The contractor on the new Home Telephone building is doing some rapid work in setting in the first two floors, and expects to have the first two floors and the structure will be completed in quick time.

Col. Hiccox, supervisor for this district of the bureau of animal industry, says that the row in Wyoming was only a temporary one, and that the dipping order did not emanate from him, but from the state commissioners.

Councilman J. J. Thomas has gone to Baltimore to attend the annual meeting of the supreme lodge of Odd Fellows, as grand representative from this state. He will be absent for 10 days.

The Young People's Christian union will meet next Monday night in the First Methodist church, when the question of the proposed rally of the young people's societies of the evangelical churches will be taken up.

A new $2 counterfeit bill has been discovered in Salt Lake, and the work on the bogus paper is said to be very clever. The bill is a silver certificate of 1898 series, Washington head and numbered 55,227,671.

Yesterday afternoon "Red" Gallagher figured out that he had just 30 days more of his 90 day sentence to serve at the county jail. The 30 did not look good to "Red," so he managed to raise up $30 and purchased his liberty. He was released last night.

Unknown parties entered the Salt Lake Brewing company's ration station, 1212 South and Eleventh East street yesterday morning and robbed the slot machines of $25 in nickels, besides carrying off a lot of cigars. The police are on hot pursuit, etc.

A. R. Thomas, a young veteran of battery 3, Utah light artillery, leaves

Tuesday next to enter the freshman class of Michigan university. Max Brown and Athol Rowling will leave also to resume their studies at the same institution as sophomores.

There was a report that the Miners' Home had been condemned because of the supposed instability of its site. But the building inspector states that the spring which endangered the building has been diverted, and the strengthening of the foundations will obviate further possible trouble.

Last night Officer Williams arrested a man who gave the name of William Adams, on suspicion of having stolen some chickens. When taken in charge by the officer, Adams was trying to dispose of the chickens for 15 cents each. He told the old story about having bought them, but he is being held pending an investigation.

Dr. Benedict was called to the city jail last night about 10 o'clock to treat a man who was suffering from delirium tremens. The man gave the name of James Stewart, and was arrested by Officer Ed Davies on Second South and First West streets. He was raving mad until Dr. Benedict prescribed for him. The doctor said he did not give the man 20 grains of strychnine.

Nella J. Myers, who was arrested several days ago by Sheriff Emery on the charge of stealing three horses from the McIntyre ranch in Millard county, was released upon a cash bond yesterday. The man gave the name of James Stewart, and was arrested by Officer Ed Davies on Second South and First West streets. He was raving mad until Dr. Benedict prescribed for him. The doctor said he did not give the man 20 grains of strychnine.

A youngster who says his name is Claude Kader, a son of A. C. Kader, was arrested by Officer Leaker P. last night on the charge of stealing a horse and buggy belonging to Capt. Paul. When brought into the station, young Kader declared that he found the horse at Liberty street, bought the outfit from a boy named Cannon. Finally he admitted that he took the horse to give his girl a ride. Capt. Burdick gave him some good advice and permitted him to go home.

Miss Anna E. Chapman, the late city librarian, was buried yesterday afternoon in Mt. Olivet, from the east Seventh South street residence of her brother, Dr. A. S. Chapman. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. A. S. Chapman. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. A. S. Chapman. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. A. S. Chapman.

Evidence which will tend to convict George M. Clark of embezzlement from the city of Salt Lake, was found in his grip yesterday in the shape of two-cent stamps to the amount of $25. Clark, who was arrested last night, was taken to the county jail, where he was held pending trial.

When arrested he had a small grip in his hand, which the man asked for yesterday afternoon. Before giving it to him, Jailer Booth thought it would be a good thing to examine its contents, which he did, with the result that the stamps mentioned were discovered. It was evidently the prisoner's intention to do away with the stamps, which destroy what will likely prove to be damaging evidence against him. The man was yesterday given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Twomey, who held him to answer the charge of embezzlement in Montana. The prisoner will be taken to that state immediately for trial.

OLD SALT LAKER DEAD.

Sudden Demise of William Roy, Once in Business in This City.

(Special to the "News.")

Paysan, Utah, Sept. 10.—William Roy, of this city, died at 12:30 p. m. today, at the age of 74 years. The cause of death was cancer of the stomach, but as the old gentleman had improved nicely of late the fatal attack came with shocking suddenness. The deceased was born in North Carolina and came to Utah in the early '50s, at which time he engaged in business in Salt Lake. He followed in the Bingham and Tintic districts for 25 years. He came to Paysan four years ago, and has resided here ever since. He was highly respected. The funeral has not yet been arranged.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hammett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. Johnson, recommended this great remedy. I took one dose and I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose I was cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." PRESIDENT SMITH.

Distinguished Utah on His Way to Big Horn Country.

(Special to the "News.")

Billings, Sept. 11.—Joseph F. Smith, president of the Mormon Church, was in Billings last night, on his way to the Big Horn basin country in Wyoming, to inspect the Mormon colony located there by 19 gentlemen members of the Mormon Church, all of whom have just returned from a visit to the Mormon colony in the Alberta country. President Smith spoke very highly of the Mormon colony, and said that he was very much interested in the colony. He said that it was the most successful of any ever attempted, and the members were thriving nicely and satisfactorily. One of the enterprises of the colony there is a canal, which is being dug, and is irrigating their vast fields. President Smith and party will spend a week or two in the basin.

HERPICIDE'S MISSION.

It Takes Away the Dread of Herpes.

Nothing is more annoying to men and women of middle age than to see those unmistakable signs of age—thin hair and grayness—approaching. But science has discovered that these conditions are no longer "unmistakable" evidences of old age, for the Herpicide cream they prove that even very young people may suffer hair loss, while those fortunate enough to escape the ravages of the scalp germ, retain their abundant locks to a ripe old age. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ and removes the risk of appearing old before your time. Save your hair and your feeling by using the genuine Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

Better Than a Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and laid on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side or chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of rheumatism, neuralgia, and rheumatic pains. For sale by all druggists.

Amusements.

The widely advertised Royal Italian band will not be heard at the theater this evening, and if it is heard there at all, it will not be till the latter part of next week. The old internal dissensions, however, have been forgotten, and the band appears to have broken out again, and Manager Pyper last night received word from Denver that Rivala, the leader, had resigned, and carried off with him all the music belonging to the organization. The same dispatch added that Mr. Ellery would bring another band from the east, and resume the tour later. If this is the case, the organization may be heard here next Thursday evening. In the meantime money will be refunded at the box office.
