of them is fresh from England with full rank. White's garrison being fifteen miles from the scene of operations will also be in reesrve for co-operating with Buller's forces. Masterly combinations which will retrieve Buller's reputation are confidently expected here, although there is not of boastfulness, The truth has been taken to heart that war with a white race is full of surprises and miscalculations, and that the Dutch strategists have an awkward way of turning up where they are least expected and upsetting the best laid and most scientific plans. There was a most hopeful feeling in he clubs at midnight that in the course of the next twenty-four hours the entire aspect of the campaign in Natal and South Africa would be transferred and the demoralized British ministry be stiffened up so as to meet parliament in good fighting form.

CARRYING BUBONIC PLAGUE

Disease Brought to Honolulu in Dirt Packing from China.

Shipments of Plants and Duck Eggs Regarded as Suspicious -Insisting on Proper Bills of Health.

Port Townsend, Wash., Jan. 19 .- According to advices from Washington received here today the introduction of the bubonic plague at Honolulu was by means of merchandise arriving at that port from the Orient. It is believed that the germs of the disease are carried in dirt in which plants are shipped, and also in a sort of muck composed of dirt and manure in which duck eggs are packed in China and shipped both to Honolulu and this country. So strong is the belief of the department that it is thy these means the disease is introduced that Dr. Foster, United States quarantine officer here, has been instructed by the department to make sia is strengthening her navy as fast a thorough investigation of the matter and report to the department.

Orders were received here today from the treasury department that owing to the prevalence of the bubonic plague in the Orient and that a large number of vessels arrive on the Pacific coast from the Oriental ports, that in the future all vessels arriving at Pacific coast ports which fail to bring from the port of original departure in the Orient proper bills of health, the extreme penalty of $5,000 will be imposed, and under no conditions will the fine be remitted. as has been the case heretofore. Customs officials at this port have been requested to notify owners and agents of ships to this effect.

Gen. O'Beirne's rejection was osten sibly due to his American citizenship, but there is no doubt that the authorities would have preferred that the mat-ter of the Transvaal representation be left undetermined. There is every reason to believe that if his mission is to secure an expres-sion of sympathy from the President in behalf of his government or the inter- greet the visitor. The unive are excellent. All the English have left the country. Order is beautifully maintained. The Boers still remaining may be seen daily leaving for their va. rious commandos. The enthusiasm has reached such a pitch that the stay-behinds who don't do anything for their country grow ashamed.

"Johannesburg now is fearfully quiet. All the male population has been dr_fted into a special constabulary. No one is allowed out after 9 p. m. With the exception of ten mines which are being worked by the government, all mines on the rand are shut down. all the It you could but see how everything is being taken care of and looked after, even to the minutest detail, you could not fail to feel great respect for the genius in organizing which is being displayed by the Boers in command.

"Up to the present, 1,500 English are prisoners, among which are fifty officers, and 6,000 are slain. Our loss does not amount to 200, including the dead and wounded. It sounds like a miracle.

"It still looks doubtful who will come out ultimate conqueror, but as things out ultimate conqueror, but as things look now, the burghers stand a good chance. No fighting has occurred on their own country. The supply of food is plentiful, the enthusiasm is great. The English soldiers are not worth The English soldiers are not worth much and surrender easily. A two of their generals are dead. Already Cape Colony will revolt. The English are getting their well earned reward, and I should not feel surprised to see the English leave South Africa neck and crop. No doubt it will surprise you to see me having changed thus, but that could not be otherwise after having witnessed everything. It is now clear that Chamberlain's sole aim has been for three years to make war against the Transvaal and obtain possession of its territory. These last months I have learned a great deal about the Boers and their country, and though I am in no wise infatuated with them, they are much superior to those that work the mines. One of the striking features is that in this war the Boers show all their good qualities, leaving their bad ones at Port Townsend, Wash., Jan. 19 .- Acording to the ruling received today from the treasury department and nade by the commissioner of internal revenue, a bequest of money to a priest for the purpose of saying masses for the repose of the soul, is liable to legacy tax. The case came before the commissioner from Illinois where a bequest had been made for that purpose.

Excessive War Tax.

Port Townsend, Wash., Jan. 19 .- Ac-

ording to a decision of the United States attorney general, the internal revenue department has been charging an excessive tax on export bills of lading and receipts issued by carriers from the United States by rail to Canada or Mexico. Heretofore the department has required a ten per cent stamp on such export bills of lading and receipts, and the matter was taken before the attorney general, who, on the 13th inst. rendered an opinion that according to the wording of the law a one cent stamp on such bills and receipts was all that was required.

Message from an Entombed Mine.

Pottsville, Pa., Jan. 18.—The body of William Galloway, fire boss at the Kaska William mine of the Dodson Coal company, who was entombed by the fall of coal on December 18th, was recovered today. Before the body was found these words were discovered written on sheet iron on a brattice door, addressed to his wife:

"I think I am gone. Good-bye, Janie. Be good boys, Guy and Willie. I don't Be good boys, duy and think i don't think you will see your father any more. I think this is Wednesday." It is believed he lived but three days.

His body lay prostrate in the chute.
