Miss Holman's Address on the Self-Improvement of Teachers
—Visits to Schools.

Miss M. A. Holman, supervisor of primary instruction in the Salt Lake city public schools, read the following paper at the closing meeting of the city teachers on Saturday last:

How Many Teachers Should Visit Schools?

The question just stated is of individual interest to each of the three hundred and thirty-five teachers of the city public schools, and it is one which has been the subject of much thought and discussion. It is a question which has been discussed in many ways, and it is one which has been discussed in many ways.
