LOCAL BRIEFS.

Rev. W. H. Fish of the Unitarian church will speak in the Jewish synagogue tonight on "Atheism."

Five cases of whooping cough, all in the family of August Lundstrom, 551 Post street, were yesterday reported to the board of health.

Acting upon instructions of City Treasurer Harris, the waterworks department will proceed at once to shut off the water from all premises upon which the tax is delinquent.

Word was received yesterday from Chicago that Miss Florence Corcoran. daughter of Judge Corcoran and an intimate friend of Miss Agatha Berkhoel of this city, was among the victims of the Chicago horror.

The grist mill and three small houses at the White Rocks Indian agency were destroyed by fire a few days ago, con-suming all the wheat the Indians had stored there for grinding. The mill itself cost $15,000.

John Q. Critchlow was vesterday ap pointed trustee to take charge of the property of Isaac Glaser of Helper and Mr. Glaser was recently sunnyside. desclared bankrupt in the federal court and Mr. Critchlow represents the creditors as well as the bankrupt,

The lecture on "Social Purity" in Barratt hall on Wednesday night next, is under the auspices of the Y. M. M. I. A., and not the Y. M. C. A., as erroneously stated in a morning paper. The lecturer is Prof. John T. Miller of the L. D. S. University.

The funeral of Joseph Mangene, the Italian laborer who was crushed to death at the Warm Springs quarry, was held yesterday from the under-taking rooms of S. D. Evans, with in-terment in Calvary cemetery. The fel-low countrymen of the deceased provided for the funeral.

Word has been received in this city companied by two Philippine teachers, in the Salt Lake high school, but now a resident of Manila, will have charge of the educational exhibit of that city at the St. Louis fair, Mr. Hager, accompanied by two Philippine teachers will arrive in San Francisco on Jan.

Oreste Pagnini, alias Robert L. King, well known in criminal circles in this city, and now stopping in Denver, has been appointed interpreter by Judge Malone of the West Side court, in the case of Alexander Bracci, charged with the murder of John Begotto, a bartender in an Italian saloon on Larimer street.

A fire of unknown origin started Wednesday evening in the house of A. M. Alexander, and but for its timely discovery by A. R. King, a boarder, it might have been serious. Several children were asleep in the house at the time, but the fire was extinguished before they were aroused. The loss was about $50, confined largely to clothing.

Local architects are talking of the establishment here of a factory for the manufacture of interior hardwood finish for buildings. The supplies furnish-ed by eastern factories is proving unsatisfactory as it is shipped here perfectly dried, and vexatious delays are caused thereby. A local factory yould be able to furnish material sufficiently dried, and in any quantities to suit orders.

Local government officials employing civil service help call attention of ap-plicants for positions to the necessity sending to the civil service bureau at Washington for copies of the manual giving the information necessary for ecoming a candidate for examination. This examination takes place in April at all of the large commercial centers of the country, and it will do no good to apply for positions without passing the regular examinations and being admitted to the service.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufact urers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croup spells and he would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1857, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our bables really like it. Antake and our bables really nke if. An-other is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an over-dose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." ### QUEER DOINGS OF A RIFLE BALL.

I myself made the most extraordinary shot at an antelope that I ever heard of, which, however, has nothing to do with good shooting, but rather with the the blood, there is no safety. The rem-edy for this disease in all its forms is erratic course that a rifle ball may take. With several scouts, white men Hood's sarsaparilla, which goes to the root of the trouble and expels all imand Indians, I rode over a hill, to see three or four buck antelope spring to their feet, run a short distance, and then stop to look. I made a quick shot at once, which dropped, and on Pills. going to him I found him not dead, though desperately wounded. The antmal had been standing broadside on, his face toward my left. The ball had struck the left elbow, splintering the olecranon, passed through the brisket, broke in the right humerus, turned at right angles and gone back, cutting several ribs, broken the right femur, then turned again at right angles, and came out through the inside of the leg, and struck the left hock joint, which it dislocated and twisted off, so that it hung by a very narrow spring of hide never again expect to see ordinary a course for a rifle ball .-Outing.

Twenty years ago emigration left a dearth of agricultural labor in Germany. The kaiser set out to keep his Germans at home, and has pretty well succeeded. German steamship companles carry on an actve propaganda in Italy, Slavonia and in Russla as well but in the fatherland itself nothing o the sort is permitted. Every German being catalogued by the police, it is not only easy to stop the departure of those of military age, but also to discourage departure of others. An American visiting Hungary is told politely that "we encourage the worst to go and keep the others."-Collier's Weekly.
