

services to the country, to beg you at once and entirely to abandon your inclination to relinquish your part of the arduous duty; but I am convinced that I should not do this, and that in all I suggest and ask I should have much at heart your welfare and safety. You have placed your resignation in my hands. My responsibility here begins, and I know that the responsibility will be met and the wishes of the people of the land fully answered when I ask you to postpone for a while any instance upon the adoption of your resignation, and that your final conclusion thereon may be delayed until the effects of continued rest and freedom from official care upon your condition may be better tested. I therefore earnestly request you to accept a leave of absence until the first day of October next, when, if you desire it, the question of your resignation may be resumed with perhaps a better means of judging all the facts and probabilities which should be considered in its determination. Hoping that you will consent to this suggestion and trusting that your encouraging progress towards restoration may continue, I am, faithfully your friend,

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Hon. Daniel Manning, Secretary of the Treasury.

Secretary Manning has accepted the President's suggestion, and will allow his resignation to lie over until his leave of absence shall have expired. Assistant Secretary Fairchild has been requested to continue to act as Secretary till that time, and has consented to do so.

Secretary and Mrs. Manning, accompanied by Mr. Jos. W. Miller, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and Mrs. Miller, will leave Washington tomorrow afternoon for the Hot Springs, Virginia.

DEER PARK, 4.—The President has expressed himself to the effect that he is delighted with his visit here. The President and Mrs. Cleveland rose about 9 o'clock. Shortly after, the President, unaccompanied, strolled along the paths back of the cottage. At 10 o'clock breakfast was served. During the meal ex-Senator Henry G. Davis called at the cottage and remained an hour. Subsequently the President took the fresh air on the porch. He was bareheaded and wore slippers. He had been meditatively pacing up and down the porch with his hands behind him but a short time when Mrs. Cleveland appeared and walked by his side. She was dressed in a white morning wrapper and had a light shawl of the same color thrown over her shoulders. A little later she seated herself in a rocking chair, the President taking his place beside her. About 2 p.m. the President and his wife went to the ex-Senator's cottage to luncheon. There were no guests, the only participants in the meal being the President and Mrs. Cleveland and the Senator's family. The discussion of the recent occupied an hour, at the expiration of which the President and his wife returned to their cottage to dress for a drive. These regular drives will be a feature of the sojourn here.

CINCINNATI, 4.—The Van Wert, Ohio, National Bank received yesterday by the United States express from the Union National Bank of this city a package purporting to contain $10,000, but when opened it was found to be filled with cotton, pasteboard and railroad advertising bills. The package should have reached Van Wert on Wednesday. The money clerk who received it here, says he sealed it with green wax. The waybill for the run of Tuesday night had the package marked "short." When received the package was sealed with red wax. The delay of 24 hours in transit has not yet been explained, but will doubtless give a clue to the robber.

SAN FRANCISCO, 4.—A warrant for the arrest of Thomas R. Sweet, son of E. D. L. Sweet, a prominent citizen of Chicago, was issued to-day. Young Sweet, who was traveling in California, is charged with having forged a telegram from his father, empowering him to draw for money. He presented the forged telegram to an old friend of his father, a prominent telegraph official of this city, who immediately cashed his draft for $75. When the draft was presented Mr. Sweet telegraphed back the telegram was a forgery and refused to honor his son's draft.

ST. LOUIS, 4.—At 9.30 to-night Mr. Clover concluded the closing speech for the State in the Maxwell case, and a few minutes later the jury retired. At 11.15 p.m. Judge Waggoner sent a deputy to the jury room to ascertain if the jury had agreed upon a verdict. On the return of the deputy he whispered a few words to the judge, whereupon the latter adjourned court until to-morrow morning. The fact that the jury were out nearly two hours without finding a verdict, leads many to the belief that they will fail to agree.

TOMBSTON, Arizona, 4.—News is received here that the Apaches raided Carr's ranch in the Huachuca mountains this morning, killed one man and ran off a number of stock.

NEW YORK, 5.—Henry Ward Beecher died this morning.

1 p.m.—It is believed the report of Henry Ward Beecher's death is untrue.

1:10 p.m.—There is no truth in the report of the death of Beecher.

Last night, in view of the failure of supplies for the Third Avenue strikers, District Assembly No. 75, representing the horse railroad employees of this and adjacent cities, were called together again and met in Columbia Hall. First Avenue and Sixty-sixth Street detectives were around the hall and strikers sent messengers to warn members of the executive board to keep out of the way. From this it was evident that ordering another tie up was under consideration, and it was desired that the official heads of the organization should take no open part in the proceedings and thus avoid indictment by the grand jury. The Assembly was still in session at one o'clock in the morning. It was announced that a resolution had been passed approving of the conduct of the Third Avenue strike and ordering it should be continued. Ways and means of providing money to support the strikers was discussed. It was then decided to order another general tie up on all the street car lines of this city and Brooklyn. At four o'clock this morning the cars on all the lines in this city, with the exception of those on Third Avenue, which is run by non-union men, were stopped. All the street car lines in Brooklyn, Jersey City and Hoboken have also been tied up.

NEW YORK, 5.—The action of the board is said to be unanimously approved by the men. They say they have done this to force the Third Avenue road, through the intervention of other companies, to come to terms and declare that the fight will be forced all along the line. The old story of combination between the car companies is reported again as one of the causes of the strike. The blow struck was a sudden and crushing one. Policemen along the streets this morning hailed it as a short, decisive settling of the long strike, which had worn on their strength for nearly two months. The police department were posted on the facts early, and by 6 a.m. every depot was guarded by details. The drivers and other employees worked through the night as usual until the time for the first day cars to run in the morning. At the Grand Street depot of the dry dock lines, the scene of fierce riot and confusion in March last, the night cars finished their trips at 5:30, half an hour earlier the days they were to begin their trips. The men did not appear for the work and the Assistant Superintendent went down and was told of the order to tie up. He merely asked if there were any grievances and was told there was none, that they were ordered to stop work by the board. He then notified the Superintendent. Stablemen were left to care for the horses. At other stables similar questions were asked and similar replies given. It is said this morning over 200 Third Avenue non-union men have left the company, so that only about 80 drivers are left in the service of the company.

ST. LOUIS, 12:15 p.m.—The jury in the Maxwell murder case has just returned a verdict of murder in the first degree.

DENVER, Colo., 5.—Judge Hallett this morning announced that unless an appropriation is soon made he would discharge the United States court, as funds are exhausted. In making reference to this matter at the bar, the Judge referred to the giving of millions by Congress for the "river and harbor improvements," while they neglected to appropriate funds to carry on the courts.

WASHINGTON, 5.—Senator Blair to-day reported favorably from the committee on labor an amendment to the sundry civil bill proposing an appropriation of $100,000 in Bland dollars to aid in the establishment of a school in Utah under the direction of the Industrial Home Association of Utah. The object of the amendment is stated to be to aid in the suppression of polygamy.

The Department of State has received information from the Consul at Guaymas, Mexico, that a band of renegade Apaches, under their chief Geronimo, well mounted and armed, continue their murderous raid through the northwestern portion of his district, and a number of Mexicans and Americans are reported as having been butchered. Two engagements with the Mexican troops have occurred in the Magdalena district, in which the troops were defeated. The American troops, by order of General Miles, are on the trail. The Papago Indians, instead of the Apaches are being employed as trailers. Vigorous measures have been adopted to inspire confidence among the people of Sonora.

NEW YORK, 5.—The funeral of John Kelly took place this morning from St. Patrick's Cathedral. There were no services at the house. At an early hour the people began to arrive at the house to take a final view of the remains, which lay in the casket between heavily draped windows, in the rear part of the parlor. There were no flowers on the casket. All was black, save the silver plate and handles at the sides. The plate bore the words "John Kelly, born April 20, 1821; died June 1, 1894." Many candles burned at the head of the casket. Shortly after 9, the relatives entered to take a last look at the dead, and then the lid was placed upon the casket and fern branches laid upon it. The casket was carried to the hearse, and the funeral procession moved toward the cathedral. The pall bearers were Judge Hilton, Arthur Levy, J. T. Agnew, Recorder Smyth, Judge Gorman, Commissioner Brennan, Eugene Kelly and August Belmont. The streets and avenues adjacent to the house were filled with the rank and file of Tammany Hall. An immense throng of people had gathered in and about the cathedral, while the windows of the private houses in the neighborhood, were filled with people. The cathedral was crowded when the funeral procession reached there. Every seat was filled and the aisles were filled with standing men and women. The ushers at the cathedral were members of the Tammany Hall organization.

Archbishop Carrigan was the celebrant of the solemn requiem mass. At the conclusion of the mass Monsignor Preston preached the funeral sermon. The funeral procession passed down Fifth Avenue and through the other thoroughfares to old St. Patrick's Cathedral on Mott Street. One hundred members of Tammany Society followed on foot. Fathers Kearney and Reardon passed down the stone steps leading to the burial. The remains were placed in an oak box just within the entrance of the vault.

DEER PARK, 5.—The third day of the Presidential honeymoon could not have been more beautiful weather. The sun shone warmly, but its heat was tempered by a delightful breeze which blew over the mountains and made a most charming atmosphere. Quiet reigned supreme in the neighborhood of the Executive Mansion until nearly nine o'clock, when the tireless pacing to and fro of the detectives was broken by the appearance on the portico of the President. He strolled down to where the officers were standing and talked pleasantly to them for a few minutes. Breakfast was brought over from the hotel shortly after nine o'clock. About 11 o'clock ex-Senator Davis and his wife called at the cottage and in a few minutes the President and Mrs. Cleveland appeared and were driven off. The President was attired in a fishing suit. Roads and lines were visible and the party has evidently gone on a fishing excursion.

After an early dinner at the cottage of ex-Senator Davis, a party was made up for the purpose of visiting Deep Creek, a favorite fishing ground four or five miles southwest of here. The party consisted of the President and Mrs. Cleveland, and Mr. and Mrs. Davis. They set out in the President's landau. The drive was through a most charming portion of the country and was greatly enjoyed. The return home was about 7:30 and Mr. Cleveland showed over a dozen handsome trout in evidence of his skill as an angler. Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Davis tried their hands at fishing, but though bites were numerous, neither succeeded in landing a trout. The President was very much pleased with his luck and will pay the spot another visit before he leaves for Washington. He has decided to remain here four or five days longer. The cottage was free from visitors to-night, and at a reasonably early hour the lights were extinguished.

DENVER, 5.—The flood in Southern New Mexico, caused by the heavy rains of the past week, has washed away every bridge of the Santa Fe road across the Rio Grande River, except at San Juan and Bernalillo. No trains have attempted to pass the river at Iteza for eight days, and but two transfers of passengers and baggage have been made during that time. The river at many places is over two miles wide.

The Santa Fe tracks at San Marcial and between Rincon and El Paso are gone and there is no probability of the company being able to repair it for several days.

The old church of St. Francis, at Santa Domingo Pueblo, over one hundred years old, has been washed away, but the pictures and books of the building dating back to the 14th century were saved. As yet no lives are lost.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., 5.—Dayton and Arthur Williams, the first convicted of murder and the other of rape, from which their victims died, were hanged at Orlando, Florida, to-day. The hanging was private. Dayton confessed his crime. Williams persisted he was innocent.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., 5.—A horrible double murder was committed near the Tryon shops in Davidson County last night. While A. J. McBride and his wife were eating supper, they were murdered in their seats and the house robbed and burned, together with their bodies. McBride gave in his taxes yesterday, and it is understood he had $200 on hand, which is supposed to have been the cause of the murder. Alfred Long and Walter Womack, his brother-in-law, both colored, have been arrested on suspicion. Much excitement and indignation prevails here over the affair.

ST. PAUL, 5.—An Edmonson, Northwestern Territory, special to the Pioneer Press says: A rumor is current among the Indians of the district from Victoria to Lac Ste Anne, that the Indians of the south are preparing for an outbreak in the near future in which they will be assisted by the Fenians and others from the south of the line. The Indians from this district are expected to join them and it is said that it was to do so that the Bohtals left their reservation. The plan is to attack McLeod, Calgary and Regina first, leaving the Saskatchewan country to be taken at leisure.

NEW YORK, 5.—Anderson, the horse-back rider, gave up his match against Woodside and Brooks, the bicyclists, in the contest that has been going on at Madison Square Garden during the week at the rate of twelve hours a day. At 11:20 to-night Anderson had made 933 miles against 957 for the bicyclists. Woodside scored 473 miles and Brooks 484.

WASHINGTON, 5.—Nationals 8, St. Louis 0.

NEW YORK, 5.—Chicago 4, New York 0.

Boston, 5.—Kansas City 4, Boston 10.

Philadelphia, 5.—Detroit 3, Philadelphia 0.

The ship, Cheova, lying at the foot of Greene Street, Greene Point, loaded with 50,000 cases of kerosene, took fire about 11 o'clock to-night. She was towed into the stream and is still burning, and is liable to prove a total loss. The damage is estimated at about $100,000.

LEBANON, Pa., 6.—The works of the Pennsylvania Bolt and Nut Company, one of the largest of the kind in the country, were destroyed by fire to-day. Four large brick buildings were consumed with all their contents, embracing a large amount of finished stock and valuable machinery. The loss is about $150,000 and is covered with insurance. About 350 men are thrown out of work. The cause of the fire is unknown.

SAN FRANCISCO, 6.—M. Goldbaum, merchant of this city, who left here two weeks ago to prospect in Whetstone mountains, was found murdered by Apaches, seventeen miles south of Benson, Arizona, yesterday.

A Nogales, Arizona Dispatch received to-day from Harshaw, reports Thomas Lunt, miner, at French mine, near there, was killed by Apaches.

CHICAGO, 6.—It is feared to-night that the labor disturbances that have been brewing at Cummings, the location of the Calumet Iron and Steel Works for several days past, may result in a serious riot to-morrow.

On Friday the Rock Island Railroad Co. decided to move four cars of rails which stood on the side track. These rails had been manufactured by men who had taken the places of the strikers. As a last resort it was determined that these cars should not be moved. As the strikers have been enjoined from interfering with the business of the company their wives and children, to the number of several hundred, decided to prevent the moving of the cars. They sat on the tracks, and as fast as the police and trainmen would move them from the front of the engine they would take their places further on. There was no violence, but as the police would not attack the women they were completely successful, and the day passed without a single car being moved. Yesterday the same scene was repeated, but a larger force of police was on hand and the women were much more excited. They opposed the approach of the police and marched carrying banners proclaiming their rights and went so far as to throw stones and tear up a number of rods of track, the police were not quite so gentle as before; they used clubs occasionally and the railroad was able to make some progress with the cars. The men had mostly remained in the background, but as the excitement increased they came to the assistance of the women and there was a number arrested. No one was injured, but when operations for the day were over a very bitter feeling was prevalent. Many of the men being in a decidedly riotous frame of mind and the women frantic. To-day it is learned the road will make another effort to move its cars to-morrow and that the police department will supply an additional force of men. The outcome is awaited with no little anxiety.

DENVER, Col., 6.—A special from Grand Junction says: In crossing the soldier outfit near Moab on Grand River to-day, Captain Murdock of the Sixth Infantry was drowned. The soldiers were going to the Blue Mountain country to establish a post, and while endeavoring to cross on the ferry the cable broke and Captain Murdock expecting the boat to go across on the rocks in the canon, clung to the wire cable and was drowned. The soldiers on board succeeded in landing her safely on the opposite side without further loss.

NEW YORK, 6.—At 10 o'clock this morning every street car line in the city was in operation excepting those on First and Second Avenues. The men of these lines loitered about after all the other workmen had taken out their cars. The following notice has been posted at offices of the Second Avenue line: The employees of the Second Avenue Railroad Company are hereby notified that unless they resume work on or before Monday June 7th, their places will be considered vacant and new men will be employed to fill them. Competent men who may be engaged will be guaranteed steady employment. (Signed) Wm. S. Thorn, President.

This notice had not been announced five minutes before one of the striker's pickets hastened with the news to the executive committee. Shortly before noon the cooler headed men began to consider the question of going back to work without orders, but a message came from the executive committee with permission for them to resume work, then the men went to President Thorn and told him they were ready to go to work on Monday and at 12:30 the cars were again started. The roads are all running as usual to-night and all the cars in Brooklyn have been running as usual.

DEER PARK, 6.—The President's first Sunday on the crest of the Alleghenies dawned bright and clear. Col. Lamont and wife arrived on the early train from Washington and were driven at once to the Executive Cottage where all will be quartered during their stay. Breakfast was taken shortly after nine o'clock, and about an hour later the party started for Oakland, six miles off. The party consisted of President and Mrs. Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Lamont, ex-Senator and Mrs. Davis and two children, and John W. Davis, President Garrett's first assistant.

The quiet mountain village of Oakland was alive with people who came from miles around to catch a glimpse of the President and his bride.

The pretty little Garrett Memorial

Church was the centre of attraction and groups of rustics attired in Sunday raiment stood around the door. Inside there were as many people as could be accommodated. The Chancel was decorated with flowers, and an extra large choir was in attendance. At 11 o'clock the Presidential party entered and were ushered into the pews reserved for them on the right off the pulpit.

As they were seated, the choir sang "Elegiac to a bird to yon mountain."

The Pastor, Rev. D. Foulk gave out the 54th hymn, "Behold what condescending love," and after it was sung, proceeded to baptize the infant daughter of Capt. Isaac Kingkendall, which was by singular coincidence named Frances, though not intended as a complement to Mrs. Cleveland. The little girl bore herself with becoming dignity and did not once make a sound. Dr. Foulk read the fifteenth chapter of the first epistle to the Corinthians, after which he prayed at length, asking the divine blessing on all present, especially the President and his bride. The 64th hymn was then sung. After which a collection was taken up, to which President Cleveland contributed a crisp new five-dollar note. The sermon was preached by Dr. Foulk, who took as his text the first and second verses of St. Paul's epistle to the Corinthians, "Brethren I declare unto you the gospel which I preached to you, which also ye have received and wherein ye stand, by which also ye are saved if ye keep in mind what I preached unto you unless ye have believed in vain."

The discourse was an orthodox argument as to the truth of the death and resurrection of Christ and lasted a little over half an hour. The President and his party were the first to leave the church. They at once entered their carriages and were driven to the cottage of Senator Davis, where they dined. Mrs. Cleveland wore a handsome black silk dress, trimmed with jet beads and beaded tape, straw-colored bonnet and black gloves. She looked strikingly handsome, and on her entrance excited a murmur of admiration. The President wore the conventional broadcloth suit with silk hat and tan-colored kid gloves. He carried the usual light cane.

After lunch the President and his wife walked over to the next cottage, which is occupied by Major M. B. Hill, purchasing agent of the Baltimore & Ohio Co. He introduced Mrs. Cleveland to Mr. and Mrs. Hill, and after being joined by Col. and Mrs. Lamont, the entire party walked through the fields. Lack of the cottages and spent over an hour gathering wild flowers with which the ladies filled their purses.

It is understood that the President and Col. Lamont will have a general trouting expedition to-morrow, and that Col. Lamont will return to Washington by Tuesday morning. The date of the President's return has not yet been announced.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., 7.—At 3:30 this morning fire was discovered in that portion of the New Grand Theatre behind the stage. The canvass and oil of the scenes and the stage settings, burned fiercely, and in five minutes after its discovery the entire stage was blazing furiously. An alarm was sent in, but the engines that responded were unable to do anything toward extinguishing the conflagration which by this time covered all the middle of the block between Third and Fourth, Ferguson and Queen streets. A second alarm was turned in, but the entire theatre was on fire and resisted the greatest efforts of the firemen. The theatre was one of the finest in the west or south. The block was valued at $100,000 and is a complete loss.

DEER PARK, 7.—The President, accompanied by private secretary Lamont, went trout fishing to-day.

CHICAGO, 7.—Eight persons were smothered to death in a three-story frame building 781 and 783 South Canal Street this morning. The names of the dead are as follows: Michael Murphy, aged 42; Mrs. Michael Murphy, aged 35; Anna Murphy, 9; Nellie Murphy, 11; Mrs. May Durkin, 30; Patsy Lallie, 4; John Durkins, 3 weeks old, and Wm. Hand, 65 years. Fire broke out in the cellar of 783 Canal St., and reached through the wooden walls of the basement and No. 781, was soon wrapped in flames, which enveloped the adjoining number. The sleepers were smothered in their beds. The flames followed rapidly after and burned the bodies to a crisp. John Raleigh, wife and seven children occupied the first floor of 783. Raleigh was awakened by his wife whom he rescued by throwing her from the window and being unable to do the same with the children, went to the second floor and jumped from the window with them in his arms. Several others had narrow escapes from jumping through windows. The fire is thought of incendiary origin, as it is the third time the building has been found on fire within a month.

PITTSBURG, 7.—The 34th annual session of the International Typographical Union was held this morning. One hundred and eighteen delegates were present.

A resolution was unanimously adopted asking Congress to restore the wages in the government printing office to the rates paid prior to the reduction in February, 1893, as provided for in the printing house bill 7,476. Adjourned till to-morrow.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Brakemen commenced a three day's convention of the order in Denver, on Thursday, June 3d.
