

BASEBALL SEASON ALONG THE LINE

Games East and West in American and National Leagues.

REMODELLED POLO GROUNDS.

To Place Where New York Fans Will see Favorite Sport—Teams in Fine Shape.

New York, April 13.—The baseball season opens all along the line today with games in the east and west between clubs of the National League and between all the teams of the American League. The preliminary season games of the last two days of the week of the American League in Washington and Philadelphia has only put a floor edge on the baseball appetite. The National League season opens with Brooklyn at New York, Philadelphia at Boston, Pittsburgh at Cincinnati and St. Louis at Cleveland, while the western division of the American League finds Chicago at Detroit and Cleveland at St. Louis.

AT POLO GROUNDS.

The New York baseball season is inaugurated at the remodelled Polo grounds, which with the additional grandstands and bleachers can accommodate crowds variously estimated at from 20,000 to 40,000 persons, said to be the largest seating capacity of any baseball park in the country.

Although it rained almost all night yesterday for today was "clearing and cooler" and the baseball enthusiasm awoke from its winter slumber. The game between Brooklyn and New York, scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock, began at 3:00, moved by the rain from all sections of Manhattan, Brooklyn and New Jersey points on to the Polo grounds. The advance sale seats indicate a record-breaking crowd and police commissioner Nichols had extra detachments of police to keep order in the thoroughfares approaching the grounds.

TEAMS IN GOOD SHAPE.

Manager John McGraw of the New York club and Manager Harry Lumley of Brooklyn, both report their men to be in fine fettle. McGraw had declined last night to send Christy Mathewson to the Polo grounds to do the pitching, but there will be a possibility of his going to the box, as the weather turns out damp or chilly. Either Barker or Wilhelm were to pitch for Brooklyn with Bergen behind the bat.
