PLENTY OF SNOW IN HILLS

In Most Places It is Well Packed, Insuring an Abundance of Water Euring Crop Season.

That there will be an abundant water supply for the coming crop season is the pleasing intelligence issued by the U. S. weather bureau today. In its December snowfall bulletin dealing with the depth of snow in the mountains at the close of December, 1902, the following information is given:

The first snow of the season fell during November. The fall during that month was remarkably heavy over the routhern and middle sections of the state, but was slightly deficient in Sale Lake, Dayis, Morgan, Summit and Rich counties. The snewfall of December was generally slightly excessive, ex-cept in Salt Lake, Wasatch, Utah, Too-ele, Juab and Millard countles, where is was somewhat below normal.

In all the watersheds the depth of snow in the mountains was greater at the close of December than it has been at the same time during the past three years. In the Great Salt Lake water. shed the depth is about average, slightly above in the Sevier Lake watershed.

The snow is fairly well drifted and very solid for this time of year. An abundant water supply for the coming crop season is already assured the Green and Colorado rivers watershed, and even if the precipitation is some what deficient during the rest of the nowfall season, a good supply expected in the Great Sait Lake and Sevier Lake watersheds. #### RICHARDSON DISCHARGED. But He is Immediately Rearrested on Another Charge.

Jack Richardson, known as "Razor Jack," and Pat English, another character well known to the police, were given a preliminary hearing before Judge Diehl this morning on the charge of burglarizing Squires' barber shop last Friday night. Some of the razors were found buried in Wagner's alley by Officer Emil John-son. One of them was identified by the barber as his property. Two witnesses testified that on the day following the burglary, they saw Richardson and he had several razors in his possession. Officer Burt said Richardson admitted having some razors in his posses-sion but said they were his own, and that he sold them. English was placed on the stand but proved to be hostfle and the state could get nothing out of him.

On motion of Assistant County Attorney Dana T. Smith the case against English was dismissed.

At the conclusion of the hearing Richardson was found not guilty and discharged. He was immediately re-ar-rested on another charge.
