SUMMONS.

In the District Court in and for the Third Judicial District of Utah Territory, County of Salt Lake.

Henrietta Bowser, Plaintiff, vs. John J. Bowser, Defendant.

The People of the Territory of Utah send Greeting:

To John J. Bowser, Defendant.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons—if served within this county; or, if served out of this county, but in this district, within twenty days; otherwise within forty days—or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to have a decree of this Court, adjudging that the bonds of matrimony between said plaintiff and said defendant be dissolved; and that the custody of the minor children of the said marriage be awarded to plaintiff; that the defendant be required to pay a reasonable sum into Court to defray the expenses of this action, and for counsel fees; and that he pay to plaintiff such further sum for alimony as to this Court may seem just. Plaintiff prays for general relief, said relief being sought on the ground that the defendant disregarding his duties as a husband towards plaintiff, has been guilty of habitual drunkenness for more than one year last past. That on the 31st day of January, 1888, said defendant, wilfully and without cause, deserted and abandoned the plaintiff, and ever since has and still continues so, to wilfully and without cause desert and abandon said plaintiff, and still continues so to wilfully and without cause desert and abandon plaintiff, and he has separate and apart from her, without any sufficient reason, and against her will and without her consent; and that defendant, for more than one year last past, has wholly failed and neglected to provide plaintiff with the common necessaries of life—having the ability so to do; but has compelled her to live upon her own labor and the charity of friends.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded therein.

Witness, the Hon. Charles S. Zane, Judge, and the seal of the District Court of the Third Judicial District, in and for the Territory of Utah, this 27th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

Citizen—So you think of locating here? Physician—Yes. I thought some of practicing among you.

Citizen—See here, young man, there's a good opening here for a man as understands his biz, but we don't want no practicing, or experimenting—doctoring's what we want.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, only from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here or there, and in this way they all present, alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he prescribes his pills and potions, assuming them to be such, when, in reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some womb disorder. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages his "practice" until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper remedy, like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription directed to the cause would have removed the disease, dispelled all those distressing symptoms, and instituted comfort instead of prolonged misery.

It's the only medicine for the weaknesses, irregularities and painful derangements peculiar to women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will give satisfaction in every case, or price paid for it will be promptly refunded.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court in and for the Third Judicial District of Utah Territory, County of Salt Lake.

Hattie Zenger, Plaintiff, vs. John H. Zenger, Defendant.

This action is brought to have a decree of this court dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant—awarding to plaintiff the care, custody and control of their four minor children, to-wit: Lillie, Clara, Frances and Chester—adjudging that defendant pay the expenses of this action, counsel fees therein and such sum for alimony as to this court may seem just for her support; and for general relief.

Upon the ground that for more than one year next prior to the commencement of this action, and from the fifteenth day of August, 1888, said defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vow, wilfully and without cause deserted and abandoned said plaintiff, and still continues so to wilfully and without cause desert and abandon plaintiff, and he has separate and apart from her, without any sufficient reason, and against her will and without her consent; and that defendant, for more than one year last past, has wholly failed and neglected to provide plaintiff with the common necessaries of life—having the ability so to do; but has compelled her to live upon her own labor and the charity of friends.

THE CHINESE.

An Underground Route for the Importation of Chinamen.

DETROIT, March 5.—A special to the Free Press from Port Huron, Mich., gives particulars of a regular underground route for importing Chinamen into the United States. Last Thursday the arrest of several Chinamen was reported there. Now it is learned the arrests were made by Detective Day of the Treasury Department. Wednesday last Day received information that an invoice of opium or raw chinamen might be expected to cross the river there that night. Detective Day, in company with Local Inspector Green, placed themselves on watch and their vigil was rewarded by finding four Chinamen, just brought over from Sarnia. The quartette were headed for Tick Chung's, a local Chinese laundry. After seeing them safely in, the officers broke open the door and arrested the proprietor and strangers. One, Wah Slug, was used as a trace. The officers returned the following day and made a thorough investigation, finding the missing

CHINAMEN UNDER THE BED.

On their persons and among the belongings of the pig-tails were found the letters addressed to different firms in Canada and the United States. They all had cards showing where they were to go to, this lot being addressed to Quang Wah, 226 Bunker Hill Street, Charleston. The party also had a complete opium joint outfit.

It appears from the information gained that Yek Chang has contracted to pass 200 of his fellow countrymen, for which service he was to receive $12 per capita. On Sunday, February 23, five passed the border and went to Detroit. On Tuesday two others followed, and on Wednesday the officers caught four. It is quite evident from the methods employed and from the documents secured from Wa Sing that there is engaged a gang at this Chinese importation, and no doubt closely connected with, or a part of, the opium smuggling which had such hard luck at this point last year. From Wa Sing was taken a list of agents starting at Hong Kong, China, and including Victoria, B. C., Ottawa, Toronto, Hamilton, London, Servia, and many American cities.

A number of the parties named are known to the government. On Saturday four Chinamen were arraigned before United States Commissioner Harrison charged with illegally entering the United States. Their attorney pleaded guilty for them, and on the order of Commissioner Harrison they were remanded to a United States deputy marshal with instructions to return them to Canada, and they were placed on board the first train going east.

Important Sale of Trotting Horses.

NEW YORK, March 5.—An important sale of trotting horses began this morning at the American Institute. The horses were the property of L. J. Rose, of the Rose Meade trotting stable at Los Angeles, California. They included the stallion Alcazar. This horse was started at $15,000 and knocked down to Uhler Bros., of Milwaukee, for $25,000. After Alcazar was disposed of the sale proceeded, with the bidding quite lively, and in every instance good prices were realized.

LOOKING THEM UP.

Twenty-two Absent Senators "Fished Up" from the Lobby Restaurant

BECAUSE A QUORUM WAS WANTED.

Proceedings in the House.—Cruel Murder by a Mexican War Veteran.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.

ATTENTION, LEGISLATORS!

Twenty-two of Them Fetched in From the Lobby Restaurant.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The bill increasing the pension of the widow of General Warren was taken up, and on the question of passage the vote was—yeas 19, nays 6. As there was no quorum voting, there was a call of the Senate, when thirty-six Senators less than a quorum answered. Thereupon a motion by Platt, directing the sergeant-at-arms to request the attendance of the absent Senators, was agreed to. After some minutes the presiding officer, Ingalls, informed the Senate that the sergeant-at-arms had just reported that there were twenty-two Senators in the restaurant. They had been notified to attend, but had declined to do so. In a few minutes, however, several of the disobedient Senators entered and explained that they were discussing the merits of two Columbia River salmon, weighing between thirty-five and forty pounds each, which had been shipped to Colonel Montgomery of Portland, Oregon, who was visiting Washington, and by him served up for a delegation of friends in the upper house.

The chair announced that as there was a quorum now present and 2 o'clock had arrived, the educational bill was before the Senate as unfinished business, and the Warren pension bill would remain on the calendar.

Barbour addressed the Senate in advocacy of the educational bill, and Plumb made an address in opposition to the bill.

After executive session, Senate adjourned.

House.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Immediately after the reading of the Journal, consideration of the Arkansas contested election case of Featherstone vs. Cate was resumed, and the contestee was accorded the floor of the House to speak in his own behalf. It was the duty of the members, he said, not to elect today a member from the First District of Arkansas, but, laying aside party prejudices, to determine whom the people of that district had chosen to represent them.

McRae (Ark.), in a four minutes' speech, defended and eulogized the people of his State.

Houk (Tenn.), who had charge of the case for the majority of the Committee on Elections, made a representation of the claims of the contestant. In conclusion Houk argued that the colored people of the South should be given a fair chance. No man could hold a seat on this floor who was returned by means of rifles, clubs and fraudulent ballot-boxes. He was in favor of a National election law. At the conclusion of his speech Houk demanded the previous question.

Hitt (Ill.), a Republican who was supposed to be opposed to the claims of Featherstone, rose and asked unanimous consent of the House. There was a exhibited during roll call, as the vote was very close. The vote resulted: Yeas, 145; nays, 141, so the previous question was ordered.

Outhwaite then offered as a substitute for the first resolution reported by the majority, declaring Cate not entitled to his seat, a resolution declaring Featherstone not entitled to it. Rejected—yeas 138, nays 144. Hitt of Illinois voted with the democrats.

Springer moved to re-commit the case to the committee on elections, with instructions to the committee to appoint a sub-committee to proceed to Arkansas and investigate the election in the first district of that State.

Boutelle suggested the propriety of a proviso that the members of the committee be permitted to return to Washington alive.

Springer's motion was defeated—yeas 138, nays 146.

During roll call a great deal of confusion existed. Outhwaite, calling the Speaker's attention to the fact, asked that order be restored.

Speaker—The House will be in order. Gentlemen will take their seats and cease conversation.

Crisp, who was standing in one of the aisles, objected to being pointed out.

Speaker—The chair did not point out the gentleman.

AFTER A HEATED ARGUMENT

between the Speaker and Crisp, the latter said: "The only point I desire to make is that the Speaker goes too far when, after he has obtained order and a gentleman is attempting to find his seat, the whole business is suspended and an individual member is pointed out in this way."

Speaker—The chair does not think any gentleman ought to consider himself any exception to the request made by the Speaker that the gentlemen should take their seats.

The vote declaring Cate not elected was: Yeas, 147; nays, 138, and Featherstone was seated by a vote of yeas 145, nays 140, and the oath of office was administered to him by the Speaker.

Adjourned.

The Funeral Services.

LONDON, March 5.—The funeral services over the remains of Master Abraham Lincoln will be held Friday next. Only the immediate friends of the family and officials of the United States Legation will be invited. The body will be deposited temporarily in the catacombs at Kensal Green, when it will be transferred to the family tomb of Springfield, Illinois.

An 86-year-old Murderer.

PETERSBURG, Va., March 5.—Thomas Bishop, a Mexican war veteran and pensioner, about 80 years old, was arrested here today on suspicion of having murdered his wife. Bishop had been drinking hard for several days, and persons passing the house yesterday heard him swearing at his wife and threatening to kill her. This morning the woman was found dead in her bed, with her face almost pounded to a jelly. Bishop himself came to the police station and gave notice that he had found his wife dead. It is supposed that he beat her into insensibility last night and then left the house and when he returned home this morning and found her dead, went to the station in person in order to ward off suspicion from himself.

More Trouble in the Transvaal.

LONDON, March 5.—Dispatches from the South African republic say a serious demonstration has been made there against the existing government. It appears that President Kruger, of the Transvaal, attempted to make a speech, but the crowd refused to hear him. A mass meeting was then organized and resolutions were adopted denouncing the Transvaal government. After the meeting the crowd proceeded to the government building and tore down the flag of the republic. The railings around Kruger's house were destroyed and the Transvaal flag, which floated from the pole in front, was pulled down and trampled under foot by the excited people.

OPINION OF AN EXPERT:

Mrs. Mary D. Welch, Teacher of Domestic Economy at State University of Iowa, says:

"My deliberate judgment is that the use of the Range, as compared with others, is not only more equally heated in every part—from as well as rear—but as a result of its superior ventilation the food cooked therein is better cooked, while retaining a sweeter flavor, and a larger proportion of its best juices. I have found, also, that the consumption of fuel in this Range for a given amount of work, is much less than any other."
