

FRAGMENTS

The lecture at the Church University Light Science course tonight will be delivered by Dr. T. H. Morgan. A group of students will be present.

A student body of the University of Utah is expected to be present at the lecture.

W. L. Thompson, a prominent local newspaper man, who has been doing editorial work on the Salt Lake Tribune, will be in the city tonight.

At the regular session of the County Teachers' Institute, which started at 11 o'clock a. m., Prof. Ringwood will speak.

Teachers' Convention. Prof. William J. Kerr will lecture on the disciplinary value of the mathematics before the Salt Lake District Teachers' convention on Saturday next, Feb. 11th.

Next Charity Lecture. The full program for the next charity lecture is as follows:

That Menographic Harkel. So far nothing new has cropped up in reference to the trouble arising out of Wagoner's menographic studies.

Criminal Procedure. The grand jury are holding sessions daily, nevertheless it will be some two or three weeks longer before they are through, as new cases continue to come in almost every day.

White Judge Howard is looking after the prosecution of criminal cases in the grand jury room.
