

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

The violins are now in bloom.

The Harbison will play "Photos" at the Theatre to-night.

There is a washout on the Utah and Northern railroad between Pocatello and Rose Fork.

President Joseph F. Smith will deliver an address in the 20th Ward Schoolhouse this evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock.

If a sprinkling of rain does not come to stay the dust on the central streets, an early resort to water carts will be necessary.

H. D. King, the unmitigated fraud who figured around here for several months, claiming a writ of habeas corpus in New York, on the ground that he was illegally held in custody, has been made returnable.

The doing right alone teaches the value of meaning of right; the doing wrong, if it is happy, constitutes the doing it; the doing right, if it is unhappy, constitutes the doing it.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—The High Council will meet to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Council House.

W. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Accident at Millford.—On the Utah Central railroad, at Millford, on Tuesday evening a six-year-old boy named Gingle was accidentally run over by a hand car, inflicting injuries that were likely to prove fatal.

A Chunky Pig.—Thomas Gibbons, Sr., of Rockport, Summit County, claims to have killed the finest pig of the season. It was only 153 days old, yet its dressed weight was 202 pounds. As a pork raiser, Brother Gibbons is evidently a success.

Wants to Hear.—Information is wanted concerning Mrs. Emma E. Spencer, (maiden name Saddle), who left here in May or June of last year, for Roseman, Montana. The desired intelligence will greatly relieve the anxiety of her mother, Address Mrs. Jane Liberson Saddle, Salt Lake City, Utah. Roseman papers please copy.

He was Disturbed.—Samuel Roberts, of Mill Creek Ward, called and informed us that some parties, apparently bent on mischief, recently surrounded his place at an early morning hour, and created a disturbance. The parties were on horseback, fired off pistols and otherwise disturbed the peace. He wanted us to draw attention to the matter and request the parties, whoever they may be, not to repeat the operation, which we now do.

Mutual Improvement.—H. K. North writes from Mill Creek:

"On Sunday last, March 4th, the Improvement Association of Mill Creek met conjointly at the Sunday School hour. The Superintendent gave the meeting in charge of President J. N. Price. The time was occupied by the Superintendent of the Stake Association, J. H. Felt, and Counselor R. R. Young, and in hearing reports from the other wards in this district, Mountain Dell, Farmington and Sugar House. The house was well filled."

Capt. Lot Smith's Company.—Brother Cass M. Evans has interested himself in the matter of obtaining the discharge papers of the members of the company of volunteers, who were called upon to protect persons and property against the Indians in 1882, and in a notice published elsewhere, requests such members who have not obtained their discharges from the Government to call on or address him at the office of S. W. Darke & Co., Salt Lake City.

Only an Arm.—Wiggins' storm is due between tomorrow and Monday. A fearful blizzard has already opened in Canada, but the Professor says the Utah arm of the storm that is approaching. If that be the case, when the other arm (the head, body and lower limbs) of the blast comes full upon this unfortunate world, there will be such a whirl among things sublimity as has not been witnessed for a generation or two. However, if it is in the weather programme, come it must.

Embarrassing Situation.—If we men who travel would always carry enough ready cash to defray current expenses, they would occasionally avoid inconvenience and worry. An exchange says that Mrs. H. F. Richards, of Soda Springs, Idaho, has been delayed in Laramie for four days because she had no means of securing identification at the bank. She had a draft for a considerable amount, but because she was a stranger was forced to remain there until the telegraph brought her the funds necessary to resume her journey.

A Threatened Tragedy.—Yesterday evening East Temple Street came near being the scene of a tragedy. Matt, Allen and a man desiring to be known by the name of Thomson, having an old grudge, quarrelled. Allen went after a double-barrelled shotgun, which he procured and hunted for the other individual entered a gun store and bought a pistol. Both parties were disarmed by friends. The case was to be settled in the police court to-day.

For Missionary Use.—We learn from Brother Goddard that there has been quite a ready response to a request made at a meeting of the Deseret Sunday School Union for parties having Church literature with which they could readily part to hand it over to Brother John C. Cutler, for use in the Southern States Mission. The result is that a large number of copies of the Deseret News containing discourses, Juvenile Instructor, Contributor, Woman's Exponent and other periodicals have been accumulated. There is plenty of room yet to use any amount of the same sort of material.

SITUATION AT PANGUITCH.

NECESSARY QUARANTINE PRECAUTIONS RESISTED.

Our Panguitich, Garfield County, correspondent, writes as follows under date of March 2d:

The smallpox is still confined to the two Henry families who reside on the most southern block of the town. Only four persons are down up to date. None of those exposed in town have yet any symptoms of the disease. President Crosby, as well as Dr. King, were desirous for the heads of those families, who declined or refused to have any member of their families removed from their homes. The Compulsory Laws of Utah, 192 and 193, Sec. 1 and 2, authorize the Probate Court to issue quarantine grounds, and to make such quarantine regulations, as they may deem proper for the prevention of the spread of the disease, but it so happened that the husband and father of one of the afflicted families is the Probate Judge, and consequently that nothing could be done from that source. I am told, however, that the selection from the different parts of the County are to meet here at an early day; and perhaps some measure will be taken in the matter.

It is interesting to notice the singular change the appearance of this town has made. Half of the formerly busy inhabitants have fled, some to their farms, others to their hayland, some to visit friends and relatives far and near. Others have gone to enjoy themselves on the yet joyous lake, some to the canyons. The busy appearance the town had a few weeks ago has departed. The blacksmith shops are closed and no one can get his agricultural implements repaired for spring work; the carpenter's hammer has ceased to sound from the roofs of the many new dwellings, barns and other buildings recently under erection. There are none to buy the furniture which our cabinet makers manufacture; the painter has cleaned his brushes and closed his shop, like he was preparing for a journey. The boarding house is closed and the proprietor with his family has left for other quarters. The lumber is lying in the yards, without anybody to buy or sell.

What few apostates we had among us were seized with an extraordinary quick movement or fear, for as soon as the news reached their ears about the disease, very urgent business called them to other quarters. What citizens are left take it very coolly. We are doing the best we know how, to take precaution against the further spread of the disease. A great many have moved from their homes in the southern part of town, and as plenty of houses are empty in the northern part, many have availed themselves of the opportunity to move as far as possible.

I understand it is the intention of our leading men to move all the new cases down to the Henry block, providing those new cases are not as wise as the old ones, by not refusing to be moved, or in other words not trying to defy the whole community.

Prophecy Fulfilled.—A short time since, as our readers are aware, we published an account of a visit paid to Sam Brannan, by Brothers Phelps and Cozzens, of Montpelier, who found the former millionaire at Gaymans, in the most equal penury and wretchedness. R. M. Pratt, of Fillmore, Millard County, having read the statement, forwards the following as showing the fulfillment of a prediction made concerning Brannan, by the late Parley P. Pratt:

"In the winter of 1844 and until the fall of 1845, he assisted Parley P. Pratt in publishing in New York City a paper in the interest of the Latter-day Saints. He subsequently took a company of Saints around Cape Horn to San Francisco, which was then but thinly settled, and he became rich through speculation, etc., and forsook his religion. In 1854, while the late Parley P. Pratt was on a mission on the Pacific Coast, he was informed that Mr. Brannan, then a millionaire, was very much afraid some one would kill him for his money. Parley P. Pratt said: 'Go tell Sam Brannan from me that he shall not die till he is in want of ten cents to buy a loaf of bread.' It seems the word of the Prophet has been fulfilled."

A Fine Affair.—Stephens' concert programme will consist of sixteen selections, among the most beautiful of which will be a fine waltz song, composed by Mr. Jos. J. Daynes for Miss Agnes Olsen, and a "dram chorus" for chorus and orchestra, by Mr. Stephens. The chief characteristic of the pieces generally will be a bright, cheerful, melodious vein. The variety is purposely great, the performers ranging from Miss Nellie Druce, Miss Agnes Olsen, and Mr. Stephens, down to a wonderful little girl three years of age. All are well up in their places. The orchestral accompaniments are all written and arranged by Mr. Stephens. The stage will be rearranged so as to hold the whole chorus and orchestra, as an elevated platform, will be used. It will be a grand sight.

The first concert given by Mr. Stephens was an immense artistic success, so pronounced by all who were present at the entertainment. At that time the pupils had only been trained three months. Now they have had an experience of over ten months.

Theatre.—The Harbisons open their engagement at the Theatre to-night. They lately played to excellent business at Omaha, and the Reputation of that city says of the company:

"Of all the merry-makers who have visited Omaha this season, the Harbisons are the merriest. Good audiences greeted them at both performances at the Boyd yesterday, and for two hours abandoned care and entered into the rollicking fun and frolic with which the bright little patch-work play of "Photos" so plentifully abounds. Alice and Louis Harrison have long been known as among the best sketch artists on the stage, and add to their splendid entertainment is the performance of Mr. John Gourlay, comedian and impersonator, who for years was the chief attraction in Edinburgh's "Theatricals." And with these three admirable artists, assisted by a small company of much ability—musical and otherwise—the performance of "Photos" was one of the most grotesque and laughable that we ever witnessed. But even with all the fun in "Photos," there is a mingling of sentiment of the most refined character, which is most noticeable in the scenes."

The Utah Problem.—The Freemason Review containing "The Utah Problem, Why it Remains Unsolved," a very instructive paper on "Hindooism and Christianity," and many other well written articles on various subjects can be had of Jas. Dryer. Mailed for forty cents.

Services.—The funeral services over the remains of Mother Liverage Horrocks, were conducted this forenoon at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms, Bishop Atwood presiding. The assemblage was addressed by Elders Geo. Goddard, C. R. Savage, John Cook and Washington Lemon, with a few closing remarks from Bishop Atwood.

Returned from Alabama.—To-day we received a call from Elder Henry Beckstead, of South Jordan. He arrived at noon from a mission to Alabama. He left for that part last fall, and was released to return home this early on account of ill health, having suffered severely from chills and fever and a lung affection resulting from that complaint. He met with much kindness where he labored, and a good many people appeared anxious to learn the nature of the message of the Elders to the people.

The New Company.—The new stock company at the Walker Opera House performed "Rate" last evening to a very large and well satisfied audience. Many persons were greatly surprised to find so much talent brought together in that way. Mr. Curran has exhibited good judgment in selecting ladies and gentlemen suitable for sustaining characters in the kind of plays likely to take in this locality, and so far as the ability of the company is concerned there is no reason why this venture should not succeed. "Rate" will do to repeat on a future occasion, and the performers will do to see often. On Saturday evening they will appear again in the play of "Black Diamonds." There will be a matinee on Saturday afternoon, when "Toby the Conjuror" will be the attraction.

The Hopt Case.—This murder case continues to attract large crowds to the court room. As the evidence will necessarily mostly be similar to that given at the former trial, which we published at the time, and that given at the Emerson trial, it would appear superfluous to re-publish it now. This morning, before recess, the following witnesses were examined for the prosecution: Messrs. Carr and Bald, of Cheyenne (examined in part) and Messrs. Akoff and Jaguar, and Freddie Simons, of Park City. The last named is a new and important witness, his testimony being to the effect that, about 8 o'clock on the evening the murder was committed he saw Hopt and Turner by the latter's wagon, and when he was about to leave the murdered man was in the act of turning into bed. The witness, though quite young, is exceedingly bright and straightforward and told a direct story. The trial was resumed at 2 o'clock and was in progress when we went to press.

IS YOUR BLOOD PURE? Now this is an important question, for without pure and wholesome blood there can be no perfect health, and without good health life is a mere burden and a waste. For impure blood the best medicine known is Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, which is so easily absorbed and so effective in its action, that it can be taken at all times for cancer, scrofula, liver complaints, weakness, boils, tumors, swellings, skin diseases, and all the thousand ills that come from impure blood. Talking about the liver, we presume that ill-temper is more often caused by a disordered liver than anything else. To insure a successful disposition take Scott's Blood and Liver Syrup which will remove the prime cause, and restore the mind to its natural equilibrium.
