LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CONGRATULATORY.—The following telegram was dispatched by Deseret Telegraph line last night, to the various telegraph offices throughout the Territory:

"S. L. City, Jan. 10. 1870.

"To all the Saints throughout the Territory: We congratulate you on the completion of the Utah Central. The last rail laid and the last spike driven at 2 p.m. to-day. Many thousands were present to witness the ceremonies. Two engines and a number of cars, including two palace cars from the U. S. and P. R. R., were in attendance. Fine celebration. No accident. Grand ball to be given at the Theatre to-night. Love and peace abide with you.

(Signed) BRIGHAM YOUNG."

MASS MEETING.—On Thursday next, the 13th inst., at 10 o'clock a.m., the ladies of Salt Lake City will assemble in mass meeting in the Tabernacle. Though not expressly in the confidence of the ladies who have moved in this matter, we presume the object of the meeting is similar to that which called the ladies of the 15th Ward together on Thursday last, to express themselves on the infamous Cullum Bill which we published last week. Let the ladies speak.

REQUESTED TO CALL.—Emily Cooley, of Cowley, mother of Myron R. Cooley, deceased, is requested to call at President Young's office, where she will hear of something to her advantage.

KILLED.—An accident occurred on Wednesday night last, somewhere between this city and Cottonwood, which resulted in the death of a man named John Jackson. The full particulars we have not been able to glean, but the following are the main facts as given by our informant. Jackson's son was driving his team, and he was sitting on the hind part of the wagon coming to this city. On the way his appetite for whisky so far overcame prudence that he imbibed more than he could carry, and was reduced to an almost helpless state of inebriation. It is supposed that he fell with his head between the side of the rack, which was between the wheel and the axle. Every spoke of the wheel and the side of the rack were badly stained with blood. It is presumed that he never knew anything after toppling over, the first blow of the wheel probably producing instant death. He died within an hour after he was taken off his wagon.

NEWS OF THE INDIAN RAID.—The following telegrams were received per Deseret Telegraph line on Saturday evening, but too late for publication:

"BEAVER, 8.—Our boys have come in; they tracked the Indians up through Grays Valley, the trail of the raiders heading towards Red Lake. They did not see our pack train, composed of five men, which has gone on to Dalton's trail, and followed up. Judging from the tracks there must have been twenty-five Indians on the trail, with many horses.

JAMES LOWE, Mayor."

PAROWAN, Jan. 8.
PREST. B. YOUNG.—Capt. Dalton's company, that has been pursuing Navajos, has just returned, but could not overtake them. They left the trail high up on the east fork of the Sevier. The Indians were driving some eight head of cattle, and it is supposed about one hundred and fifty head of horses.

W. H. DANE."

The following telegram, from Bishop Dame, of Parowan, was received yesterday morning. It is a deposition made by a prisoner, one of the Navajo marauders, captured near Kane Springs:

"PAROWAN, 10.
PREST. B. YOUNG.—My name is John Francisco, a Mexican. I was born at Quaquara, on the Rio Grande. Six years ago I was herding sheep and asses for my mother, when the Navajos came down and stole the sheep, asses and all. Barowetza is the name of the chief who stole me, and he is now here stealing the Parowan stock. His brother Spanishank was killed about the time the Berry boys were killed. This chief with one hundred men came to this valley; fifty of them turned towards Beaver, and fifty came down the west side of Parowan lake. These passed on to Pinto range and came back to the west side of the Iron Spring mountains, made a corral and caught horses. Whites the Navajos were asleep at this corral I, John Francisco, stole a mule, my master's gun and ammunition, etc., and then broke for the mountains. On Friday, Jan. 7th, I was taken prisoner near Kane Springs, on the Minersville road, by Captain Ebenezer Hansen, and ten men. Five of the Navajos went through the corral at Paragonah and three of them looked through the corral at Parowan. Barowetza said he would go to the Colorado ford, leave this stock and come back here again for sheep and cattle in about fifteen days."

FREE READING ROOM AT COALVILLE.—Col. Thomas Bullock, of Coalville, informed us, yesterday, of a good movement recently inaugurated by the citizens of that city—namely, the establishment of a free reading room, in which fifteen different papers, weeklies and monthlies, literary, agricultural and scientific, are furnished for the edification of all who feel to avail themselves thereof. The room is fitted up so as to be warm and comfortable, and is fast becoming a favorite place of resort to citizens of all ages.

This movement is most praiseworthy, and might be imitated with profit by every settlement throughout the Territory. Such enterprise cannot but result in benefit and blessing to the inhabitants of Coalville and wherever else it may be manifested and carried out.

FROM NEW YORK.—Bro. S. D. Sirrine writes from New York, on the third inst. He says that Bros. Burton and Hooper left that city for Washington on the 30th ult. Bro. McEwan is in New York, Bro. McKeon in New Jersey; Bros. Richards and Curtis in Connecticut; Bishops Sheets and Weller and Elders Gibson, Lutz and Wright are in Pennsylvania. As a general thing their labors are not resulting in many additions to the church. In Williamsburgh there is a branch of the church numbering about 250 members, but strangers seldom visit the meetings, and when they do it is merely through curiosity. Bro. Sirrine thinks vice has increased since he left New York, fifteen years ago, and he, like all the elders abroad, feels to prize his mountain home more than ever, now that he is from it and can draw the contrast.
