ANNEXATION OF HAWAII.

Senator Morgan of Alabama is an enthusiastic advocate of the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States. He has repeatedly given to the press the views upon this subject, and according to an interview with him which appears in the press this morning, his recent visit to the islands has increased the zeal with which he urges that the United States should take the Hawaiian Islands into its possession. The strategic and commercial reasons advanced by him in support of his position are substantially correct, and it is asserted that a poll of the United States Senate shows that Senator Morgan has on his side a strong majority of that body, and that the annexation treaty will be promptly ratified.

The people of Utah feel a peculiar interest in this subject, on account of the fact that several thousand natives of the Hawaiian Islands are Latter-day Saints, but they have been prevented by the main body of the church in Hawaii from taking any active part in the annexation of that island. The Hawaiian Islands are a group of islands in the Pacific Ocean, and are situated in the line of the Hawaiian Islands. The probability of the early closing of the Hawaiian Islands with the United States is a subject of much interest to the people of Utah. The Hawaiian Islands are a group of islands in the Pacific Ocean, and are situated in the line of the Hawaiian Islands.

The result was a ruling by the court that the natives of the Hawaiian Islands were entitled to the same rights as the natives of the United States. CRISIS STIMULATING TO HEART.

The situation in Cuba, if correctly and not exaggerated, now demands the attention of the civilized world, and particularly of the United States. In some quarters there is a feeling that the crisis in Cuba is a crisis of the world, and that the United States should take a more active part in the crisis. The crisis in Cuba is a crisis of the world, and the United States should take a more active part in the crisis.
