

January 13, 1871.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—There should be a good attendance at the Theatre to-night, to see "The Lambs of Lassa." It is a fine drama of interest and capital incidents and characters. To say that "A party by the name of Johnson," is in the hands of Mr. Thompson, and that "Ruth Kirby" is to be represented by Miss Sallie Hackley, is sufficient, and "Ned Clay," "Robert Redburn," "Jellick," "The Party," are in the care of those who will do them full justice, as are "Fanny Danville," "Kate," "The Party," and the rest of the characters. It is to be remembered, is for the benefit of the Theatre, and the last appearance of Miss Sallie Hackley. Tomorrow afternoon a Matinee, for the special accommodation of families and "children," will be given and for a rich and attractive bill has been provided, the comedians of "The Happy Man" and "The Dutchmen."

NEW RAILROAD.—Preliminary steps and reports to amount of stock were taken today, we understand, for the construction of a line of railroad from this city to Payson, Utah. The enterprise is in the hands of men who know "no such word as failure." We wish them and the railroad abundant success.

A NUISANCE.—The alley way, behind the stores which are on the east side of East Temple Street, which leads from East to Second South Street, is in a filthy condition, and should receive attention.

THE HELENA GAZETTE.—The Helena Gazette, 4th-7th contains an account of an accident on the ice, to a Mr. Shearley, while driving his team across the Missouri river, between the Helena and the Missouri river, and the Helena Gazette. It appears that each party way across the ice gave way, and the team, three span of mules and horses, sunk into the river and were lost. The unhappy man escaped by jumping off and was in the breaking ice and got away. He estimates his loss of property at $1,000.

SHOOTING.—The Helena Herald tells about a shooting which took place at Forest City, a short time ago. The shooting was the result of a dispute about mining claims. It appears that some difficulty had existed for a long time between Doyle and Melgreen, the owners of two claims, and on the 29th of January, at the time of the shooting, Doyle's men, of 55, broke through into Melgreen's No. 59, and a revolver was presented, threats made, and Melgreen's men ordered off. They submitted, proceeded to Melgreen's cabin and brought him to the drift on 58, and were encountered Doyle, revolver in hand, on the combat was ended by Melgreen shooting Doyle.

VARIOUS.—The 16th Ward Retrenchment Society will give a ball at the Social Hall to-night.

There was a keen stinging frost last night. The thermometer at 8 this a.m., said at 15 deg. below freezing point. Weather bright and clear throughout the day.

Company D, of the 2nd cavalry, at Camp Douglas, will give a grand invitation ball there on Wednesday night, the 15th inst.

THE FESTIVAL.—Professor Careless is actively engaged forwarding preparations for his proposed Grand Musical Festival, to be given in the Theatre. There is no doubt that it will far eclipse everything in the musical line ever before presented to the public here. All the musical talent, vocal and instrumental, within reach in the Territory, will participate in the performance, and is now under training for the occasion, under the direction of the Professor. We believe the precise time for the occurrence of the affair has not yet been decided upon, but understand it will be within five weeks from now.

DISTRICT COURT PROCEEDINGS AT PROVO.—The following was received, per Deseret Telegraph Line, last night:

PROVO, 12.

Court was called at 10 a. m. The grand jury came into the room, all present, and presented a bill after which the Court further charged the jury, to the effect that he would retain them on business for the United States, but they might investigate on Territorial business, stating that the witnesses with regard to the loss of human life evinced by the people of this Territory must be corrected. He alluded to the killing of R. Brown, at Provo; also referred to an affair said to have occurred at Springville, some years ago; also to some threatening of men at Meadow Creek; and directed the jury to investigate into the relations of the act of 1862 in relation to polygamy; telling them to take the time they needed for this purpose. The jury then retired. The case of the United States vs. St. Ledger and others for mail robbery, was called, and after some argument was continued till 10 a. m. to-morrow. Three or four aliens were admitted to citizenship when the court adjourned till 2 p. m. At 2 p. m. court resumed. The case of R. Bachman vs. E. Holden, in contempt, was called.

During the hearing, U. S. Attorney Hempstead came into court, and asked for attachment for Mrs. H. York, to bring her to a witness before the Grand Jury, which was ordered; and the court informed the Marshal, that if he was failed in obtaining witnesses he could furnish him with a sufficient posse to bring any and all witnesses needed. After which the jury came into court, all present, and presented one bill. The court further instructed the jury that in their investigation on the polygamy act they need not go further back than one or two years, as the subject had been discussed in the country till none need plead ignorance as an excuse. Two or three aliens were admitted, and the case of Bachman vs. Holden was continued in argument.

Adjourned till 10 a. m. to-morrow.

THE GRAND SOIREE.—The soiree at the Social Hall, last night, was a magnificent one. A large number of prominent citizens were present. The elegant room was brilliantly lighted up; the array of feminine beauty was positively dazzling, the music was all that could be desired, the best of feelings prevailed during the entire evening, and together it was a most delightful affair. The unexceptionable arrangements reflected great credit on the committees under whose management the soiree was gotten up and conducted.

THANKS.—We are under many obligations to our worthy Delegate, Hon. W. H. Hooper for public documents.
