A few remarks were made by Presi-dent Cannon in regard to the act of the assassin against the chief executive of our nation, which he strongly denounced, and expressed his admiration of the noble character of the President. Counselor Charles W. Penrose was the second speaker and said he fully the second speaker and said he fully endorsed the remarks of President Can-non. In regard to the occurrance which has made all hearts sad, he stat-ed that he deplored the spirit of anarchy and mobocracy which seems to be prevailing in the country. pie of the United States have to learn the lesson of obedience to law; that all persons have to be governed by law. When the news first came of the attempted assassination of the President, the first impulse of the people is to string the assassin up, but we are a na-tion that should be obedient to law and guilty persons should be properly tried according to law and not accord ing to the passionate feelings that arise in the breast when we feel resentment against such a deed. # F. W. NAYLOR INJURED.

Mail Carrier Severely Kicked in the Face by a Horse.

F. W. Naylor, a mail carrier, residing at the corner of Tenth South and Tenth East streets, was kicked in the face by a horse Saturday evening. The flesh was cut to the bone from the chin to the forehead, and the face will be scarred for life, Mr. Naylor was engaged in hauling hay when the horse he was driving was frightened by a bunch of hay rolling off the wagon. Naylor jumped to the ground to seize hold of the bridle but before he could get away from the animal's heels it kicked viciously and struck him full in the face. Naylor was rendered uncon-clous, but was taken to his home by the face. Ole Larsen, and Dr. Glesy, who was summoned, dressed the wounds. It was found necessary to take ten stitches in the face.

EQUALITY BETWEEN SEXES.

Undecided Question as to Whether it Applies to Saloon Patronage.

It at present rests with Judge Stewart of the Third district court to decide whether or not in this state of enfranchised women the ladies of Salt Lake City will have the same privileges of drinking at saloons as their male friends. In the case of the city against Sig Simon, proprietor of the Bismark, and H. Gater, a bartender for Morris Levy, who runs the Court saloon, which was appealed from the police court, where each of the saloon men was fined $25 for allowing women in their winercoms between the hours proscribed in the city ordinance, from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m., Judge Powers and his partner, D. N. Straup, argued that the ordinance barring women from saloons was unconstitutional. City Attorney Stephens answered that the provision was a restriction necessary in the interest of public morals, and warranted by the city's charter.

ized by the people, and who has ever placed the honor and dignity of his country and his tellow citizens high above all personal and selfish motives. "Let us today unite with our coun-trymen in beseeching the Almighty to spare the life of President McKinley, who represents the government, with out which there would be no national life; and let us pray that he direct our rulers and legislators how to dispose of all anarchists who are a menace to all governments, the lineal descendents of Satan, who first rebelled against the power and authority of God. "A fervent prayer like that of the widew of Palm, coming from the hearts of the people who are now in mourning, may reach the throne of mercy and obtain from God the object of our request, namely, that the life of Presi-dent McKinley be spared, and that he continue not only for the term of his office as the people's ruler, but that he may end his days in peace and accord-ing to the natural course of events." DR. PADEN'S ADDRESS.

At the First Presbyterian church Dr. Paden spoke earnestly upon the menace of anarchy and the abuses of lib-erty and law, taking two texts, one from I. Peter, il, 16, "As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliclousness, but as servants of God," also, from Galatians, iii, 13-14, "For brethren, ye have been called unto lib-erty, only use not liberty for an occacsion to the flesh, but by love serve one another." The discourse was prefaced by the famillar story of the rescued, half-frozen serpent, which bit the hand that had saved it, and then the speaker said: "We had such an exhibition of billnd and viperous ingratitude last Friday, when a wretch who had found such freedom as would have been ac-corded to him almost nowhere else in the civilized world made use of his liberty to strike down our chief executive. There, with a freedom which has cost centuries of travall, the assassin used his liberty as a cloak under which to contrive such treachery as brought re-morse to the heart of Judas Iscariot." When we open our eyes to the fact that our free institutions shelter men and women who sympathize with, ounter and teach anarchy, is it not about time for us to reassert the vitality of the relationships between liberty and law; to emphasize the fact that a free country is not a country in which every man does what is right in his eves, and certainly not a country in which each man publishes what he pleases, says what he pleases and does as he pleases?'

"Our liberty is constitutional liberty, not the bastard liberty of anarchists, outlaws and brigands. Our liberty implies obedience to the law."

SERMON AT ST. MARK'S.

Dean Eddie delivered a ringing ser-mon yesterday at St. Mark's on the theme, "The Crime and Menace of An-archy." He spoke in part as follows: "Two days ago, when the news flew over the country that the President had fallen and perhaps was mortally wounded by the hands of an assassin. t was like a thunderbolt out of It was a crime without the shad ow of an excuse, for President McKin ley had won the respect and esteem of the civilized world. He had been a true oldier in the battlefield; he was one of the foremost statesmen of the Repub the foremost sharesmen of the hepos-lie, and we rejoiced that such a man was in the executive chair. He was a good man, and tried to discharge his duties faithfully. ### A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long blevele trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Al-bany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and Remedy. and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip sucssfully, and never felt any Ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy, and this time one dose cured me.
