

COUNT WHITE GAINS STRENGTH.

Through Failure of Strike and Passing of the Polish Crisis.

CONSIDERING THE ELECTIONS.

Conclusion Almost Reached to Base Them on Universal Suffrage—Zemstvoists for Premier.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 21.—The present lull is giving the government a slight breathing spell. The strike-rasco and the passing of the Polish crisis have certainly temporarily strengthened the hands of the government.

The immediate question confronting the cabinet is the electoral law. Premier Witte and his colleagues have almost reached the conclusion to base the elections practically on universal suffrage.

A member of the cabinet who may be considered to reflect the views of the premier, said today:

"The extreme wing of the intelligent liberals still insist on fighting a windmill when they espouse a return to the old regime. That has passed forever. Nevertheless, the country must be saved from anarchy and strong measures like those which we have taken where the occasion arises. We must discount future developments and where we believe it wise, go slow."

"We may be forced to take a radical step such as the choice between evils. It is already certain that the duma as at present constituted and elected will be a failure. We are unable to deliberate unless surrounded by troops. If the duma is to undertake to transform itself into a constituent assembly or elaborate a constitution it is better that it should represent the true voice of the nation than the minority of the people."

Speaking of the Jewish question, the member of the cabinet said:

"For the cabinet there exists no Jewish question. It is not what should be done, but how to do it. We are absolutely of one mind that all the restrictions on the Jews should be abolished, but for the government to decree equality without action and nothing the central government could do would prevent the most frightful massacres."

"The agrarian agitation, in my opinion, is the gravest phase of the situation. The peasants throughout the country are possessed of only one idea—more land, and the uprising which is occurring in the famine-stricken provinces is susceptible of moderate extension by the revolutionary agitators who will shrink at nothing."

ZEMSTVOISTS FOR PREMIER.

Moscow, Nov. 21.—The sentiment of the zemstvo congress is veering distinctly to the side of Count Witte and it now seems probable that a large majority of delegates will favor a resolution to come to the assistance of the government against the forces of revolution and disorderization, though only because such action is regarded as a considerable faction as the least of many evils.

Such leaders as M. St. Chepikine of Moscow, Alexander Slavovitch, Michael Slavovitch, Prince Paul Dolgorukoff and Prince Volkonsky of Riazan, who are among the prominent men in Russia, and who have the confidence of those engaged in the reform movement, came out boldly at today's session and laid down as a plain truth that only through co-operation with the government, good

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are finding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the most confidential relationship between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

WOMAN'S VITALITY. DEPENDS ON CARE REGARDING A SIMPLE MATTER.

Mrs. Ford Tells What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Will Surely do for Many Perplexed Women.

"I wish I could help other women get rid of certain physical troubles as completely as I have succeeded in getting rid of mine," said Mrs. B. B. Ford, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., recently.

"I am not only able to keep on my feet, but to do my work as a teacher, and to enjoy the pleasures that come through the possession of sound health."

"Within three weeks after beginning the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I experienced such relief that I knew they must be adapted to the needs of my case. After using them for a short while longer I became and have since remained a well woman, and the reason why is simply that I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

The pills which Mrs. Ford praises so enthusiastically cure the chief ailments of women by thoroughly renovating the blood. They make ulcerated action cease, and banish headaches, languor, nervousness, create appetite, promote digestion, put color in the complexion, build up strength and give a word, enable women to reach and maintain full physical perfection.

Every woman should send to the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., for a catalogue, entitled "Plain Talks to Women." It will be mailed free in sealed envelope to the address of any applicant. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists. They are safe as well as effective. They do not contain the slightest trace of opiates or of any other harmful drugs.

or bad though it might be, lay the way to a happy realization of the liberties promised by the imperial manifesto of Oct. 30.

SENATORS DIFFER ON RAILROAD RATE LEGISLATION.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Divergent views developed at a conference of Republican members of the senate concerning an interstate commerce bill.

The conference followed a regular meeting of the committee in the afternoon and was attended by six of the eight Republican members. Senators Clapp and Millard were not present.

Of the six members attending the conference it developed that Senators Elkins, Aldrich, Keam and Foraker were nearly in accord on one side and Senators Cullom and Doolittle were on the other. No propositions were advanced, but the four senators in the latter group expressed their desire for harmonious action and not too radical legislation.

Senators Cullom and Doolittle insisted that the only way to have harmonious action was for all the Republicans to get in line with the president and support his recommendations. The other senators suggested that the president's recommendation had not been crystallized sufficiently to determine just what he wanted.

No measure was presented by any of the senators embodying their views, although it is known that several measures have been drafted. After the conference adjourned some members of the committee expressed the opinion that a bill would be agreed on, but the opinion was also expressed that the majority of the full committee would report a bill in line with the recommendations of the president.

Previous to the conference the committee held a meeting attended by Senators Elkins, Cullom, Aldrich, Keam, Doolittle, Foraker and Millard, Republicans and Democrats. Besides Clapp, Republican, the other absentees were McLaughlin and Carmack, Democrats. The formal meeting of the committee was devoted to informal discussions and review work. Testimony and papers received since the last meeting of the committee were ordered printed and an adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

The meeting of the committee two weeks in advance of the assembling of Congress is to consider the testimony taken last spring and also the additional data which has been gathered by experts since the commission ceased its hearings.

"BACK TO NATURE" KLEINST.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Unable to retain his position, due to long periods of fasting, John Klein, the "back to nature" preacher, died yesterday.

Klein, who was 50 years of age, had traveled all over the country on foot, wearing only sandals and clad in the thinnest and coarsest garments. When he did not fast he lived on roots and herbs. One of his beliefs was that frequently he would stop persons on the street and with uplifted fingers warn them to prepare for the last days of judgment and for a few months he was a familiar figure in the downtown streets, in which he sold pamphlets advocating his ideas of getting back to nature.

Mrs. Pannett Clark Dead.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Mrs. Pannett Clark, 24 years old, died at her home alone and helpless yesterday, her head resting on the burner of a gas stove. She was a well known charity worker and one of the founders and charter members of the Chicago Commons Women's club. The supposition is that Mrs. Clark, while preparing her supper, fainted, falling across the stove. Whether death was caused by the severe burns or by asphyxiation is unknown. When a neighbor found the body the stove was cold and gas was escaping.

J., Nov. 21.—The National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, today devoted considerable time to the allegation that the express companies were trying to defeat the rural free delivery and parcel post bills in Congress. Resolutions against such action of the companies were adopted unanimously.

FOR PANAMA CANAL EXPENSES.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Leaders of the house of representatives who will determine forms of legislation have decided that in order to meet the emergency for the Panama canal work, a bill will be speedily passed after Congress meets putting the canal bonds on the same footing as the other two percent bonds of the government, in order to facilitate their sale.

An appropriation will be made to meet the payroll of the canal with a provision that the money for the purpose shall be reimbursed to the treasury out of the sale of the bonds. After that Congress could, if necessary, determine the type of canal without crippling the work in progress.

This program has been outlined in order to meet contingencies and not delay the work on the canal while the committee reports.

THE ALASKAN CONVENTION.

Fight for Delegates Becomes Exceedingly Bitter.

Seattle, Nov. 21.—After a fight lasting all day and which at times became so bitter that certain delegates threatened to walk out of the convention, the question of Alaskan representation was settled by the action of the delegates. The first division named former Gov. A. P. Swineford, the second R. S. Ryan and the third Capt. O. J. Humphreys.

The first fight was over the number of delegates to be named, and it was only after two adjournments that the matter was finally settled. An attempt by R. S. Ryan to secure United States Judge Wickham was prevented by the chairman, who called the delegate to order.

A dispatch purporting to come from Fairbanks was sent out today stating that a mass meeting had been held opposing Judge Wickham. This story is denied in a special dispatch received from Fairbanks by the Post-Intelligencer, and is said to have been circulated by certain Fairbanks attorneys who are opposed to Wickham.

A FINE NIGHT-CAP.

The Best Thing in the World to go to Bed and Sleep On.

"My wife and I find that four teaspoonsful of Grape-Nuts and a cup of hot milk, or some cream, with it, makes the finest night-cap in the world," says an Allegheny, Pa., man.

"We go to sleep as soon as we strike the bed, and slumber like babies till rising time in the morning."

It is about the most intelligent use we have made of Grape-Nuts food, and we always have it for breakfast and before retiring and sometimes for lunch. I was so sick from what the doctors called acute indigestion and brain fog before I began to use Grape-Nuts that I could neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort. I was afflicted at the same time with the most intense rheumatism, accompanied by a racking headache and backache, every time I tried to eat anything. Notwithstanding an unusual pressure from my professional duties, I was compelled for a time to give up my work altogether.

Then I put myself on a diet of Grape-Nuts and cream alone, with an occasional cup of Postum Food Coffee as a runner-up, and sometimes a little dry toast. I assure you that in less than a week I felt like a new man—I had gained six pounds in weight, could sleep well and think well.

The good work went on, and I was soon ready to return to business, and have been hard at it and enjoying it, ever since. Command me at any time any one enquires as to the merits of Grape-Nuts. You will find me always ready to testify. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
