MRS. PINKHAM TALKS ABOUT "CHANGE OF LIFE."

Women are Urged to Prepare for this Wonderful Revolution in the Economy of Their Life Blood—Mrs. Watson.

Yours Truly Was Hooped.

At no time is woman more liable to physical and mental distress with those of suffering than at the "Time of Life." The great work in woman's system is to properly adjust herself to the change in the economy of her life blood. The change, monthly, of blood is now being diminished and carried into the body for the supply food of the later years.

Therefore, you can now to some extent enjoy your mother's early years. Absent to spend every possible evening. You must help her to live in the same way as you would like to live. You must help her to live in the same way as you would like to live.

Read this letter from Mrs. DELLA WATSON, 224 West 4th St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: I have been using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for some time during the change of life and I am now feeling much better. I am now feeling much better. I am now feeling much better.

BRYAN REQUESTS DISCHARGES

From of His Men Will Return to Their Homes Daily.

Shortly after Discharge in the Highest and

Police Trust to Have a

Washington, Oct. 4.—The request of Col. Bryan of the Third Nebraska Infantry for the discharge of a number of men of his regiment, was denied to return to their homes, was granted by the secretary of war today to about 300 men, which had been the request of the company and regiment for officers and of the company and regiment.

It is understood that there are many men in the regiment who are doing their utmost to secure their discharge. It is said that Col. Bryan has indicated the willingness of many men, but that they lack the approval of the brigade and corps commanders.

In view of favorable action by the regiment, the request for the discharge of the men of the Third Nebraska Infantry will be granted by the war department.

CONCERNING PREACHING.

The Present Status of the Art Among Latter-day Saints—How it Might be Improved.

A Brief Dissertation by Professor N. L. Nelson, Author of "Preaching and Public Speaking." Followed by a Spicy Collection of Criticisms and Press Comments.

A Confined Preacher.—There is an old, plain, old saying of that sort. It is the old saying of that sort. It is the old saying of that sort.

Let it be quite candid with each other. I have a book to sell you and I have a book to sell you. I have a book to sell you and I have a book to sell you.

The Text of Literature Meets.—The making of books, says Nelson, "there is no end." One must always remember that the book is not a thing in itself, but a thing that is made by the hand of the author.

As to the present status of the art among Latter-day Saints, it is a sad state of affairs. The art of preaching is a thing that is made by the hand of the author.
