

PASSENGER RATE WAR IS PROMISED

Union Pacific, Burlington and Rock Island, Said to be Sharpening Axes.

AFTER SEATTLE BUSINESS.

Outgrowth of Old Quarrel Over the Portland Gateway Matter—Rio Grande Will Come In.

A passenger rate war, in extent the greatest in the history of the railroad world, is scheduled to occur this summer, according to eastern and local rumors. The contest for business is to be made on eastern traffic, directly affecting the business to Portland and to the exposition at Seattle. The roads said to be chiefly concerned in the rate war are the Union Pacific, Burlington and Rock Island lines, including possible the Denver & Rio Grande.

While these rumors can not be confirmed in local railroad circles, there seems to be some ground for the impending battle for passenger business. The recent adoption of new time schedules by all the roads involved, and by the placing of extra trains in service for the purpose of handling eastern passenger traffic, heretofore this Burlington, Union Pacific and Rock Island have maintained two trains daily between Chicago and Denver, these continuing on to Salt Lake via the Union Pacific and the Denver & Rio Grande. Now the roads are to install a third train between these points, while as a matter of fact the business on each does not seem scarcely to justify the present two-train service. Of course the traffic to the exposition will be greatly in excess of the ordinary travel, but the fact that each of these roads is installing a third train indicates that they are out for the business, each for itself and no matter what becomes of the hindmost.

The cause for the rate struggle is not clearly given, but it is said to be sort of an outgrowth of the old quarrel between the Harriman and Hill forces over the Portland gateway matter, in which Hill shut Harriman out of Puget sound passenger business. In line with this theory, it is up to the Union Pacific to make the first move, and this will be followed if it is started by the Hill roads, and the rate war will be on. Other lines entering this territory and carrying exposition business will of necessity be concerned in the big fight, and the Denver & Rio Grande, it would seem, is scheduled to line up with the Hill forces against Harriman, whereas the Rock Island and Chicago & Northwestern will probably be in line with the Harriman forces in the fray.

DELAY IN MAILS.

A local feature entering into the general lineup of opposition between the roads develops in the fact that under the new time schedule between this city and Ogden, the Oregon Short Line train arriving from the Junction City does not arrive here until late in the afternoon while the Overland limited on the Union Pacific gets into Ogden at 12:55. Thus the train under the new Denver & Rio Grande schedule which leaves Ogden at 1:05 p. m., is entitled, according to a well informed local official, to carry the mail from the Overland limited, making the delay in distributing mail matter which might be otherwise caused, only a matter of 10 minutes.

It is strongly hinted that a revision of the revised Short Line time table will be made in the immediate future, involving perhaps the whole running schedule of the local service between Salt Lake City and Ogden.

The mail from the west, according to the same official, now goes to Ogden over the fast train at 3:30 p. m. The Denver & Rio Grande train leaving Ogden for Salt Lake at 2:55, arrives in Salt Lake at 4:55 with San Francisco mail.

STRENGTH, AMBITION, ENERGY

Are Impossible Without Rich, Red Blood—A Detroit Woman Expresses an Opinion.

The tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for run-down conditions of the health is based on sound medical principles and on common sense. More and more men and women are beginning to realize that pure, red blood means health, and that the efficiency of any tissue or organ is entirely dependent upon the quality of the blood.

There are thousands of people who are without ambition or strength to do their day's work and who are always tired out, have but little appetite and a poor digestion, cannot get a refreshing night's sleep and are subject to headaches, nervousness and nervousness because their blood is impure.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give quick relief and permanently cure such men and women because they purify and build up the blood to its normal strength. As the blood becomes pure and red it strengthens the muscles, tones up the nerves, makes the stomach capable of digesting the food, and the wastes caused by growth and work.

Mrs. George Morgan, of No. 115 Twenty-third street, Detroit, Mich., says:

"I suffered with general debility for over a year, after gradually declining in health from overwork. I had but little blood, no strength or ambition and was weak and thin. My appetite was poor, I was red in the face and was all tired out. I felt miserable and the time and could not do any work. I was sent on a visit to relatives with the hope that a change would benefit me, but after several weeks I had not improved.

"Most of this time I was taking the doctor's medicine without benefit and was getting discouraged. My aunt urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They gave me a better color and I gained in flesh and strength and took the pills until cured. Since then I have been strong, robust and healthy."

A booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," showing what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done in anemia and other blood diseases, will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Salt Lake City and Logan. The Pullman will be attached to No. 9 on the Butte-Portland express on the Oregon Short Line, which leaves this city at 11 o'clock p. m. The sleeper will be disconnected from the through train at Cache Junction, where it will remain until early next morning when a local engine picks up the train and making the circuit of the southern end of the valley, arrives at Logan at 8:15 in the morning. Since Logan was taken off the main line, this is the first time that sleeper service has been installed between this city and Cache valley points.

GOOD WORD FOR UTAHNS.

J. H. Senkler of Vancouver Says Strangers Here Were His Friends.

Some weeks ago Mr. J. H. Senkler, of Vancouver, B. C., was called to Salt Lake on account of the critical illness of his brother in this city. Mr. Senkler chartered a special Pullman car in which to convey his brother back to his Vancouver home. The Vancouver Daily Province, in its issue of May 14, contains the following reference to the incident:

"Mr. J. H. Senkler, who has just returned from Salt Lake City, where he was called by the serious illness of his brother, cannot speak too highly of the courtesy he met with at Salt Lake and on the journey, which was made in a special car, from Salt Lake to Portland over the lines of the O. S. L. and O. R. & N. 'The railway officials and every person we met,' said Mr. Senkler, 'every person we met, was most kind and courteous in the matter. With each other we were performing every possible service for us. We were total strangers and yet were shown courtesies and kindnesses such as one might expect from intimate life-long friends only. It was a revelation to me. Mr. D. S. Spencer, the agent of the O. S. L., and Dr. Carter, who attended my brother, exerted themselves in every possible manner, and I can never forget their kindness."

TO RESIST RAILROADS.

Spokane Shippers Opposed Plans to Upset Recent Rate Decision.

Spokane, Wash., May 19.—The Spokane chamber of commerce has mailed an invitation to commercial bodies of interior cities west of Denver to organize to resist the efforts of the transcontinental railroad to upset the recent decision of the interstate commerce commission in the Spokane rate cases. The letter points out that in the decision, the commission laid down a plan of freight rate reductions that would apply to all interior cities. The railroads, contending that these reductions are too sweeping and would cut down their earnings at every interior distributing point, have petitioned for a rehearing and have offered as a substitute for the commission's decision their own plan of rate revision, which offers only slight reductions, and on a number of commodities an actual advance over the existing rates. The railroad plan, as filed before the interstate commerce commission, is also devised with a view to destroying established manufacturing industries at interior towns and cities.

FRIENDS OF NASH WORRIED.

Former Postmaster Has Been Long Absent and Not Heard From.

A great deal of speculation is being indulged in by the old friends of the former postmaster, A. H. Nash, of this city, regarding his whereabouts. He left his former lodgings in the Imperial hotel early in January, saying he was going to Rochester, New York, to attend to business for a short time. Instructions were left that his mail was to be held here until he was heard from. He never returned to the hotel people nor any of his old friends have received a line from him. The letters that have come to him are still being held at the hotel, as well as a few other things, including a framed picture of the city, and a letter from which Mr. Nash occupies a conspicuous place. Mr. Nash was postmaster in this city during the term of President Benjamin Harrison, and his failure to report is taken to indicate that something serious has happened, as he is reported to have been very methodical and careful in his habits.

COURT NEWS.

ELDRIDGE MUST ACCOUNT.

Judge Morse Holds Him for Naturalization Fees.

J. U. Eldridge Jr., formerly county clerk, will have to account to the county commissioners for $632, which is one half of the money he collected as fees for the naturalization of foreigners, and retained as "pin money," according to the decision of Judge Morse handed down this morning. The county commissioners sought to compel Eldridge to turn over the money to the county treasurer, but Eldridge insisted that the money belonged to him because he and his dupes collected it without extra expense to the county. He filed suit against Salt Lake county to settle his claim and lost.

Eldridge forwarded half of the receipts to the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization of the United States as required by law. He put the remainder in his own pocket. It was held by the decision of the court that Eldridge's salary was fixed by the law and that he had no right to any portion of the proceeds of his office.
