WHAT GANE HAS TO SAY. In an interview at San Francisco for the Goldneid Sun. Joe Gans of Halilmora says: "It begins to look as it the fight which I have waited so long for is such to take place, although no one has sent me any authorized statement on the Goldfield proposition. Thirty thousand dol-lars is a good purse. I want it clearly un-derstood that it is not the money that I'm looking for this time. I'd then Bat. Melson just as quickly if the purse were only fixed, even if the ring were in a backyard. I want to meet him and settle the dispute as to the championship. I had frequent sinking spells, sometimes as many as three in a day, during which my heart would seen to stop beating, necessitating the call-ing of a physician to resuscitate me. Before finishing the first bottle the sinking spells had ceased, and I took altogether five bottles for a complete cure. I now enjoy perfect health, and an very grateful for this wonderful medicine, for it is the means of my being with my family now." REBECCA BENNET, 1519 Yandee St., Indianapolis, Ind. "As to matter of referece, I am a so willing to take whatever the "Built ng one" wants, but I say that I would rather have it to a finish and then the would be no danger of a dispute over a doction. "I have been taking the best of cate of rayself and when the doings commence [1] he prepared to prove to the public that Joe Gans of Baltimore is the Ban-weight champion of the world, even though Nelson lays claim to it." As soon as Billy Nolan, manager for Hattling Nelson, neceives word from the San Francisco Call that the $80.0 has been deposited with that paper he wid leave at once for Goldheld or Reno to draw up the articles of agreement for the bout. Such was his statement this after-noon. such a point that an athletic club was organized and those at the helm began to see the possibility of pulling off in this camp a right that would draw the atten-tion of the world and the attendance of every fan within reach so fortunate as to have the price of a ticket.

Negoliations started for a fight be-tween Battling Nelson and Joe Gans. In remarkably short order Nolan was induc-ed to sit up and take notice. In the mountul, s there I did my preliminary work for my fight with britt. It is a cool, designtfai place, but I am willing to do anything to help the attendance and if the club people want me to train at Goldfield and that climate is all right, I will do so. "You can say for me," continued Nel-son, "that I am already is good shape and all that I will have to do is to get down to weight. Yesterday Nolan wired Tex Rickard, tressurer of the Goldfield Athletic club, that the Battler would fight Gans in Gold-field on Labor day provided a purse of $30,000 could be guaranteed in the form of the cash on deposit in responsible hands. Yesterday afternoon Rickard asked the Sun to announce this condition, and the calling of a meeting for 7 o'clock last evening to raise the $30,000, Rickard de-clared himself in for $10,000, leaving $30,000 to be raised.

THE GOLDFIELD SUN. tow the big match was atranged is told the Goldfield Sun as follows: one 16 days ago Goldfield began king in a random general way about arealing match. The Sun gave the de-erational in concrete form by publish-is a sweeping challenge from Jack Low-the Chicago celebrity. Next day this allenge was accepted by Victor Ajax, national reputation. Now both men aro daily training for the contest which il to of the highest order. About that time Jack Clifford, the Cali-raia lightweight, incidentally remarked at he would relies a few rounds with y man of his class in the world. His strings were published in the Sun. A pring from the paper was mailed to by Nolan, Battling Nelson's manager, w in Salt Lake and Ogden. Nolan wir-the Sun that Nelson would meet Clif-d.

Then the only link remaining to com-plete the chain of assurance of the big fight for Goldheld was the acceptance of Gans. Early this morning the Sun came to the front again with a wire from San Francisco that reads as follows: "Gans said. I will make is pounds at 3 p. m. 6 p. m., or at ring-side, to suit Nelson.'" In all probability the great Nelson-Gans fight will occur on the afternoon of Lobor day. Sept. 2, at the ball park in Goldfield. It is possible in the afternoon of that day another contest will be given for the entertainment of the throngs who will be in town. In such event the prin-cipals will be Jack Culford and one of the many lightweights with whom he and his manager have been conferring by wire for a week past. At this writing Hanion seems the most likely of the bunch and a Hanion-Clifford mill would be a treat mighty near as good as the Gans-Nelson. GETTING PARK IN SHAPE.

GETTING PARK IN SHAPE. Today the athletic club has begun pre-parations to properly equip the ball park for the occasion. #### After Winning a Big Race He Asked For Pair of Socks.

Many stories are told illustrative of the avariclousness of jockeys who expect a bouse and lot or an eighty horsepower motor car from an owner when they win a big race, but there is one little fellow now riding at Rimont Park who has none of that quality, says an exchange. He is Jockey Bedell, and he won the Brooklyn, handleap on Togalon for J. W. Fuller. One of the older jockeys told the story in the paddock at Belmont Satur-day.
