

Society

Social Chat

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., entertained her sewing club on Tuesday. The rooms being bright with asters in pink, white and lavender, and the following guests being present: Mrs. T. H. Shannon, Mrs. George Wines, Mrs. Van Spalding, Mrs. L. L. Burton, Mrs. Richard W. Madison, Mrs. L. Livingston, Mrs. Frank Bailey, Mrs. George Lamborn, Mrs. H. H. Snyder, Mrs. John E. Snyder, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, Mrs. William White, Mrs. John Nicholson, and Mrs. William Nicholson.

A large affair of the week was the reception given by E. I. Goshon on Thursday night by the Ladies Aid society of the First Congregational church, an unique feature being that the assistants in entertaining were all men. The rooms were decorated with Japanese fans and lanterns, and vases of lavender asters, while Navajo rugs were all about. The receiving party comprised L. R. Tuttle, L. O. Howard, Oscar Evans, R. L. Tracy, and D. B. Clark. Punch was served by Mr. Goodwin, Mr. Cleveland, and Jack Evans, under the direction of Mrs. Albion. Those who assisted in the dining room were Mr. Schott, Mr. Roberts, Mr. Lawrence, D. D. Stockman, J. Walters, Frank Boxrud, Wellington Davidson, Dick Jones and Mr. Wilkinson.

One of the largest social affairs of the week was the card party given at the Ladies' Literary club house on Tuesday for the benefit of the nurse's home and a generous sum will go to the institution as a result.

Miss Margaret A. Primm gave an Orpheum party on Tuesday in honor of Miss Louise Wey, followed by a luncheon the table decorations being in red hearts, bells, and carnations, and the following being present: Mrs. Jean DeBouck, Mrs. A. T. Egan, Mrs. F. J. Curtis, Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, Mrs. M. T. Westman, of St. Louis, Miss Florence Sears, Miss Edna Jennings, Misses Isabel and Amy Osborne, and Miss Hattie Nielsen of Chicago.

Mrs. Ralph McBroome gave a box party at the Orpheum this afternoon.

Mrs. C. C. Blad entertained at a heart party on Wednesday for Miss Louise Wey, red hearts being used with red flowers, and the game of hearts being played. Prizes were won by Miss Marjorie Mulvey and Miss Nan Gibbons, and a special guest prize was given the guest of honor.

Mrs. E. Bonnemort will entertain at a large evening party on Friday, Sept. 20, in honor of Miss Skirid Pederson whose marriage takes place Sept. 25.

Mrs. W. R. Wallace entertained on Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. J. C. Hanchett and Mrs. C. O. Whittemore, the amusement being a game and prizes awarded Mrs. W. R. Henderson and the two guests of honor. The decorations were in sweet peas and asters.

Mrs. J. A. Handin entertained at a Kensington yesterday in honor of Miss Louise Wey, the decorations being in sunflowers and asters, and a guessing game being played in which prizes were awarded together with a special prize for the guest of honor.

On Tuesday Miss Homola King entertained about 30 friends at an Orpheum party which occupied two rows and afterward were entertained at tea, the table being decorated in sweet peas and arranged in T shape with five girls who are to go east to school shortly occupying places near their hostess. The guests of honor were Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Margaret Dunn, Miss Leigh Whitehouse, Miss Bryan Houston and Miss Grizzelle Houston.

Mrs. F. E. Johnson was hostess at an informal luncheon on Tuesday, followed by cards, about 100 tables being played. The decorations were in pastels and pink and white dahlias and the prize went to Mrs. L. L. Downing. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. George Savage.

Mrs. C. O. Whittemore was guest of honor at an elaborate luncheon on Tuesday given by Mrs. C. C. Blad, a bride's party following. The rooms were decorated in different colors, the parlor in purple and white asters, the hall in sunflowers, and the dining room in sweet peas, while the five tables had each a different color, one being done in yellow roses, another with forget-me-nots, one in violets, and another in clover leaves and mignollets, and still another in pansies. The place cards were done to match the flowers of each and 25 guests sat down. The guest of honor received a special prize and the others went to Mrs. J. C. Hanchett, Mrs. Thomas Marionneau, Mrs. L. Downing, Miss June Whittemore, and Mrs. Ernest Drake. The others present to meet Mrs. Whittemore were Mrs. George W. Snow, Mrs. Anne Luman, Mrs. H. J. McMillan, Mrs. Richard Peaslee, Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett, Mrs. J. C. Landenberger, Mrs. Joseph Young, Mrs. T. R. Black, Miss Jeanette Luman, Mrs. George Savage and Mrs. Van Housen.

Mrs. J. M. Tanner entertained on Thursday afternoon and evening in honor of Miss Reva Robinson whose marriage takes place on the 25th. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of asters, nasturtiums and sunflowers and about 10 guests were present at the two functions. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Sarah E. Robinson.

On Monday Miss Lillian Burnham whose marriage took place this week, entertained the members of her bridal party at luncheon at the Wilson, the decorations being in yellow, the chosen bridal color.

H. W. Goodwin gave an Orpheum party on Wednesday night followed by a supper in honor of Vaughan A. Ford whose marriage to Miss Louise Wey takes place Sept. 15.

Miss Stella Fabian entertained at a

SOCIETY OF NAVY SPONSORS.

Miss Mary Campbell of Birmingham, Alabama, is the originator of a new society which is to be called the "Society of Navy Sponsors" and which will include in its membership many of the most prominent families in contemporary American history.

Membership will be limited to those who have baptized battleships of the United States navy and the list includes many of the beautiful young women of every section of our country. There are daughters of senators, governors and congressmen among them and a meeting to organize the society is to be held in Washington this autumn.

Miss Campbell was the sponsor for the cruiser Birmingham and has received letters of congratulation and encouragement for her novel idea from young women in all parts of the United States.

Luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday in honor of Miss Lisa Billings who is visiting here.

The annual reception of the Salt Lake Teachers' association will be held next Tuesday evening.

The faculty of Gordon academy has issued invitations for a reception, to be given at 802 East Third South, Friday evening, Sept. 12, from 8 to 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Thomas Marne will entertain Monday evening for Miss Louise Wey and Vaughn A. Ford.

This afternoon Miss Vorse gives a large lawn and card party at her home.

Among those who gave box parties at the "Robin Hood" performance on Wednesday night were Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Reed and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker and Mr. Henry Peery.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the "at home" given by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lee last night for their son Robert Corvin Lee before his return to the naval academy at Annapolis.

Mrs. C. D. Rockledge entertained informally on Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Le Compté of Park City.

Tonight promises to see a gala gathering at Ballair when representatives of various colleges will join in an evening's festivities at the delightful resort.

COMING AND GOING

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Rood and Mrs. O. H. Kister will shortly be at home at 24 Seventh East street.

Mrs. Ernest A. Greenwood and her daughter, Helen, have returned after spending some weeks in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bee are here from Boise for a few days, and will be with Mrs. M. B. Whitney.

Mrs. Cecelia Sharp Young has returned from Idaho, where she has been visiting her mother.

Mrs. E. A. Greenwood and daughter Helen have returned from a month spent in Colorado.

Mrs. Edward B. Sterling, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. William H. Bird, for some time, left this week for her home in Portland.

Mrs. Terrell and daughter, Miss Sarah, are expected home the first of next week from spending six weeks in the Pacific northwest.

Mrs. W. M. Day, with her daughter, Katharine, left early in the week for Topeka, Kan., to visit her sister, Mrs. J. R. Wick.

Mrs. C. K. Von Knoblock is back from a summer spent in Wyoming and is with Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Landenberger at 412 First avenue.

Miss Ruth Wilson has returned to Park City after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Mizer.

Mrs. Mose Christensen of Boise, Ida., is visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. S. Nichols, at 308 Fifth East street.

Mrs. John Dooling and daughter of Los Angeles, former residents of this city, who have spent a few days with Mrs. W. L. Green, left Thursday for Boston, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. P. A. Simpkin and her sons are back from Santa Monica, where they have spent the summer.

Misses Winnifred and Ella Dyer leave today to continue their college work in Northampton, after spending some time with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wood.

Miss Elizabeth Bain, formerly of this city, who is a teacher now in the Portland high school, is the guest for a few days of Miss Mabel Corbin at Rowland hall.

Mrs. Theodore A. Baldwin is here from Fort Leavenworth, the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Judge. She will remain till the departure of Captain Baldwin's regiment for the Philippines.

Mrs. Sol Siegel is back after a delightful trip to Alaska and a visit with friends in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wood are now at home at the Manitou.

Miss Nan Clawson leaves next Wednesday to join her aunt, Mrs. Robert Easton in New York for the winter. She goes in company with Mrs. Ida Smoot Dusenberry of Provo who also leaves on that day.

Mr. and Mrs. George Austin returned yesterday from California.

Mrs. Benner N. Smith leaves this week for an extended trip. Her daughter, Miss Margaret McClure, has returned to school at Menlo Park, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Savage and family have returned from their ranch in Wyoming, where they have spent the summer.

Gov. and Mrs. Culler and daughter are home from California.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCormick have returned from an extended trip abroad.

Lynn Clifton leaves next week to re-enter Yale.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Read have returned from a fishing trip in Idaho.

Mrs. B. S. Varian and children are visiting Judge and Mrs. Varian. They leave for their home, Weiser, Ida., in a few days.

Mrs. M. F. McLeod and Miss Sallie McLeod are now located at the Oxford flats, having recently returned from California.

Mrs. Elmer B. Jones and a party of friends took a motor trip to Farmington, Saturday. Mrs. Jones remaining to spend the day with Miss Lucy M. Grant who is visiting her cousin, Miss Leone Rogers.

Mr. Heber J. Grant, Mrs. Augusta Grant, Misses Florence, Mary, Edith and Grace Grant visited Miss Lucy M. Grant at Farmington, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Westerman, Miss Margaret Primm and Mr. Albertson left Thursday for a trip through Yellowstone park.

Mrs. George H. Greenwood of Beaver, Utah, will be here next week to visit her mother, Mrs. Pratt.

Mrs. J. E. Clinton has returned from two months spent at the Lava Hot Springs, Idaho.

Mrs. Fred Helvoren is visiting for a short time with her mother, Mrs. Bonnemort.

Mrs. and Mrs. W. T. Henson and daughter have returned from spending the summer in the east.

Mrs. Duke, who has spent the summer in California, will be here soon to visit her sister, Mrs. George Snow, before returning to her home in Chicago.

Miss Edna Rivers of Los Angeles, who has spent the summer here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill, will leave Sunday for her home.

Miss Nora Gleason has returned from Castilia Springs, where she has spent a short vacation and will resume her studio work immediately.

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Jones, who have spent the past year or so abroad, and who returned only recently, left yesterday for Seattle to make their home.

Mrs. Frank J. Gustin, with her three children, has gone to Lincoln, Neb., to visit relatives.

Miss Beth Ward has returned from Pittsburgh, where she spent the year studying juvenile library methods.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pearson have gone to Cleveland and other eastern cities for a month.

Miss Lottie Hickman of Des Moines, Iowa, is the guest of Mrs. Fred Duckworth.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Ewing will be at home for the winter at 354 East South Temple street.

Mrs. A. H. Boxrud and daughter, Miss Helen, return this week after spending the summer in the east and in Canada.

J. I. Bowman has returned from a trip of two months in the east, when he visited New York, Washington, Chicago and the Jamestown exposition, also going around the great lakes.

Judge and Mrs. W. C. Hall and family are expected home this week after spending the summer in California.

The Misses Louise and Florence Jennings have returned from a summer's stay in California. Their mother, Mrs. Isaac Jennings, will return later.

Miss May Blake of Chicago, who has been visiting Mrs. Hewett and Dr. Ned Hewett, left Tuesday on the Los Angeles Limited to visit Mrs. Hewett's

KAISER'S ONLY DAUGHTER TO WED.

Princess Victoria Louise of Germany, only daughter of the kaiser, will soon be betrothed to Prince Leopold, son of the Princess Henry of Battenburg and brother of the queen of Spain. She is only 15 years of age, while Prince Leopold is but 18, so the marriage will not take place for some time. The kaiser is expected to arrange the formalities during his forthcoming visit to England this autumn. The young princess is a clever and unaffected girl and the pet of the royal household. Prince Leopold, being a grandson of the late Queen Victoria of England, is also a cousin of his future father-in-law.

Princess Victoria Louise is the daughter of the kaiser, and the sister, Mrs. Worcester, in Hollywood.

Miss Elizabeth Spangler has returned from a trip to Chicago, Omaha and Michigan.

Mrs. A. B. Gibson has recently returned from a summer spent on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kimball and their family will shortly be at home at 79 O street.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahonri M. Young will be at home after this week at 53 Center street.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal W. Daynes will make a trip to New York and other eastern cities.

Mrs. Ernest R. Eldridge of Portland is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nephi Morris and other relatives.

Mrs. Harry Benson is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Richards.

Mrs. T. B. Shannon and her daughter, Virginia, are back after spending the summer on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Kriebel have taken the Armstrong apartments in the Bransford for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth W. Morrison, Miss

FALL OPENING

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

Z.C.M.I.

MONDAY SEPT. 18th