

FRAGMENTS.

SHERIFF ALLISON was in the city today.

MONK racing is being talked of in horse circles.

W. S. GOSPE came up from Bullionville last night.

No one ever saw finer weather than this in November.

HOME missionaries will visit the county wards to-morrow.

SOL SMITH RUSSELL in "Pa" is the next attraction at the Theatre.

A MAJOR HILL, of the Horn Silver, returned from the east last evening.

DEPUTY marshals searched the house of Mr. Newton, in the 10th Ward, early this morning.

THE conference of the Mutual Improvement Association of Weber Stake is announced for to-morrow at Ogden.

A MEMBER of the City Council intends to introduce a bill for a "Curfew law," to put a stop to hoodlums in the city.

THE Sixteenth Quorum of Seventies will meet in the First Ward Assembly Hall on Monday evening, November 8th, at 7:30.

WE are informed that yesterday deputy marshals made a systematic search of the homes of residents in the Second Ward of Provo.

BEGGARS are getting rather numerous in the city. Most of them are of the genus tramp, and should find board and lodging at the city jail.

JOHN HAPEN has just painted an excellent picture, in water colors, of two children of W. S. Spence. It is to be seen in the Art Bazar window.

ON Thursday Judge Chas. W. Stayer performed the ceremony uniting Conrad Mueller and Marie Schroeder in the bonds of matrimony.

THE Tenth Quorum of Seventies will meet in the Eighth Ward Assembly Hall on Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock. The members are requested to attend.

THE concert in the Fifteenth Ward meeting house on Monday evening next, commences at 7:30 o'clock. The programme is one of the best that can be made up in the city.

THE hour of commencing Sabbath evening meetings in the Seventeenth Ward will be 8 o'clock instead of half past 8 as heretofore. The change will be inaugurated to-morrow evening.

THREE more silver bricks from the Bannock mine, Idaho, were received in this city to-day. The aggregate weight of the three is over 5,000 ounces. Bannock stock is still quoted at $5.00, with very little on the market.

RELIGIOUS services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be held in the Tabernacle to-morrow afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock. At 10 a. m. services in German will be conducted in the City Hall, and in Scandinavian in the Social Hall.

WE are requested to say that the Rev. L. L. Wood, pastor of the Baptist Church of this city, begins a course of sermons to-morrow night on the "Ten Commandments." The public are cordially invited. Church corner of Second South and Second West Streets.

A WOMAN came to the City Hall to-day, and wanted a former employee of the "Half-way House" prosecuted for defaming her character. Nothing was done, however, as the woman's reputation was not very high, though she said that she had "borne a good character since last June, if not before."

THE pocketbook which Charles Neilson claimed to have been stolen from him at his place on the State Road, on Sunday night, has been returned, with its contents, to the owner. The alleged thief will not, however, be prosecuted by the parties, for fear that something will develop that the officers would like to get hold of.

THE funeral of the late Charles Holt took place at 2 p. m. yesterday in the Sixth Ward meeting house. Singing, prayers and instructive and consolatory remarks were made. A number of friends followed the remains to the cemetery. The relatives desire to thank those who so kindly assisted them and accompanied the ceremonies.

THE funeral service over the remains of the veteran John Ald, who reached the ripe age of 83 years, will be held in the 18th Ward Chapel to-morrow (Sunday) at 10 o'clock. He was known to a great many people, having been day watchman at the east gate of the Temple Block for a number of years. John was an honest and true man, and a faithful Latter-day Saint. That ecumenism covers a wide expanse of ground.

LOCAL NEWS.

SEASONABLE.—In to-day's issue will be found an advertisement from Mr. Thomas Crawford, who has had an extensive experience in curing, flavoring and packing all kinds of meats. He is prepared to take orders from farmers, butchers and all kinds of people to perform this service at a very low rate. This is a good opportunity for families to have their winter's meat cured. Mr. Crawford is an old hand at the business, having been for a long time connected with a meat-curing establishment in the city of Glasgow. His address will be found in connection with his advertisement.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—At Washington, Utah, on Sunday morning, October 31st, at about 4 o'clock, in a house belonging to Brother Miller Iverson, the middle beam gave way, causing the roof to fall in and the wall to spread out, leaving the inmates in a critical condition. Two ladies, namely, Marcena Iverson and Matilda Sandberg, were in bed in the house and were awakened by the crash. A piece of heavy timber fell between them, knocking a hole in the ceiling. Fortunately there were two boys sleeping in the stackyard, who heard the sound, and rushed to the rescue. They pulled the ladies away and the inmates escaped unhurt.

PETTY THIEVING.—Instances of the loss of small articles from the premises of different citizens have been reported very frequently of late, and no one in the city seems exempt. The carrying away of wood, coal, tools, clothing, and anything that is found loose outside the houses or in sheds, appears to be made a practice by parties who operate in every quarter of town. An instance took place in the First Ward this week. A set of buggy harness, which had been left outside of a barn, was carried off, and from a house near by a barrel of cider and an overcoat were missed. The next night three bushels of potatoes were taken. An effort should be made to capture and punish the parties engaged in this sort of business.

THE STOCK INTEREST.

A PROMINENT REPRESENTATIVE'S VIEWS.

Meeting Dr. Faust to-day, our representative asked him what he thought of Utah stockmen going to the Chicago Convention, to which he replied:—"Well, there is nothing in it for Utah stockmen. When we went to St. Louis last year and the year before, we had a grand time of course, seeing the sights and partaking of the luxuries, but that was all; the convention did nothing for the range stockmen. The range interest was not even hinted at, and we found ourselves as an association in debt. The convention appointed a committee to meet a like committee from the competing city of Chicago; they met at Springfield, Illinois, and agreed to have both associations meet in Chicago, dissolve, and meet and form a national association, each member to pay twenty-five dollars; all our money was lost to each and every association."

Reporter.—What do you intend to do as President of the Utah Cattle and Horse-growers' Association?

I cannot consistently ask the stockmen to go east of the Missouri River and spend their money to please eastern stockmen and large cities.

What do you propose to do?

I will call the executive committee together soon, and it is for them to consider what the stockmen want to do about going to the Inter-Mountain Convention held at Denver, in January, 1887, which takes in all the range interest between Colorado, Wyoming and the Pacific Coast.

How is the stock interest now in Utah?

It is better than with our neighbors. The stock is healthy, beef is bringing a good price, with a good outlook for those that feed for spring.

What about fine stock?

Well, we have imported more this year than last. The farmers are beginning to wake up to their own interests.

Is Utah not ahead of everything?

That depends; if you mean fine stock, no. The Cherokee Indians are ahead of us. You see so many people brought from India, from Spain and from the States, and they have to keep their calves; that is now the greatest trouble. But I am not discouraged, and are long Utah stockmen and farmers will be aristocrats.

Here our reporter left the veteran, with his hat on the back of his head, believing that he sometimes thinks of others than himself.

"The Lost Mine."—There was a large audience in attendance on the G. A. R. benefit last evening, and the proceeds must have been a considerable item. Col. Sells and his coadjutors worked industriously to make it a success, and were well rewarded.

Of the play, but little of a commendatory character can be said. It is tolerably well written, evidently by a master hand in his "off hours"; the arrangement of the characters, the placing of the scenes and the general run of the piece show that it was constructed by no novice, yet the first-class work is wanting everywhere, for the plot has no strong situations, but little telling dialogue, and it is absolutely guiltless of anything in the way of nature climax or grand effect.

As to the actors, it would be manifestly unfair to speak of them as we would of professionals, or even amateur companies of experience, albeit there were a few to whom the stage is no new thing, and at least two professionals—Mr. Lansing and Harry Taylor. The part of "Nevada" was in the hands of the former; his make-up was perfect and his stage business good, but a too apparent effort to make the part greater than its place in the drama warranted at times spoiled the effectiveness of his rendition; he shows marked ability as an actor, but we seriously question if "Nevada" is strictly in his line, or if it is, he should depict it in more subdued colors; he has a fine appearance and made a good impression. Harry Taylor as "Silas Steele" was not altogether in his element; there was scarcely enough of the dash and abandon of the peripatetic crag-dancer who takes chances on everything and seldom achieves anything; still he was as he always is "well up" and thorough, and showed how good an actor he is when given a fair opportunity. Mr. J. M. Young made the most of his opportunities as "Vermonter." The "Carew" of Mr. Bywater was well acted; a little less "Macbeth" and a little more "Claude Melnotte" would have improved his personation, however. The performances of Messrs. Reeves and Felt will be allowed to go through the lines on an amateur pass, at least we think so; they are in all kindness, with the hope that they will improve thereby, that there are more stages than one, and on any of the others stiffness, frigid delivery and unbecomingly awkwardness do not amount to anything—on the theatrical platform the amount to great deal, amateur or otherwise. The negro of Mr. Jennings and the Chinaman of Mr. Davis were well done throughout and each scored something of a hit. Miss Millie Cook made her first appearance as "Mabelle," and gave the audience quite a surprise; she is pretty, intelligent, and shows a decided aptitude for the stage. Miss Campe was quite acceptable as the widow, and Miss Forrest as "Agnes" was somewhat otherwise. In the olio, the recitations of the Misses Sells and Platt were excellently delivered and elicited loud and deserved applause. Mr. Meakin came near taking the palm of the entertainment by his really fine rendition of the song "Ehren on the Glasgow." His address will be found in connection with his advertisement.

Messrs. Colson and Lansing, the managers, propose keeping the organization up and presenting other entertainments.

OBSEQUES.—The funeral service over the remains of the late Sister Matilda Smith was held in the 12th Ward school house yesterday afternoon. Elder John A. Drake, president, and Bishop O. F. Whitney and Wm. Thorne, and Elder B. H. Schettler addressed the assemblage. It was the request of Sister Smith that Bishop Whitney should be one of the speakers. He occupied about an hour, referring to the many noble qualities exhibited by the deceased during her lifetime, the persecutions she had suffered during the early days of the Church, and gave some excellent teaching to those present on the principle of charity.

The relatives of Sister Smith desire to express their gratitude to those who, during the sickness and at the funeral of the deceased, performed many acts of kindness.

ELECTION at Beaver.—The election held of quality at Beaver. It was, in fact, a very tame affair. Beaver City polled 27 votes for Hon. John T. Cain and 35 for Perry.

Half Rates.—The National Stock Convention meets at Chicago from November 10th to 20th. For this convention the Union Pacific will make a half rate to Omaha from the principal stations in Utah and Idaho.

Millinery.—Attention is called to the card of the Misses Martin in another column of to-day's News. The ladies have an excellent reputation as milliners, having given the best of satisfaction, and they can and will keep up to a first-class standard at the lowest rates. They give special attention to country trade.

THE IMMIGRANTS' BAGGAGE.—A dispatch received in this city this afternoon by Francis Cope, Esq., of the Utah Central, stated that the baggage of the last company of immigrants, which had been delayed at Omaha, had been forwarded and would reach this city on Monday. It will be distributed on Tuesday.

Court Notes.—Proceedings in the Third District Court to-day:

J. W. Bunker vs. Edward Brain; Arthur Brown close argument for the defendant and P. L. Williams for the plaintiff; Court charges the jury, and the latter retire at 12 m. They had not returned with a verdict when we went to press.

Frank Wright vs. M. S. Ascheim et al.; on trial before a jury.

United States vs. Henry H. Hawthorne; polygamy; demurrer to indictment argued and submitted.

Academy at Beaver.—Our correspondent "Moonbeam" writing from Beaver, on the 31st inst., says:

Among other enterprises, as an additional lever to implant an increase of faith in the hearts of the youth of Beaver, an academy was formally opened on the 2nd inst., in the upper rooms of the Co-operative store, which will accommodate 25 pupils. Patriarch Daniel Tyler offered the dedicatory prayer, and the appropriate remarks were made by H. Stoney and Dr. Grimshaw, directors, and also by President Murdoch and Elder J. M. Maeser. The latter will be the principal and have the control of the institution, commencing it after the manner of the B. Y. Academy at Provo. He opened with 28 pupils and with the prospects of a large attendance from Pleasant Valley and Red Canyon—all the Co-ops sold in the Salt Lake market. Our Weber from the celebrated Co-ops of the mines and we are mining better coal than ever before. No other Weber brought to this market can compare with it. All our coals are nicely screened and cleaned.

James Newton Arrested.—At 6 o'clock this morning Deputy Marshal Greenman arrested James Newton, at the latter's home in the Tenth Ward, on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. Sarah G. Newton and Sarah M. Newton, the defendants, were his daughter, were subpoenaed as witnesses. Mr. Newton, who is an aged and infirm man, was brought before Commissioner McKay, and listened to the reading of the complaint, which was sworn to by D. W. Rench, and charged him with having lived with Elizabeth Newton and Sarah Doe Newton as his wives, from December 1, 1883, to November 1, 1886. The accused pleaded guilty, and was placed under $1,500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury. The witnesses also gave $200 bail each to appear before the inquirers on November 22nd.

Testimonial Concert.—On Monday evening next there will be given in the Fifteenth Ward meeting house, a testimonial concert for the benefit of Mr. H. E. Giles, a well known musician of this city, who has arranged to take up his residence in Provo. The affair has been in preparation for some weeks, and is being gotten up by Mr. Giles' friends, who wish to testify to him the esteem in which they hold him. The Tabernacle Choir and Theatre Orchestra are the main movers in the matter.

A splendid programme has been prepared, and the participants in it embrace much of the best musical talent of the city. Professors E. Beasley and W. E. Welch will act as conductors, and Prof. J. J. Daynes will be the accompanist. Prices of admission are: Reserved seats, 50 cents; general admission, 25 cents; children half price. It is reasonably certain that there will be a crowded house.

Raid on Centerville.—About eight o'clock last night Deputy Arthur Pratt and a number of assistants made a raid on Centerville, Davis County. John Adams, superintendent of the Centerville Co-operative, was arrested at the store and brought to this city, arriving about 11 p. m. He was kept at the Cliff House over night, and this morning taken before Commissioner McKay. The complaint against him, sworn to by D. W. Rench, alleges that, from December 1, 1883, to November 1, 1886, he had lived with Marietta Adams and Lizette Cleveland Adams as his wives. The defendant stated that he desired to waive examination, and the Commissioner remarked, "Well, there is no District Attorney here, and I guess I'll let him do it." The bonds were accordingly fixed at $1,000. L. S. Hills and Wm. H. Strepper being sureties. Six witnesses were required to furnish $200 bonds, each, to appear before the grand jury on Monday, November 22nd, and John Ford and Aaron Porter became sureties for Mrs. Marietta Adams, Mrs. Cleveland, Wm. Cleveland, Misses Oila and Jessie Cleveland and Annie Adams.

Police Court.—To-day the four boys, Moroni Caldwell, John Keener, Reese Briscoe and Alonzo Sadler, accused of petty larceny, were arraigned before Judge Pratt. They all pleaded guilty to the charge, and sentence was suspended until Monday. Mrs. Caldwell was present and was greatly exercised over her wayward son, the only one she said, of thirteen children, who had brought disgrace and sorrow upon the family, all of whom are quite small, when questioned by the court, stated the circumstances under which they were led into the commission of the crime. They had applied to one Robert Briscoe, driver of a job wagon, for a vehicle, and were told by him that if they would bring a chicken each they could have it. They replied that they had no fowls, when he suggested that they go out into the field and catch some, which they did, Briscoe's own son assisting the boys to run the chickens down. The complaint was immediately made out against the elder Briscoe for receiving stolen property. He was arrested this afternoon by an officer and pleaded not guilty to the charge. His bail was fixed at $200, which amount he was not able to give. His case will be tried on Monday.

This afternoon Mrs. Bubbles was called to receive sentence for assaulting and severely beating Mrs. Phillips with a piece of hard wood. She was fined $25 for the offense. After judgment was pronounced she burst into tears, and remained in that condition, wringing her hands, and apparently plunging into despair, for over an hour. Her daughter, 10 years old, joined in the weeping. She has a child 6 years old, and also one 18. As she had no money she was remanded to jail. The offense committed was an aggravated one, but the accused being a widow with a family, caused the court to inflict the light penalty, whereas had it been a man, it is probable the full extent of the law would have been given.

THE MORE COAL COMPANY.

Fred A. Mitchell, manager, Boulder, has the honor of being the first in creating, for their coal, which is mined at Coalville, Utah, found it necessary to put out several new and improved. These specially fine wagons were furnished by the Studebaker Brothers. They are built for this particular work—they have hard wood boxes and wing boards—they are handsomely painted, lettered, and are exceedingly attractive. Strong in build and light in draught.

FINE ART AND FURNITURE.

It is surprising what perfection the furniture business has reached. Four cars just opening by Barratt Brothers are well worth examination.

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of El Paso by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head, every body said he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. By the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery he was well and had gained in weight thirty-six pounds.
