The New York Sun thus summarizes the adulterations in food and drink, which help to make life so pleasant in the blg cities: "With alum in his bread, coloring matter in his butter, sand in his sugar, and poison in his liquor, the average man has hard work in getting food and drink that will not make him a skeleton nor kill him. Now comes the adulteration of coffee with date stones, which has been discovered in England. Several tons of "melilotine coffee," a compound of coffee, chicory, and date [stones, were seized in Manchester recently."
