RAZIS'S AFFIDAVITS.

The decoments are dated early in 1874, at which time they are calmed to have been in the present of Clinton L. Merriam, then a Congressman from New York. They were propared for use in the coutest for Mr. Can-non's sent in the Forty-third Congress, but were not used then or since until to-day. In speaking of them to-fight Mr. Cannon said that during the coutest in the Forty-third Congress Mr. Barber, of Wisconsin, and in-formed him that Mr. Merriam had such an atidavit, and that he saw is a few days later. "I denounced it at once," said Mr. Cannon to-oright, "as uttoriy false, and expressed the opinion, confirmed dinne then, that no one would dare submit such a charge against me to the House or to a House committee. WHO KILLED BABBITT?

No one who is acquainted with Mr. Cannon will give the least credit to such a story as that told by Ra-zin; and no one acquainted with Ra-sin would believe anything he night say, under oath or otherwise. The man whose affidavits are given to the public after a silence of eight years, came to Utah in 1852 or '58 lottery men is developing much bitand married a respectable "Mor-mon" girl by whom he had one child. In 1855 he left this city, deserted his family and they heard nothing of h im for nineteen years, when he came back to this city having left a very unravory reputation in St. Louis. Being treated coldly by those who knew of his shameful course, he managed to ingratiate himself into the favor of some men of his own race doing business here, In every case where opportunity offered he swindled them and it was about this time that he signed the affdavits now brought to light, and about this time that he signed the affidavits now brought to light, and which were concocted for the pur-pose of being used against Delegate Cannon to prevent his obtaining the seat in Congress. They were too vile and improbable, however, and the reputation of the signer was too infamous to give them any credi-bility whatever, so they were not brought forward. Razin, whose true name was Levy Abraham, left the eity to escape from his dafraudthe city to escape from his defraud-ed dupes, and the last heard of him was the circumstance alluded to in the tubes suddenly filling up and chocking him.
