lo-morrow evening Miss Ince appears as gyadne, another splendid character, which rives to her abiitties full scope.

ON HER WAT .- The Cheyenne Leader of the Th uit., says that the famed actress Mrs. Charlotte Crampton had reached that place on her way east. There was some talk of her giving dramatic readings there before proceeding further. She was accompanied by Messrs. Mc-Donaid and Wilkinson, and was en route for Omaha, having an engagement at the Academy maic at that place.

FAIRVIEW .- Bishop A. Petersen, writing on the 21 inst, says, "The health of the people is merally good. The "noppers" have mostly left us, after having done considerable damage, and we have a prospect of about a half a crop."

ExigRATION .- The Cheyenne Argus of the fist uit, says "Three cars, filled with emigrants mioute for Utah, passed up yesterday, all in good health and spirits-most of them being from New York and adjacent cities. Mr. Gilbert spencer, of Utah, under whose charge the party are traveling, speaks of the U. P. R. R. in

A MUSSULMAN COURT.-Both men and women (says Florence Marryat) are inveterate liars, and it is impossible to place dependance on anything they say. The decision of a case in a native court the highest terms; that both for comfort and depends simply on the fact of which speed it is the best road they have ever traveled swears the hardest; for witnesses may be hired to lie for you for a very small sum of money. A WORD IN TIME .- For a hundred and fifty miles east of this city straggling "navvies" are scattered along the road, making their way westward There are among them many degraded, brutal, dishonest and murderous men, of low instincts and the vilest of habits. They work a lew days at a grading camp, where they can set employment, and then, seconing dissatisfied with the work, or the pay, or the "boss," or the contractors or because they want achange, they will strike and being discharged move on a little further westward. A few have reached this city; more are on the way west of Bear River, and still more east of it. The intle money which they may have they spend in drink, where they can get it, and either beg or steal what they eat. They are of the lowest and most degraded class; and many of them will likely scatter through the settlements, making trouble to our citizeus, and stealing from them, if not well watched. At every grading camp belonging to our people on the line of ratiroad, the strictest watch should be kept over all stock; and every person who has occasion to travel on any of the roads likely to be intested by the characters reterred to should be well armed. And our citizens, in this city and in the settlements, should closely adhere to the advice given them repettedly under such circumstance, and be well prepared to protect themselves, their wives, families and property from insult, injury and loss. A word of caution thus early taken advantage of may prevent trouble and depredation.

VISIT TO COTTONWOOD .- On Sunday President B. Young, accompanied by President D. H. Weils, Wilford Woodruff, Geo. A. Smith, Geo. Q. Cannon, A. M. Musser, John T. Caine, W. H. Feisom, R. L. Campbell, Thomas Williams and other Elders, left Salt Lake City to hold meetings on he Little Cottonwood, in Bishop Andrew Caboon's Ward. A spacious bowery. erected last year; was used as the place of meeting; and a numerous congregation had assembled, at 10 a.m., from that and the surrounding wards. The morning was occupied with remarks from President Wells, and Elders George A. Smith and A. M. Musser; and the afternoon with remarks from Elders Wilford Woodruff George Q. Cannon and President Young; in all of which the practical duties of religion were strongly dwelt upon, and the necessity of seeking for and retaining the Holy Spirit was urged upon the people. We feel confident that much good will result from these meetings. The choir, under the leadership of Bro. Gilbert, made most excellent music, and gladdened the hearts of the people by its n.elouy. The organ was played very skill ully and sweetly by Mrs. Edward Horne Webb. A very substantial repast was prepared in the School-house, for the visitors, which was partaken of in the interval between the meetings; and everything was done by the Bishop and his people to make the visit an agreeable one to the elders and the guests. Considerable enterprise was displayed in getting up the banners for the occasion, which were inscribed with suitable mottoes, and were borne by the Sunday Schools and those who turned out to welcome the President and his company. One of the most interesting features of the reception was the Sunday Schools, under the leadership of Elder Chauncey G. Webb. The Pr company reached the city about half-past five in the evening.

TRACK LAYING. - "The Casement Brothers he had got into. "Let me go, sir," he are rushing the track laying ahead at the rate urged; "I'll go and 'make swear' that of three miles perday. They are now twenty master was sick in bed at the time, and miles west of Benton, and expect to get to Green | knew nothing about it." Another complaint of theirs, and one which was constantly being made known to us by letters, was that their wives had been insulted by one of their fellow servants, and would we cause a rupee to be stopped from the delinquent's pay for the ensuing month. Every wrong may be patched up for a native by dist of the magic rupes. Money for their false witnesses; money for their wive's dis honor; anything and everything may be paid for, in their eyes, and they would gladly suffer twice the loss for twice the money. RECEIVED THIS DAY And for Sale at Lower Rate than ever! PRINTS, Sheetings, -Bleached Cloths, FINE ASSORTMENT OF Boots & Shoes, SUCARS, SUGAR OF LEMON. Candies, Jellies, REMEDY FOR SUN STROKE. - Though sun stroke is not very common in these mountains. the cooling airs from the kanyons neutralizing the strength of the sun's rays at the bottest season; still, as cases do occasionally occur, the following from the New York Herald may be worth preserving, for if the proposed remedy should not accomplish the desired good, no harm would result from trying it:

harm would result from trying it: "A correspondent sends us the annexed rem-dy for sunstroke, which, he thinks, 'may prove of some service during the warm weather, to those suffering from the effects of heat." In Egypt, where sunstroke is of frequent occur-rence, the Arabs dissolve some sait in water and pour it into the cars of the patient. This almost immediately relieves the sufferer. We know not what the effect, simple to its charac-ter (b-yond the states ent of our correspond dent.) of this remedy would be, but its applica-cation could not injure the patient.
