

"We will not believe it and we will not have you who do believe it in our midst." So we had to leave, and we were driven from city to city, from county to county, and from State to State until finally we came to these mountains; and now the cry is "If it were not for your religion and your peculiar institutions, you would be hailed with joy and gladness." This is simply a repetition of the old cry. If it had not been for our unity in faith and politics the people said in the early days of the Church, "we could bear with you; but we are afraid of your union."

Latter-day Saints I want you to teach this to your children. Mothers teach this to your children. Sunday school teachers teach to your scholars that they must be one in their faith, hope and labor, and that all their efforts must be concentrated in building up the Kingdom of God on the earth, and in establishing every good and true principle. This is my exhortation to you in a religious point of view. As for politics we care nothing about them one way or the other, although we are a political people; but it is for the right. That is what we sustain and try to promote. If the right will not bear us off conquerors we must sink, for we will not sustain anything else. It is the Kingdom of God or nothing with us.

We are here on the present occasion to celebrate the day on which the standard of the Kingdom of God was planted in these mountains, and woe to the individuals who lift their hands against that kingdom, for God will smite them sooner or later! Is this true? The Scriptures, which you and I look upon as divine and call the word of the Lord say so. I will not detain you. God bless the righteous, good, pure, virtuous and truthful all over the earth, but wrath and indignation rest upon the ungodly and the mobocrat in the name of Jesus, Amen.

A number of impromptu toasts and sentiments, appropriate to the occasion, were then read, at the close of which, an anthem was sung by the Choir, when the meeting was dismissed with a benediction from the Chaplain.

Immediately after the close of the services in the Tabernacle, a salute of twenty-two guns was fired in honor of the twenty-second anniversary of the arrival of the pioneers into these valleys.

The day's proceedings were characterized by that decorum and strict order which are invariable here on such occasions. The demonstrations were not noisy and turbulent, but were marked by a heartiness and sincerity, which indicated that all who participated therein felt the worth and importance of the event they were celebrating.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY

THE CELEBRATION TO-MORROW.—Twenty-two years to-morrow the advanced guard of the camp of Latter-day Saints who had been expelled from Missouri, entered these valleys, and in furtherance of that kingdom spoken of by the prophet Daniel under the similitude of a stone cut out of the mountains, laid the foundations of the wondrous changes and developments that have since been wrought out here. It is needless to expatiate, at present, upon the great transformation, which, under the guidance and blessing of Heaven, has since been effected by the perseverance of the people; it is patent to the world. The work of the Lord still progresses, and, though it may meet with as much, or even more opposition in the future than in the past, it will never cease, and the object which lies nearest the heart of every true Saint, will be accomplished,—namely, the triumph of the Kingdom of God upon the earth.

Almost every nation in the world has its feast-days and festivals, some honoring one and some another, according to their traditions. In the United States the Fourth of July will ever be commemorated as the day upon which the entire New World was dedicated to the cause of freedom and liberty, by the proclamation of American Independence. As American citizens the people of Utah are behind none in honoring and revering that day; but in the hearts and history of the Latter-day Saints the 24th of July will ever be the day of all days, and as each succeeding year rolls round their reverence for it will increase; and, as they and the work they are engaged in become better known and better understood, that reverence will spread from them until it permeates all nationalities and all classes of people, for all, sooner or later, will partake of the blessings and benefits flowing from that kingdom which the labors of President B. Young and his hardy band of veterans on the 24th of July, 1847, did so much to consolidate.

The celebration of to-morrow is in commemoration of this event; and on this occasional we hope to see all places of business closed and all classes of citizens participate. The day is great, and let every heart in these valleys of the mountains, that is loyal to God and true liberty,—that is the highest amount of liberty compatible with real happiness,—contribute their meed of praise and gratitude to the Supreme Ruler who has so signally owned, recognized and blessed their labors in laying the foundations of and in thus far building up His kingdom.

RESIGNATION.—We learn that the resignation of H. M. Hoxie Esq., Assistant General Superintendent of the U. P. R. R. has been accepted.

SUPREME COURT.—The ruling of the Court, in the murder case of Brannigan and others, on appeal from the District Court, was delivered yesterday. It will be remembered that by the judgment of the District Court the extreme penalty of the law was to be executed on the prisoners on Monday next, the 26th inst. By the ruling of the majority of the Judges—Judges Hawley and Strickland, in the Supreme Court, this judgment was annulled, and the appellants ordered back to prison to await a new trial, whereupon Mr. Baskin, on the part of the appellants, filed a motion to modify the judgment of the Court and to order their absolute discharge, arguing the motion on the part of the appellants; he was followed by Mr. Snow on the part of the people. The argument closed for the appellants by Mr. Towner. The motion was held under advisement by the Court.

He is agreeably surprised with the appearance of our city, and thinks marvels have been wrought when the disadvantages under which the people have labored are considered. We wish him a pleasant sojourn here.

OBITUARY.

Elder Heman Hyde, who departed this life on the 11th of June, 1869, in this city, was born on the 30th of June, 1788, in, it is thought, the town of Stratford, Orange county, Vermont. He was married in that town on December 5th, 1810, to Polly W. Tilton, and soon afterwards moved to the State of New York. He was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on the 7th of April, 1834, in Freedom, Cattaraugus county, New York, and was soon afterwards ordained an Elder. In February, 1836, he and his family moved to Kirtland, Ohio, where he lived with the Saints until the month of September, 1838, when he moved to Missouri for the purpose of gathering with the Saints who had gone up there. He had crossed the Missouri line, and had traveled about one hundred miles in that State, when he was met by an armed mob, and for no other reason than that he was a Latter-day Saint, he was forced by them to return to the State of Illinois. He resided in Illinois until the spring of 1846, when he left Nauvoo, in company with his brethren and sisters of like faith with himself, to seek a home in the western wilds. For two years he resided at the settlement which was made by the Latter-day Saints at Council Point, near Council Bluffs, and during his stay he was a member of the High Council. In 1848 he left the Bluffs for this valley, and in crossing the plains acted in the capacity of captain of fifty. After his arrival here he was for several years a member of the High Council. He was called to part with his wife Polly W. on the 13th of September, 1862.

Brother Hyde lived within nineteen days of 81 years, and his life was one of usefulness and integrity. Though his appearance was venerable, a benevolent expression on his countenance being habitual to him, his years sat lightly upon him. The last time we saw him his intellect was bright, and his form was as erect as that of many young men. In a brief obituary like this it is impossible to do justice to the life of such a man as Father Hyde. But he rests from his labors and his works do follow him, and his reward is sure.

MORNING DAILY PAPER.

At the request of many citizens and patrons of the Salt Lake Telegraph, the undersigned has concluded to publish the Telegraph in Salt Lake City, as a Morning Paper, commencing at the earliest possible date.

It is proposed to furnish the Telegraph to subscribers by carriers, who will collect according to subscription, and whose interest it will be to deliver the paper with punctuality and regularity at the houses of their patrons.

The credit system which has heretofore prevailed in publishing papers in this country has been very prejudicial to all concerned. It has been ruinous to the publisher and unsatisfactory to the patrons of the paper. Believing that the growth and advancement of the city demand it, we design, if the public will support us, to issue a paper that will contain the news of the whole world, and make such improvements in conducting it as our past experience will enable us to do; and to obviate the credit system, we will receive subscriptions by the week, month, quarter, half year and year.

Subscriptions can now be handed in to the office of the Salt Lake Telegraph in this city, at the following rates:

1 Year	$12 00
6 Months	7 00
3 Months	4 00
1 Month	1 50
1 Week	40
Single copies	10

MAILED TO ANY ADDRESS:

1 Year	$10 00
6 Months	6 00
3 Months	3 50

Any person sending the names of ten subscribers, with the money in advance, will receive a copy free; and proportionately for a larger number of subscriptions.

A somewhat unusual scene occurred in the Harrisburg Police Court the other day. A man was brought up for some petty offense, confessed that he was a slave to drink and wished to reform, and the magistrate called upon a clergyman present to pray for him. Prayer was accordingly offered.
