ARMY OF 5,000 BOERS HAS SURRENDERED

Gen. MacDonald Closes the Trap, and the Free State Gen. Prinsloo Gives Up to Gen. Hunter.

London, July 30 -- The following offi- | morning, a four days' armistice for dal dispatch has been received from

"Pretoris, July 29.-On July 25th, Macposald fought a rear guard action with the enemy from early morning until dark nine miles outside of Nanuwpoort, in the Bethiehem hills, resulting in his effectually blocking Naauwpoort Nok to the Boer wagons.

"Rantet reports that the enemy twice checked his advance by holding strong politicus on two Neks, one of which was taken before dark by the Scots, the poyal Irish, the Wiltshire and the Leinger regiments. Our casualties were only five or six. The second nek was taken during the fight by the Scots and Gards, without opposition, the seemy ratiring closely to Naauwpoort.

Prisoners taken stated that 1,200 burghers would surrender if guaranteed that they would be treated as prisoners of war and not as rebels. To this I have assented. As a result of these had assented. "As I am writing a telegram has come from Hunter saying that Prinslee had written a second letter expressing willingness to hand over himself, with his men, rifles, ammunition and other firearms, upon condition that the horses saddles, bridles and other possessions of the burghers be guaranteed them and they be free to return to their bornes.

"I have replied that the surrender must be absolutely unconditional, that all rifles, ammunition, horses and other possessions must be given up, and that the burghers will be considered prison-ers of war. I added that Prinsloo's overtures will not be allowed in any way to interfere with Hunter's operaenemy is defeated or has surrendered.

GEN, HECTOR MACDONALD, WHO CLOSED THE TRAP ON THE BOERS.

General Hector MacDonald is the British officer who closed the trap on General Prinsloo, and thus caused the largest surrender of Boers since the spening of the South African war. Na auwpoort (a place of the same name being in Cape Colony) is in the eastern part of the Orange Free State, and the surrendered army is composed of Free State Boers. Genaral MacDonald was wounded in the attack on General Cronie, just before the latter's sur-
