

GARDNER MAY BE NEXT FOR NELSON

Battling Says He Will Fight Any One Who Can Make the Weight.

LOWELL MAN SAYS HE CAN

But it is Doubtful if He Can Reduce 10 lbs. Pounds and be Strong Enough for the Dane.

Out on the coast the fight fans are talking about another fight for Battling Nelson. The man selected to meet the Dane is Jimmie Gardner, who fought Jack O'Ree at the Salt Palace some time ago. Many writers regard Jimmie as being the logical candidate for championship honors, although most of his fights have been around the weight-limit.

The sporting editor of the "News" asked Nelson what he thought about the proposed match. His reply was:

Fighter of today will never receive because he wants too much and gets little chance to fight."

WILL PLAY BALL HERE.

Stars of American and National Leagues To Meet in November.

The crack team of the two big ball leagues, the American and National, are now on their way to the coast to play ball there. The announcement is made by H. O. Shepherd that arrangements have been made to have the two teams play Lake for a couple of days and play two games here. The contests will take place early in November.

Just who will be in the teams is not known, but it is believed that LaLoy, Wagner, Huber, Weddell, Willie Kuefer and the famous Cy Young will be in the party.

DUGDALE GETTING BUSY.

He Says That Something Will be Doing in the Baseball Line.

The round Dugdale, once manager of the Seaside Pacific National baseball team, has just returned from an interview at Portland just before starting. "Dug" said the baseball man was going to be changed, and he Dugdale, would be in at the big split. The Portland Telegram quotes Dugdale as follows:

"Dugdale says you can take his word for it the baseball man in this section of the country is going to be changed in the next few months.

"As you know, when, where, or why Mr. Dugdale is as silent as the Sphinx. He admits that he is backward bound on baseball business and there he stops. "Mr. Dugdale and his wife arrived this morning with the idea of staying in a couple of days." "I tried to lead the fat man off my ranch," said the fat man but they dragged me away, and here I am."

"When you are going east, on baseball affairs?" was asked.

"Yes," he admitted, "but that is all I can say about it. Things are bound to change up here. I don't want any sayings to the press. I think I may be given a chance to fight again. If I am not, I will fight. I will fight if Gardner has a chance provided, however, I can see money in the match. Gardner thinks he can make decent money. Perhaps he can but not my doubts."

I have been asked if I will give Britt a return match. Certainly, I will if there passes to be made by so doing. But there is one thing I must say: I am not going to be satisfied to everybody, except a brother of myself."

Will Gardner make 125 pounds at 5' 6" and Dugdale 120? It is a good question. It is doubtful whether the statement is true. San Francisco just after Nelson's victory over Britt, that he could not make that weight. His brother, Geo. Gardner, declares that he can and has continued fighting him since he gave him the victory over the Dane. A fight between the two would draw a big house. Both here are well thought of on the coast.

Gardner has many friends. His cleverness and rangy work would put him in any man in the world at the weight-limit.

FIGHTERS LEAVE SALT LAKE.

Rubin and Wille and Their Managers Start for the East.

Gus Robbie, John Wille, Billy Madden and Jack Curly, all of the team, the east. They have left enough of Salt Lake as a sacrifice of host for awhile.

Madden and Robbie will remain in Denver for a few days while Curly and Wille go to Chicago to attend the national convention. Thereafter they will go to New York, where they will meet Britt in his new arena.

It is expected that the second contest at Philadelphia will be between the big fellows.

Willard Bevin now proposes to take a rest so far as the ring goes, as he is very tired. He will most likely arrange a few amateur performances. He has quite a string of likely youngsters and will match some of them.

JIMMY BRITT'S EARNINGS.

New York Writer Says James Edward Has Made Over $100,000.

Jimmy Britt is estimated to have made more than $100,000 to date. The New York American makes the computation. It may be.

A close scrutiny of Britt's record as a professional and the money he has made since he took off the ring of an amateur, shows him to be an amateur boxer with a good head. His success is, to say the least, phenomenal. The following list of his 14 decisions and 13 draws is a string of likely youngsters and will match some of them.

Preliminary Boxers.

James J. Corbett in writing about the amount of money demanded even by the fighters in preliminaries at this time, told of how a few years ago fighters who thought themselves comers were received at any figure offered to get a fight. Now, as Frank Davis told to get a fight, it is $10,000.

DR. MILES' MEDICAL CO.

LABORATORIES, ELKHART, IND.

A rich man died the other day. Hedged in the very midsummer of life, and he left his family $1,000,000. The doctor's certificate showed that death resulted from a self-inflicted wound. The doctor himself said to a friend: "That man was a suicide. He had a splendid constitution. I could have pulled him through if his stomach had not been sound." In fact, he had been hit, but his stomach, stonched by hasty meals, snatched in intervals and by neglect of symptoms which have been warning him a year past, that his stomach was failing in its duties.

The symptoms of a disordered stomach are, among others, variable appetite, sour risings, heartburn, undue fullness after eating, dull headache, dingy complexion, discolored eyes, fluctuations in physical strength, nervousness, sleeplessness, drowsiness. No person will have all these symptoms at once.

The restoration of the stomach to sound health depends upon the first dose of Dr. Miles' Golden Medical Discovery. As cure progresses until the functions of the stomach are in healthy operation. Then the nerves are quiet and strong, the appetite healthful, the sleep restful, the complexion clear.
