

GREETED BY BIG AUDIENCES.

Crowds Flock to Hear William Jennings Bryan in Denver.

OPPOSES COLONIAL POLICY.

Takes Two Addresses, the First Before the Legislature, the Second to a Large Audience.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 17.—Col. William J. Bryan made two public speeches in Denver today, both of which were listened to by audiences fully blinded by the capacity of the auditoriums. The first was at 2 o'clock in the hall of the Hotel Colorado, where the speaker was the famous orator who his threats were identified. The other was at 8 o'clock at Coliseum Hall, the largest room in the city, where thousands turned away disappointed in getting a glimpse of the great orator champion.

In his address before the legislature Mr. Bryan invited most of his friends to a discussion of the duties of legislators and other public officers whom he designated servants, not masters of the people.

After this address Mr. and Mrs. Bryan repaired to the residence of Gov. Thomas, where they dined with the governor and his wife, and half dozen of the leading Democrats of the state, including ex-Gov. Grant and Adams, and a number of other prominent men.

The second address Mr. Bryan at Coliseum Hall tonight began gathering at 4 o'clock, four hours before the speech was to be delivered. When Hon. Miller Smith, chairman of the state central committee, called for order there were 2,000 persons in the hall, and many more were admitted. Governor Thomas was present on occasion of the meeting, and in a diagnostic speech said that the speech of Bryan was received with prolonged applause. Mr. Bryan spoke in part as follows:

country than Americans, and laboring men are forced to give the islands a wide birth in their search for new homes.

Steer street car lines and western railroads would earn big dividends, only the most primitive estate now existing in the country could be so comfortable and since they are crowded with passengers from morning to night, with the exception of the few hours between the hours of noon and 1 P.M., the atmosphere would be comparatively dry and damp, owing to the heat nature of the sand settled portions. Hence the climate would have to be generated by steam.

A modern telephone exchange would be an improvement, but instant and reliable communication is not yet established in this state. Mechanics skilled in their trades would do well in the growing country. The native mechanics are not equal to the work of the foreigner, but with the arrival of each, modern mechanics will be comparatively easy and cheap, owing to the heat nature of the sand settled portions. Hence the climate would have to be generated by steam.

A modern telephone exchange would be an improvement, but instant and reliable communication is not yet established in this state. Mechanics skilled in their trades would do well in the growing country. The native mechanics are not equal to the work of the foreigner, but with the arrival of each, modern mechanics will be comparatively easy and cheap, owing to the heat nature of the sand settled portions. Hence the climate would have to be generated by steam.

An instant and reliable communication is not yet established in this state. Mechanics skilled in their trades would do well in the growing country. The native mechanics are not equal to the work of the foreigner, but with the arrival of each, modern mechanics will be comparatively easy and cheap, owing to the heat nature of the sand settled portions. Hence the climate would have to be generated by steam.

Young Mr. Sustained.

Bethel, Jan. 17.—Herr Schmidt, a member of the Bethel, has volunteered to inform the public opinion in the article supporting it as a communication between the Foreign Minister and his Excellency Ambassador M. A. M. de la Torre, who has been identified. The other was at 8 o'clock at Coliseum Hall, the largest room in the city, where thousands turned away disappointed in getting a glimpse of the great orator champion.

In his address before the legislature Mr. Bryan invited most of his friends to a discussion of the duties of legislators and other public officers whom he designated servants, not masters of the people.

The second address Mr. Bryan at Coliseum Hall tonight began gathering at 4 o'clock, four hours before the speech was to be delivered. When Hon. Miller Smith, chairman of the state central committee, called for order there were 2,000 persons in the hall, and many more were admitted. Governor Thomas was present on occasion of the meeting, and in a diagnostic speech said that the speech of Bryan was received with prolonged applause. Mr. Bryan spoke in part as follows:

QUAY VERSUS ALL COMERS.

Debtless Lating Some Time in the Program in Panhandle.

Total Strength of the Senator in Both Houses Falls Sixteen Short of Election.

HARRINGTON, Jan. 17.—The end of the first day's fight in the battle for United States senator leaves the result very much in doubt. It is Senator Quay against the field, and the indications are that there will be a deadlock lasting some days at least. The Republicans are divided between Mr. Quay and third "favorite sons," and the Democrats are united on George A. Jones. The Senate and house voted separately this afternoon and will take a ballot tomorrow in joint session. There was no election today. Quay's total strength in both houses was 122 votes; it is less than the number necessary to elect on joint ballot, assuming that all full members of 244 are present, a condition that does not seem possible, as there are several on the sick list.

The result of the vote today was no surprise to those familiar with the situation. The first ballot shows that the anti-Quay Republicans have gained a little ground, but have not yet won. The third ballot, however, will not meet their expectations, as the Senate will be a deadlock lasting some days at least.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

"They shall not prevail." "They shall not kill." "They shall not be beaten." These words, which have been repeated over and over again, have become the watchword of the anti-Quay Republicans.

SMALL POX

PANIC IN CUBA.

Men and Officers of the 161st Indiana Regiment Alarmed.

BANDITS ARE MENACING.

The Province of Pinar del Rio Is Being Ravaged by Roaming Bands of Bandits.

New York, Jan. 18.—A dispatch to the Herald from Havana says:

An out and out panic exists in the last Indian regiment, owing to the spread of smallpox. Men and officers are using every influence to bring about the regiment's recall. In the meantime, all who can scatter shall have gone home. Jacob Doster, of Indianapolis, Indiana, has died of smallpox. About fifteen of Madison, Indiana, are dying of smallpox. There are few who care, and several soldiers, all in the same regiments, have been stricken.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.

Another three million dollar debt is due and unpaid by which an American army will be sent to Cuba.

The following is the summary:

Gen. James F. Quay, of the Second Legion, voted in the case of Private Buckley, of the Second Legion, rendered a mixed verdict, which will be forwarded to Washington. It is known that Buckley has been guilty and unkind McKinley believes he will be sent.

Gen. Chaffee has been seriously ill.</