New York, April 21.—Nobody ever heard a woman complain of too large a hat in church. She may sigh about the theatre hat and declare it is a nuisance, but the hat at church is a distraction, and she does not want to be noticed for wearing a hat that is not the fashion. WOMAN'S POWER IN POLITICS.

(From a Paper to be Read Thursday at the St. Mark's Lyceum, New York.)

Lincoln was once asked if he thought that woman had influenced the political history of the world. Yes, he replied, "Nancy Hanks taught me to do what I thought was right and to keep on doing it until I have an idea that her son is going to make history."

MISS ADAMS WHO HAS HAD A UNIQUE SUCCESS DURING THE PAST TWO YEARS FORMERLY MANY ORIGINAL QUALITIES FOR AN ACTRESS. UP TO THE TIME SHE PLAYED "LADY HADFIELD" SHE NEVER HAD A FOND OF STUDY, AND PREFERRED A LITERARY CAREER NEXT TO LIFE ON THE STAGE.

MISS MAUDE ADAMS, THE SWEET-FACED YOUNG ACTRESS, WHOM THE MINERS OF UTAH WISH TO HONOR BY ERECTING A STATUE OF GOLD IN HER LIKENESS FOR THE PARIS EXPOSITION.

THE GOLD STATUE OF MAUDE ADAMS.

The Miners of Utah Insist, in Spite of Denials, That They Will Erect It at the Paris Exposition.

So Maude Adams, the youngest star actress upon the stage, is to be cast in gold for the Paris Exposition. The miners of Salt Lake City are determined that their "Gilded Girl" shall be made famous in this way, and in an hour of all they agreed to furnish $10,000 in gold bullion for the statue, which will be made of gold, and there will be enough of it to make a golden Maude Adams life size and as natural as the actress can make her.

Our readers will remember that when the silver statue of Ada Holsen was cast in the Paris Exposition, it was to be erected in the Paris Exposition, and it is to be erected in the Paris Exposition.
