All Opposition to the Moffat Road Running Through Gore Canyon Abandoned.

TO PUSH WORK ON TUNNELS.

Suspended Contracts on the Big Bores Are Released by Order of David H. Moffatt.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 16 .- Telegrams were received in this city yesterday indicating that all opposition to the Moffat road running through the Gore canyon had been abandoned. One was to Chas. J. Hughes, Jr., who represents the ratiroad, from his legal correspondent at Washington, informing him that the department of justice had abandoned the Gore canyon litigation. Following this, Wm. A. Deuel, general superintendent of the Moffatt road, received a telegram from David H. Moffatt, now in New York, to release the suspended contracts on the big tunnel through the mountains and push operations from both ends.

(Special to the "News.")
Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—Assistant Attorney General Russell said this morning that the government had decided to abandon further litigation as to Gore canyon, and will abide by the decision of Judge Hallett. This means the abandonment of the reclamation project to build a great dam across the mouth of Gore eanyon, which it is estimated would furnish water to irrigate at least 300,000 gcres of arid lands in Colorado, Utah, and Arizona.

VERDICT THIS AFTERNOON.

Defendant Testifies That His Brother, Now at Large, Shot Louis Perme

In Self Defense,

The jury in the Nuclek murder case this afternoon returned a verdict finding the defendant guilty of involuntary manslaughter. Nucleh waived time for sentence and was given six months in the county jail. The case of the State of Utah against Jerry Nucich, charged with the murder of Louis Perme at Bingham Junction on the night of July 4, 1904, was submitted to the jury this morning at 10:45 o'clock. The defendant gave his account of the shooting yesterday afternoon, during which he stated that his brother, Frank, who is still at large, shot Perme in selfdefense, as Perme had secured a butch-er knife and was attempting to stab Frank when the last shot was fired. District Attorney Loofbourow made the opening and closing argument for the state and Attorneys Willard Hames and George C. Buckle argued the case for the defendant. The closing argu was made this morning, after which Judge Armstrong delivered his instructions to the jury and the case was submitted.

Mr. Jennings, who was about 19 years of age, and was a large built and husky young man, seemed on the verge of a promising fu-ture when he left Salt Lake a short time ago with a surveying party for Idaho points. His sudden demise came as the result of an attack of typhoid fever, which in Boise is proving much more fatal this year than ordinarily. He was taken ill about 10 days ago, but reports received by his father indicated that he was recovering rapidly, and was not dangerously ill, until last night telegrams arrived stating that compli-cations had set in, and his life was dispaired of. Mr. Jennings, the boy's father, left at once for the north, and this morning word was received by members of the family in Salt Lake that he had died at 1 o'clock. A memthat he had died at I O'Clock.
