A two-act farce, the "Whirli-Giggle," by Soi Fields, was full of laughable situations centering about the adventures of two German grafters and a Dutchman looking for invest-The vaudeville offering was a good one and should pack the house at every performance. Rose Gillman and Anna Frances, vocalists, and buck and wing dancers, did some clever work and were generously applauded. "The Con Sport" by Billy Hart assisted by Miss Weston furnished about 15 min-utes of the kind of entertainment that drives duly care away. "Dames and drives dull care away. "Damon and Pythias," from the serious to the ridiculous, by Hughes and Hazelton, was a decidedly clever bit of acting, and causes one to wonder why James Hughes is not doing something better than performing in vaudeville.

The feature of the show, however, is the startling acts of the six flying Banvards. Their work on the trapeze and the net is replete with sensational acts interpressed with funnying. acts, interspersed with funnyisms. It is not too much to say that the Ban-vards are alone worth the admission A matinee was given today and there will be afternoon performances on Wednesday and Saturday. The bill goes until Saturday afternoon when it will be succeeded by the Imperial Bur-

Theater—At the Theater the advance sale for the performance of "Dorcas" by the Pauline Hall Opera Co. is now going on. The engagement opens tomorrow night.

Grand—At the Grand tonight's bill will be "A Fight for Honor," a new society melo-drama.

Orpheum-The three European acts on the Orpheum's new bill, Galetti's on the Orpheum's new bill, Galette Monkeys, Mignonette Kokin and Les Auberts, came in last night, so there will be no disappointment regarding the non arrival of the headliners this evening.
