

PRESIDENT ON CHINESE BOYCOTT

He and State Department Doing Everything in Their Power To Stop It.

THE GOVT MUST DO JUSTICE.

This as Well as Exact Immigration Department Has Acted With Too Much Harshness.

San Francisco, Dec. 15.—Responding to communications from the Merchants exchange of San Francisco, President Roosevelt has written a letter in which he expresses his views concerning the Chinese boycott of American goods and also the exclusion laws. The president writes that this government must do justice as well as exact justice; that Chinese laborers should be excluded, but that the exempt classes of Chinese should be treated courteously. If the exclusion laws need to be amended, American merchants must exercise their influence for amendment, he says. The president adds that the immigration department has acted with utmost harshness toward the Chinese, the fault resting ultimately with mistaken public opinion.

In regard to the Chinese boycott of American goods the president says that everything in his power and that of the state department has been done to stop the boycott. "Anything further," he continues, "must be done by your own representatives in the senate and house by way of making such changes in the exclusion law as to prevent the injustice and humiliation to which the Chinese who do not belong to the excluded class have been subjected in coming to this country."

The merchants' exchange held a meeting and gave prompt acquiescence to the president's views by adopting resolutions favoring such amendments to the exclusion laws as would cause them to conform to what the chief executive deemed right and just.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM LEAGUE ANNUAL MEETING

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 14.—The twenty-fifth annual meeting of the National Civil Service Reform League opened in Milwaukee today. Much regret is expressed at the absence of Secy. of the Navy Bonaparte, who was to have been the chief speaker. A meeting of the council was held in the forenoon. The first public meeting was held this afternoon, when the subject of civil service reform in the navy was treated in papers by Samuel E. Sparling, president of the Wisconsin commission; W. B. Moulton, president of the Illinois state commission; Allyn O. Harrison, secretary of the Kansas City (Mo.) Civic League, and others.

President Charles A. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin welcomed the gathering.

The annual report of the council was read tonight by Richard Henry Dana of Boston. The report in part is as follows:

"The most notable event of the year in the United States is the successful revolt against boss rule in politics exemplified in so many parts of the country at once. As the inspiration to civil service reform is to free the country from the boss, this event is a source of great joy to us who have labored so long in the good cause, but without satisfaction. There comes to all serious-minded men the fear lest the present content with victory, will lapse into inactivity. We have seen similar revolts before, with no permanent improvement. We have turned out a Tweed and in came a Croker. Out went a Croker and in came a Murphy. We abolished some particular bosses, we removed the man, but we kept the conditions which made the man what he was."

Boss disease, the report says, is spread and fed by the misuse of the officers and of the contracts, jobs, etc., in the control of the offices. It has been long believed, the report says, that many positions exempted on account of special qualifications, such, for example, as deputy collectors of internal revenue, have been filled on the suggestion and through the influence of the very interests to be inspected, and the positions are held on the same tenure.

The recent insurance investigations furnish illustrations. The former insurance superintendent of New York, James T. Pollock, was attorney for the Mutual Life before appointment, and an employee of one of the officers of the Equitable was made inspector—both to watch the very companies by whose favor they undoubtedly got and held their places.

The isthmian canal service was classified at a time when that service was being organized, and it was anticipated that so many appointments to be made at once for so distant a scene, with a varied service, would cause a great strain on the resources of the civil service commission, and so it proved. Approximately 1,000 exempted appointments were made for want of eligible lists, and the result was that there were nominally eligibles of similar grades, but not tested for the special qualifications desired.

"As to future," which was the report, "we ought to secure in States which have civil service laws the extension of the merit system to some higher municipal and other offices now exempted by law. For the national government we hope to see the fourth class postmasters, or at least the higher grade of them, put under the merit system."

OLD FLAG HOUSE BOUGHT.

Philadelphia, Dec. 14.—The two-story brick structure at 229 Arch street, known as the "Old Flag House," where Betsy Ross designed the American flag, has been purchased for the government. Final payment on the property was made today.

On Oct. 22, 1898, a meeting was held in the "Old Flag House" under the direction of John Quincy Adams and Charles H. Wegman and the mercantile Flag House and Betsy Ross Memorial association was formed and later incorporated. The object was to purchase the historic dwelling and save it to the nation.

This was accomplished through the issuance of membership certificates at the uniform price of 10 cents and the receipt of $100 of the people of the entire country. There are 1,000,000 stockholders.

Shepard of New York, who was sentenced Oct. 26 to three months' imprisonment and $100 fine and to pay $1,000 damages to the parents of Madeleine Marchand, who was killed by Mr. Shepard's automobile April 24. The purpose of the application is to have a fine substituted for the imprisonment. Premier Rouvier has referred the application to the ministry of justice.

LA FOLLETTE BILL KILLED.

Milwaukee, Dec. 14.—A Sentinel special from Madison, says: "The assembly today refused to reconsider the bill for a cumulative primary election plan, defeated yesterday. This finally ends the fight against the measure, the passage of which was believed to be one of the chief objects of the extra session of the legislature. The other bills urged by Gov. La Follette have nearly all been similarly defeated. The defeat of the primary election law is credited chiefly to W. D. Connor, chairman of the state Republican committee, who is Premier Rouvier's chief opponent."

SCOTT OF THE PROVIDENT LIFE IN A TIGHT PLACE.

New York, Dec. 14.—During the insurance investigation today Edward W. Scott, president of the Provident Savings Life Assurance society, made an earnest appeal to Chairman W. W. Armstrong of the investigating committee to exclude from the hearing certain statements bearing on his relations with the Equitable Life Assurance society, of which he was formerly Australian agent.

Charles E. Hughes, counsel for the investigating committee, had asked Mr. Scott whether the Equitable Life Assurance society had not a claim of $100,000 against him. Mr. Scott at first declared that there was no such claim against him, until Mr. Hughes presented letters that passed between Mr. Scott and President Alexander society, made in 1901, in which President Alexander asked Mr. Scott to make a formal admission in writing that his accounts with the society, showing balances of $57,823 due the society, were accurate.

In one letter President Alexander wrote that Mr. Scott had accepted the accounts. Mr. Scott's letter to President Alexander proposed a conference, but made no admissions as to the acceptance of the accounts.

When these letters had been read to the committee to rule that this subject was foreign to the investigation, he declared that he had been pursued by enemies for several years; that in 1900 he caused the arrest and indictment of a man who had engaged with the Provident Savings Life Assurance society to deliver to it records stolen from the Provident Savings Life Assurance society; that a traitorous bookkeeper was in league with this man, who was dismissed from the Provident society's employ, and that it was in connection with these matters that his (Mr. Scott's) relations with the Equitable were reported to the committee in a spirit of revenge.

Though Mr. Hughes did not uncover just what the Equitable society's claim against Mr. Scott was based on, he brought out from him the statement that the Equitable society had made such a claim upon him and that Mr. Scott refused to settle it.

Another incident in the testimony of Mr. Scott was his statement that when he bought control of the Provident Savings Life Assurance society's stock he used $25,000 which had been lent by that company to two of its agents in order to enable them to buy 100 shares of its stock. They did not buy the stock and Mr. Scott said he took over the loan and delivered to the society a promise to turn over to it 100 shares of its stock when he got the stock. It is now held by the trust company, to whom he still owes $25,000 which he borrowed to buy it.

EIGHT INDICTMENTS RETURNED IN REBATE CASES

Philadelphia, Dec. 14.—Eight indictments were returned by the federal grand jury today against shippers, freight agents and common carriers in the rebate cases brought to the attention of the grand jury yesterday by United States Dist. Atty. J. Whitaker Thompson. The indictments returned are as follows:

Great Northern Railway company, for offering a rebate to R. D. Wood & Co. of this city, on a shipment of 19,509 tons of iron piping to Winnipeg.

C. L. Campbell, local freight agent of the Great Northern, same charge.

L. W. Lake of New York, general eastern agent of the Mutual Transit company, granting and giving a rebate to the Walter Wood company.

Walter Wood, George Wood, Stuart Wood and Richard Wood, members of the Wood company, accepting and receiving rebates.

Paul J. Diver, local agent of the Mutual Transit company, offering rebates to the National Essence of Coffee company of this city, on a shipment from Philadelphia to Minneapolis, Aug. 4, 1905.

Mutual Transit company offering rebates in the same transaction.

Paul J. Diver, offering and giving rebates (two counts) to the National Essence of Coffee company on a shipment from Philadelphia to Winnipeg April 17, 1905.

Mutual Transit company, offering and giving rebates (two counts) in the same transaction.

A large number of witnesses were summoned to give testimony in the two cases. Immunity from punishment was granted those principals in the cases, who appeared before the jury and gave evidence. For instance, President Chas. M. Reid of Buffalo, president and general manager of the Mutual Transit company, who was summoned as a witness in the Wood case, was not indicted, but a true bill was returned against an agent of the company who was not asked to appear. Neither was an indictment brought against the traffic manager of the Wood company, who obtained the rebates for his firm. In the case of the National Essence of Coffee company the indictments were brought against the carrier and the agent, the shipping company having furnished the evidence.
