

INSPIRED SCRIPTURES OF THE LATTER-DAY SAINTS

Address Delivered at the Annual Conference
Of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, April 5, 1903, by ELDER RULON S. WELLS.

My brethren and sisters, I sincerely hope that I may be sustained by your faith and prayers. As one of the presidents of stakes was coming upon the stand this afternoon after having been invited by President Smith, he stopped and shook hands with myself and Brother McMurrin, and asked that we pray for him. In standing before you here I feel like shaking hands with the Latter-day Saints and asking them to pray for me, because I believe that the prayers of the Saints are heard by our Heavenly Father, when they are offered up in faith.

Brother Kimball made reference this morning to the Bible, and I am reminded of an article of our faith, which says that we believe the Bible to be the word of God, as far as it is translated correctly. We also believe the Book of Mormon to be the word of God. While he was quoting this article of our belief, the thought came into my mind, how often has it been quoted in the mission field, and how frequently have our enemies and those who have not accepted our faith criticized us in making reference to the Bible and qualifying it by saying that we believe it as far as it is translated correctly. "O yes," say they, "you Latter-day Saints believe the Bible when it is convenient for you to accept of it, but when it is not convenient, then you fall back upon the provision which says 'as far as it is translated correctly.'"

In giving this article of faith the Prophet Joseph Smith was inspired by our Heavenly Father. Suppose for a moment that he had left out that condition. The question would at once arise, Which Bible do you Latter-day Saints believe in? Do you believe in the King James translation of the Bible, or do you believe in the revised edition? Do you accept the Catholic Bible, or the one that was translated by Martin Luther in the German language? There are a great many different editions of the holy scriptures; which of these Bibles do you believe in? Because in many particulars the translations are at variance, and do not always agree. There was inspiration in the putting in of that condition. We believe the Bible to be the word of God, as far as it is translated correctly; and when it has not been translated correctly, we do not believe in that. To all intents and purposes, however, the Bible which is common among us is accepted by the Latter-day Saints as the word of God. When you refer to the Book of Mormon, however, you say that the Book of Mormon is the word of God, without any qualification.

WHAT THE LATTER-DAY SAINTS BELIEVE.

Now, what is it that the Latter-day

RETURNED MISSIONARIES

Elder Charles E. May, of Plain City, Weber Co., returned June 20, from the California mission, where he has been laboring during school vacation, since August, 1900. He attended the Leland Stanford University, graduating last May, as a B. A. in chemistry. During the last semester there was a branch organized at the university, composed of Utah students. In the mission field Elder May reports active work done by the Elders, and the mission is generally prosperous, meetings are well attended, but indifference to all things religious, exist among all classes. Elder May is engaged to teach chemistry in the B. Y. Academy at Provo beginning with next school year. Sister Margaret May, who was set apart June 21 for the California mission, returned with her husband.

Elder Lafayette Smith of Carey, Idaho, returned June 20, from the Southwestern States mission, to which he was assigned Feb. 5, 1901. He labored in the Arkansas conference, first as traveling Elder and later as the conference president. The work in a prosperous and flourishing condition.

Elder Parley T. Richins, of Henefer, Summit Co., who was set apart Feb. 20, 1901, for missionary work in the Southwestern states returned from that field June 20, in good health and spirits. Elder Richins also labored in the Arkansas conference with gratifying success, making many warm friends and some converts.

Elder Robert Alex. Jones, of Kanab, returned June 23, from the New Zealand mission, to which he was sent Dec. 7, 1900. He labored with gratifying success in the Auckland and Canterbury districts, among the Europeans. An excellent work is being done in both districts, which have flourishing branches and a large membership. There are now some 15 missionaries from Zion laboring there. In Canterbury the Elders are now better protected by the police and are doing very well.

Elder Louis H. Hougard, of Mant, Sanpete Co., who was called May 27, 1891, to fill a mission in the Colorado district, returned June 23. He labored in the states of Nebraska and Colorado with gratifying success. The work in both these fields is prospering. The Elders are well received, and are making many friends and some converts. All the Elders and lady missionaries in the Colorado mission are in good health and spirits.

Elder Charles England of Logan, Cache Co., who was assigned March 5, 1901, to missionary labor in the southwestern states, returned last week with his wife, who joined him in May. Together they visited New Orleans, Buffalo, Niagara and relatives in Iowa, making an enjoyable trip. Elder England labored two months in the East Kansas conference, two months in Kansas City, Missouri, and three months as assistant secretary and afterwards as secretary of the mission, which now has a force of 125 Elders in the ministry, all in the enjoyment of good health.

Elder Nels Anthony of Spanish Fork, Utah Co., returned last week from the Scandinavian mission, to which he was called and set apart Nov. 5, 1900. His field of labor was in the Stockholm conference, Sweden, where he presided the year just past. The work there is prospering, the Elders are making many friends and converts. There is good prospect for a fine new meetinghouse in Stockholm.

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of lavative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Family Biscuits. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system, even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken. Many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says: "Nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headaches, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all other gripe and sicken, while the Little Family Biscuits do their work well and easy, sold by all druggists."

The Bible, Book of Mormon and Doctrine and Covenants—What the Latter-day Saints Believe—Word of the Lord Today is "Get Out of Debt!"—Seventies Willing to Go On Missions—Debt a Hindrance to the Work of the Lord.

Saints believe in? We believe that holy men of old spoke and wrote as they were moved upon by the Holy Ghost, and that which they spoke and wrote was the word of God; and if that has been handed down to us in its purity, we accept it as being the word to us fresh from the pen of the prophet, and was translated under the inspiration of our Heavenly Father by one whom He raised up for that purpose. Consequently we take account of it without qualification as being the word of God. We also believe in the Book of Doctrine and Covenants, because it contains the predictions of the prophets and the revelations of God delivered unto this people by the living oracles upon the earth in this day and age of the world. We read in the scriptures that man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. The Latter-day Saints understand that the Lord will reveal many things pertaining to the upbuilding of His kingdom upon the earth. In other words, we believe in learning the will of God through the proper channels, and then to do it. That is our creed, our faith.

WORD OF THE LORD TODAY.

We have among us the living oracles of God. The mouthpiece of the Lord has spoken to us at the beginning of this conference, and in his remarks he gave unto us the word of the Lord. He gave us counsel upon certain things that are of great importance to the Latter-day Saints, and we will do well to heed the counsel of God as it is delivered unto us. I take this lesson to myself, and I believe it ought to be the feeling of every Latter-day Saint, to hearken to the warnings of the Lord. As Latter-day Saints, we pray unto our Heavenly Father that the President of this Church may receive wisdom from on high, and the inspiration of His Holy Spirit, and that he may be guided and directed in the ways of all truth. How willing, therefore, and how eager we ought to be to hearken unto his words and carry them out in our daily lives. The great spectacle that I see before me this afternoon is an evidence that the Latter-day Saints are eager to hear the words of the servants of God. No doubt, many have come today with the expectation of hearing the voice of the mouthpiece of God. But what would it avail unto us unless we tried to carry out his advice and counsel?

Whatever may arise as a hindrance to the work of the Lord ought to be dispensed with, and that which interferes with the performance of our duty ought to be set aside. The adversary of the souls of men is striving with all his might to thwart the purposes of our Heavenly Father; but in no particular do I think that he has had greater influence upon the people at large than he has in taking advantage of their weaknesses by persuading them to go beyond their means and into debt. It does not necessarily require a wicked man to yield to that influence. We are all more or less susceptible to it. Even some of the characteristics of our people which are to be commended—that, for example, of being unselfish and willing to let go of the substance that has come into our hands, have sometimes been a means that the adversary has employed to lead our people into debt.

We have received, as has already been stated, a great many letters from the Seventies whose names have been suggested for missions to the nations of the earth, and the great majority of those letters with a statement showing their willingness to respond to every call, and many of them have set forth their circumstances, but have closed their letters with a statement something like this: "These are my circumstances. I do not offer excuses. I am willing to go into the mission field, and lift up my voice and cry repentance unto this generation. I am willing to leave my home, because I know this is the work of the Lord. They have hereby placed the responsibility upon the authorities of the Church to decide whether or not they should go. Notwithstanding this, there has been no disposition to work any hardship upon the Seventies or the brethren suggested for missions, and many of them have been excused when we have known their circumstances. Over 100 have been released from service of their financial condition. Thus the going in debt has been a hindrance to the work of the Lord. It has hindered the brethren from going out and magnifying their callings. May the Lord lead us to depriving them of privileges which they might enjoy if they were only free. Those who are encumbered with debt, indeed, know what it is to be in bondage. It is a block to the way of doing good, and of heeding the voice of the Lord. The truth will be shown easily and quickly by infallible and practical tests. If you are right, we will congratulate you. If wrong, we will right you. Examination free.
