

RARE TREAT FOR THE OLD FOLKS.

Veterans Will be Royally Entertained at the Grand Theater
On Tuesday Next.

ALSO WIDOWS AND ORPHANS.

Bill is "Mr. Foster of Chicago," to Be Presented by Harry Corson Clarke and Company.

Tuesday, March 28, will be a gala day for the old folks, widows and orphans of Salt Lake.

Agreeable to annual custom, the old folks' committee announces for that day a theatrical matinee, to which all residents of the city 70 years of age and upwards, widows over 55 years, and the orphan children from the different institutions of the city, are most cordially invited free of charge. The performance will be given at the Grand theater, commencing at 2:15 p. m., but the doors will be open at 1 o'clock, so that all may be comfortably seated before the entertainment begins.

The invitation knows no distinction as to race, faith or color; all are welcome who are entitled to come. The tickets will be numbered, the best seats being reserved for the oldest and the front seats for the deaf. The distribution of tickets will commence at 10 a. m. Monday, March 27, from C. R. Savage's store, 12-14 East Temple street. On the occasion named the well known comedian, Mr. Harry Corson Clarke, and company, will present the popular play, "Mr. Foster of Chicago," a piece which will undoubtedly be well received by those attending. The committee announces that it has been enabled to give this entertainment through the kindness of Messrs. Jones & Hammer, managers of the Grand theater, Mr. Harry Corson Clarke and company, Mr. Held and the members of the orchestra, and the attaches and ushers of the theater, who have generously tendered their services.

The Utah Light and Railway company will carry free all the aged people wearing badges, to and from the theater.

The committee on arrangements consists of Bishop William B. Preston, C. F. Savage, William Edgington, William Naylor, John Kirkman, Andrew Jensen, William B. Barton, H. T. Groesbeck and George B. Margatta, a sufficient guarantee that the veterans attending will be taken care of.

YOUTHFUL RETRAYER.

Roy Ferguson of Murray Will Have To Answer Serious Charge.

Marshal Michael Mauss of Murray arrested Roy Ferguson yesterday afternoon upon a serious charge, and the prisoner was brought to the county jail last night by Deputy Sheriff Booth. It charged that Ferguson, who is only 19 years old, betrayed May Freeman, a 16-year-old girl, who is in a delicate condition. The young man was brought in from a farm where he was working, by the brothers of the girl, who turned him over to Marshal Mauss. It is more than likely that the boy will make amends for his acts and thus escape punishment.

Two trains Saltair tonight.

Everybody is going with the Z. C. M. I. Social club, Saltair, Thursday, 30th.

FINE ORGAN RECITAL.

It Was Given at the Congregational Church by Miss Edna Coray.

The organ recital last evening in the First Congregational church by Miss Edna Coray, was listened to with marked pleasure by an appreciative audience. The debutante is a pupil of Prof. Radcliff, and the character of her performance was such as to reflect credit not only on herself as an artist, but on the excellent character of the instruction that has been given her. Miss Coray plays with an unconscious grace and ease that comes only from thorough preparation and perfect self-confidence. She knew her program, and though she had the score before her, it was evident they were there rather as safeguards against possible slips of memory. Her registration was very good, and her management of the pedals much better than most women organists can boast of. It was unattested by any apparent effort, and always in good taste. Miss Coray's technical performance was finished and highly creditable; the most rapid movements did not appear to have any terrors for her; and in general there was not the slightest indication of affectation or nervousness. She knew she could do it and she did it. The Gullmunt numbers and the Weber overture were the debutante's best, for she seems to enter best into the spirit of the great French composer and organist. The pedal obligato in the overture was worthy of special commendation. Miss Coray was deluged with flowers, until the top of the console resembled a floral display at the state fair.

The debutante was assisted by Miss Radcliff, Violinist, and Mrs. Snyder, contralto. Miss Radcliff plays with clear cut and clean execution, and brings a good tone from her instrument. Mrs. Snyder has a strong voice over which she has a good command, and her work showed evidence of conscientious training. Both of these soloists were very well received.

A feature of the evening, not down on the program, was the exhibition of conversational powers on the part of the girl ushers who gathered in groups to discuss the latest society functions and make things interesting for those near by who desired to listen to the concert. One of these ushers presently went out and returned with a cat, which at once became the object of the liveliest interest. A part of the audience, at least, was thus enabled to exercise that dual function of the brain which gives one the ability to listen to two things at once.

Good Health to the Children

Children especially are fond of dainties and the housekeeper must look carefully to their food.

As good cake can be made only with good eggs, so also a cake that is healthful as well as dainty must be raised with a pure and perfect baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable in the preparation of the highest quality of food. It imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness and flavor noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, doughnuts, crusts, etc., and what is more important, renders the food wholesome and agreeable to young and old.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

(DO YOU REMEMBER?)

The Music hall and a Catholic church were burned at Buffalo, N. Y. One man was burned to death.

Great destitution was reported from counties in West Virginia that had suffered from drought.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

The question of woman's suffrage created quite a breeze in the constitutional convention.

A terrific tornado visited the region of Delaware, O. Many persons were hurt, but none fatally.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY.

Oscar F. Slade, a bartender, aged 39 years, was drowned while bathing in the Sanitarium.

Nurses, and for the perpetual endowment of a room in the hospital for the benefit of members of the association. The home will cost practically $25,000, only a small portion of which has yet been raised, but as subscriptions are constantly coming in the fund is growing and the hope is that the necessary amount will soon be realized.

The Alumni association was organized in February and its constitution provides that it shall also be a beneficiary association. For this purpose active members pay a small monthly fee which, in case of illness, entitles them to medical and hospital care, free of charge, for a period of 60 days. To endow a room for members of the association will require at least $7,500. Rev. George C. Hunting, superintendent of the hospital and treasurer of the Alumni association, has agreed, if the money is raised, not only perpetually to endow one of the best rooms in the hospital, but to apply the entire amount toward the Bishop Leonard Memorial Home for Nurses. The latter building is to be erected by popular subscription as a home for the nurses in the training school, and many friends of the late Bishop Leonard and others who are interested in the welfare of the hospital and the nurses have contributed small sums toward the necessary amount.

While it is a rule of the hospital that nurses shall not accept rewards from appreciative patients, it is understood that those who desire to contribute to this worthy undertaking may do so without violating the rules of the institution. From this source and others it is believed that the amount needed can very soon be raised without difficulty.

SHUT PREACHERS OUT.

Federation of Labor on Close Vote Excludes Ministers from Membership.

The Federation of Labor decided last night, by a vote of 30 to 24, not to admit delegates from the Ministerial association to the federation. There was quite a lively debate over it, and the prevailing sentiment appeared to be that admitting the ministerial delegates would result in more harm than good to the labor unions. The opposition urged that the Ministerial association might seek to use the federation for purposes not acceptable to the cause of labor, also, that ministers are not wage earners and therefore not properly qualified to sympathize with the objects of the unions. The cigar makers and electrical workers' unions were solidly opposed to admitting the ministers, while the plumbers favored it.

IT'S FOOD

That Restores And Makes Health Possible.

There are stomach specialists as well as eye and ear and other specialists. One of these told a young lady of New Brunswick, N. J., to quit medicines and eat Grape-Nuts. She says: "For about 12 months I suffered severely with gastritis. I was unable to retain much of anything on my stomach, and consequently was compelled to give up my occupation. I took quantities of medicine, and had an idea I was dying, but I continued to suffer, and soon lost 15 pounds in weight. I was depressed in spirits and lost interest in everything generally. My mind was so affected that it was impossible to become interested in even the lightest reading matter."

"After suffering for months I decided to go to a stomach specialist. He put me on Grape-Nuts and my health began to improve immediately. It was the keynote of a new life. I found that I had been eating too much starchy food which I did not digest, and that the cereals which I tried had been too heavy. I soon proved that it is not the quantity of food that one eats, but the quality."

"In a few weeks I was able to go back to my old business of doing clerical work. I have continued to eat Grape-Nuts for both the morning and evening meal. I wake in the morning with a clear mind and feel rested. I regained my lost weight in a short time. I am well and happy again and owe it to Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

In order that a halt may be called on sending such persons to the mental hospital, Gov. Cude, through his secretary, has mailed to every district attorney in the state a letter requesting them to be present at every insanity examination so that the state's interests may be properly looked after. The letter follows in full:

"Dear Sir—I am directed by the governor to respectfully invite your attention to the fact that the state mental hospital has received a number of inmates from various parts of the state who are proper charges of the counties and should be in a county poor house or in the state school for the deaf, dumb and blind."

"The mental hospital is at present crowded, and the governor suggests that you be present and personally conduct all examinations in the future, so that none but fit subjects will be admitted to that institution."

AMUSEMENTS.

"David Harum" drew a fair-sized audience at the theater last evening, and one that followed the familiar story with undoubted signs of amusement. The main figure in the play is, of course, Mr. Turner, who gives his interpretation of the famous New England horse trader closely along the lines laid down by the creator of the part, Wm. H. Crane. Mr. Turner is a clever artist, and makes everything possible out of the main episodes of the story, especially the hilarious horse trade, with the deacon, and the big rainfall scene, where the horse that "stands without hitching" has the deacon stalled and drenched to the skin.

The support ranges along rather mediocre lines, and the part of the leading lady could be built up to advantage. The best instance of acting in the support was the work done by Mr. Daly as Chet Timpson, Mr. Lewis as the deacon, Mr. Eldredge as Swinney, and Miss Gorman, an always capable actress, as Aunt Polly. The same bill goes tonight for the last time.

THE LAXATIVE OF KNOWN QUALITY

There are two classes of remedies: those of known quality and which are permanently beneficial in effect, acting gently, in harmony with nature, when nature needs assistance; and another class, composed of preparations of unknown, uncertain and inferior character, acting temporarily, but injuriously, as a result of forcing the natural functions unnecessarily. One of the most exceptional of the remedies of known quality and excellence is the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., which represents the active principles of plants, known to act most beneficially, in a pleasant syrup, in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to contribute their rich, yet delicate, fruity flavor. It is the remedy of all remedies to sweeten and refresh and cleanse the system gently and naturally, and to assist one in overcoming constipation and the many ills resulting therefrom. Its active principles and quality are known to physicians generally, and the remedy has therefore met with their approval, as well as with the favor of many millions of well informed persons who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual experience that it is a most excellent laxative remedy. We do not claim that it will cure all manner of ills, but recommend it for what it really represents, a laxative; remedy of known quality and excellence, containing nothing of an objectionable or injurious character.

There are two classes of purchasers: those who are informed as to the quality of what they buy and the reasons for the excellence of articles of exceptional merit, and who do not lack courage to go elsewhere when a dealer offers an imitation of any well known article; but, unfortunately, there are some people who do not know, and who allow themselves to be imposed upon. They cannot expect its beneficial effects if they do not get the genuine remedy.

To the credit of the druggists of the United States be it said that nearly all of them value their reputation for professional integrity and the good will of their customers too highly to offer imitations of the
