CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

Bills Introduced — Mouth of the Mississippi to be Improved—Contagious Diseases.

WASHINGTON, 16.—Under a call of the States a number of bills were introduced, including one prohibiting the private use of public houres and vehicles in Washington, and one prohibiting Government officials from dressing their servants in livery.

Stanard's bill appropriating $30,000 for improving the mouth of the Mississippi was passed.

Bronebery moved a suspension of the rules for the consideration of a bill to prevent the importation of contagious diseases into the United States, and pending attempts to have it made a special order, the House took recess until evening.

EASTERN.

Motion Granted.

NEW YORK, 16.—Judge Brady granted the motion of Tweed's counsel to amend the clerk's record of Tweed's sentence, so as to conform to Judge Davis's language as taken by the stenographers, thus substituting "county jail" for "penitentiary."

Favor Adams as Sumner's Successor—More Official Thieves—Dead.

The Tribune, to-morrow, will advocate the election of Charles Francis Adams in place of Sumner. The Boston Advertiser favors Adams.

Ex Judge Young, Alderman Hansly, Chief of Police Rogers, Street Commissioner Sullivan, B. H. Thanly and Wm. Dykes, have been arraigned at New York, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, for conspiracy to defraud the city in paving contracts; they were admitted to ten thousand dollars bail each.

Wm. James Denman, editor of the New York Tablet, died yesterday.

Dispatches from a number of southern and western cities state that the colored people appropriately noticed the death of Sumner.

Burned.

HARTFORD, Conn. 16.—Burce & Chency's paper mill at South Manchester, was burned to-night.

Local Option Bill Defeated.

TRENTON, N. J. 16.—The Local option bill was defeated in the Senate to-night, forty to six.

Autopsy of Sumner.

BOSTON, 16.—An autopsy on the body of Sumner was made this morning; a portion of the left corrorary artery was considerably ossified, and some other abnormal conditions were found in the heart; nothing abnormal was found in the brain or other organs. Dr. Brown Sequard says that no traces of the effects of Brooks's assault were found in the brain. There was a very general suspension of business today.

Sumner's Funeral.

The obsequies of Senator Sumner took place at half past three this p.m. The remains were conveyed from the Doric Hall, in a hearse drawn by four black horses, with aguard of mounted State constables. The procession included the executive and legislative authorities, the congressional committee, U. S. officials and municipal authorities. The pall bearers were ex-Governors Clifford, Culloch, Claflin and Washburn, ex-chief justice Bigelow, N.P. Banks, Robt. C. Winthrop, Chas. Francis Adams, J. G. Whittier, and Ralph Waldo Emerson. As the casket passed from the hall Baldwin's band played the "Dead March in Saul." The procession was preceded by four men, bearing a cross, nine feet in height, composed of calla lilies, camelias, lilies of the valley, violets and other choice exotics, at the base of which in white violets were the words—"A tribute from his native city and home." When the procession arrived at the church after the organ prelude, the Rev. Mr. Foote recited the passages, "I am the resurrection," etc., and "I know that my Redeemer liveth." The choir sang, "To thee, O Lord, I yield my spirit," and with alternate reading and chanting the service was concluded and the benediction pronounced. The cortege moved to Mount Auburn and, after the recital of the Lord's prayer, and music from the Appollo Club, the last and rites were performed to the remains of this honored son of Massachusetts.

Indians Dissatisfied — Customs Receipts—Howard Court of Inquiry—The Temperance Cause—Men Discharged from the Navy Yard.

WASHINGTON, 16.—Dispatches to the War department report that the Indians at Leech Lake are dissatisfied, and inclined to depredate; the military authorities will make an effort to protect the agency.

The customs receipts for March equal those for the corresponding period last year, and the treasury officials believe the customs have recovered from the effects of the panic.

The Howard court of inquiry, today, examined General Meigs, acting commissary General Shiaves, and General Townsend, in regard to the regulation and law of Congress concerning the appropriations made from the time that Howard became responsible therefor.

A number of clergymen of this city held a meeting to-day, to consider means to advance the temperance cause.

One hundred and twenty-five men were discharged from the navy yard here, and six hundred from the Norfolk yard to-day.

The Centennial.

PHILADELPHIA, 16.—The business men held a meeting to-day, at which they expressed their confidence in the success of the Centennial, pledged money and called on Congress to sustain the country's credit and reputation by an appropriation to assist the scheme.

Libel Filed.

Captain Brady files in the district court a libel against the owners of the steamship Pennsylvania and her cargo, for salvage for bringing the vessel into port after the loss of the captain and the first and second officers.

Last Respects to Sumner.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., 16.—In the city the bells were all tolled at three o'clock, in honor of Sumner. At Holyoak, a memorial service was held, business being generally suspended; at Westfield the stores were closed. Throughout western Massachusetts, generally, the bells were tolled.

Temperance Ladies Insulted by Bummers.

CHICAGO, 16.—A delegation of a hundred ladies from a large meeting in the Clark Street Methodist Church, marched this evening to the City Hall, and presented to the Council a remonstrance, signed by 16,000 women, against the repeal of the Sunday saloon closing ordinance; the Council received the petition, but passed the ordinance by a vote of 22 to 14; the defeated ladies then ran the gauntlet of a mob of bummers, who insulted them and hooted and yelled at them all the way from the City Hall back to the church.

Ladies Plead with the Mayor.

INDIANAPOLIS, 16.—The mayor was called on, to-day, by fifteen ladies, representing the Women's Christian Union, who presented a petition, requesting the enforcement of the liquor laws, and especially the one prohibiting Sunday sales; the petition was followed by prayers. The mayor thanked them for the honor done him, and said he had tried to do his duty in executing the laws, and he proposed to do so still, and though anxious and ready to check intemperance, he could not transcend the powers vested in him; the ladies had his support as long as they did not violate the law. Mass meetings are held every Sunday, but no saloons have been visited yet.

More Workers Wanted—Saloonists Surrender.

COLUMBUS, O., 16. — Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather, the crusaders, in four bands, did street work to-day, but without visible results; the business men will unite in the morning in a meeting with the ladies, and a permanent organization will be effected, and regular companies will be formed and work assigned them; prayers now are for more workers.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., 16.—Amid the ringing of bells and playing of a band, two saloonists surrendered and sold their stock at auction, realizing temperance prices; the temperance crusaders are exulting.

WESTERN.

Committed Suicide—Trains Blockaded.

SAN FRANCISCO, 16.—Col. Oliver P. Robie, formerly of the United States army, committed suicide in this city to-day. He shot himself twice through the head with a revolver; the cause of the suicide is unknown.

The Central Pacific is again blockaded near Emigrant Gap. The snow at Summit is fully twenty-five feet deep on the level. The telegraph poles and wire are buried out of sight half the distance from Emigrant Gap to Truckee.

Judge Dwinelle has decided that David Scannel was legally elected chief of the fire department, and he has fined ex-chief Whitney three hundred dollars and costs for usurping the office.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

117 Persons Drowned—Wolseley Going to meet Livingstone's Remains—Festivities at Chiselhurst.

LONDON, 16.—A hundred and seventeen pilgrims from Mecca, were washed from the deck of the steamship Laconia and drowned, during a terrific gale in the Mediterranean.

General Wolseley will go to Malta or Aden, to meet the remains of Livingstone, accompanying them to England.

There was a great crowd of French people at Chiselhurst to-day, to celebrate the eighteenth birthday of Prince Louis Napoleon. Six thousand cards of admission, exclusively to French citizens, were issued. In the morning mass and thanksgiving services were celebrated, when the Duke of Padua addressed the Prince in the name of the people of France, congratulating him on obtaining his majority. The Prince, in reply, thanked his countrymen for their faithful remembrance of the late Emperor, and in conclusion said: "Despite the confidence inspired by the loyalty of McMahon and the irresistible current of public opinion, which has pronounced in favor of a plebiscite, I am ready to accept its verdict." Great enthusiasm was manifested. Camden House was gaily decorated. Among the prominent Frenchmen present were Ollivier, Rouher, and the Duc d'Grammont.

Re-elected—Dead—Conservative Elected.

Lords Percy and Somerset, Ward Hunt, Sir Michael Beach, Sir Chas. Adderley, and Mr. Ball, of the new government, were re-elected to Parliament.

Right Rev. Charles A. Paris, Bishop of Gibraltar, is dead.

Hall, Conservative, has been elected to parliament from Oxford city, by 462 majority.

FRANCE.

The Charge Against Gambetta.

PARIS, 16.—M. De Keratry was examined by the committee of the Assembly to-day, in relation to the charge preferred against Gambetta, He testified that Gambetta, while a member of the government of the National Defence, purposely refused arms to the Bretons, that they might suffer defeat and be unable to fight the Commune, the rise of which was already anticipated.

Another Carlist Triumph.

BAYONNE, 16.—The Carlists report that Sebalio has captured a column of 2500 under General Mouvillas.

PRUSSIA.

Contradicted.

BERLIN, 16.—The report of Prince Frederick's projected tour around the world is contradicted.

SPAIN.

Defeated—Siege Raised.

MADRID, 16.—The Carlist leader Tristang has been defeated at Farragona.

It is rumored that the Carlists have raised the siege of Bilbon.
