TALK OF THE TOWN.

The reign of King Mud is resumed.

Mr. Henry Tribe, of Ogden, is in town.

Still cloudy, but temperature moderate.

California oranges are again on the market.

The water flume at the Elephant corner is being repaired.

Bishops' meeting convenes this evening in the Council House.

"Our Boarding House" is being cast by the Home Dramatic Club.

The Ogden new Co-op build will be dedicated to morrow at 11 a.m.

Fast meetings were held to-day in the meeting houses of the various wards.

St. Crispin's votaries will trip the light fantastic in the 12th Ward this evening.

A Colorado railroad, recently incorporated at Denver, is pointing towards Utah.

The party in the 12th Ward Hall, to-morrow night promises to be an enjoyable affair.

Dr. Ellen B. Ferguson is much better to-day. Her ailment is neuralgia of the heart.

A new cobble crossing is being put down on Main Street, from Clasby and Hogle's west.

The Cache and Wasatch Stake Conferences will be held on Saturday and Sunday next.

"Mazeppa" was presented to a good house last evening, and will be repeated to-night.

From the Enquirer we learn that the idea of a new theatre for Provo has been resurrected.

Federal officials turned out in numbers last evening to witness the "sublime tragedy" of "Mazeppa."

Shakspeare's great tragedy of "Macbeth" is to be presented by a company of home talent early in the spring.

The vocal department of the Careless Orchestra was organized last evening, and practice commenced at once.

E. A. Littlefield, of Elko, is about to establish a red-hot Gentile paper in Ogden. Its name will be the Ogden Pilot.

The big success of the 9th Ward dramatic entertainment, the other night, has induced its repetition with attractive additions this evening.

Hooley's Mammoth Minstrels, second to none, are announced for the 10th, 11th and 12th. They will take well, for they are all they advertise.

The acoustics of the Theatre (?) were much complained of last evening. Many were compelled to get very near to the stage in order to obviate the inconvenience.

Ben Guiver, the well known and popular butcher, has opened the 13th Ward meat market with a choice stock of meats. He will be glad to see his friends at any time.

These are the times when the soft ooze from the street stables mingles sweetly with the purling streams at the roadside, and woos the thirsty traveller into the nearest saloon to get a glass of clean water.

Nothing doing in the Police Court this morning. The boy Nash is being examined on other charges this p.m. The brass kettle, two axes and other articles stolen by him have been identified.

We are having a decided theatrical "run." After the "Mazeppa" company comes Proctor's lectures, then Hooley's Minstrel's, Sullivan's Irish Company, etc., taking in the greater part of the month.

The "Golden Farmer" and "Rough Diamond" will be presented by the 21st Ward Dramatic Association on Tuesday and Thursday, the 8th and 10th insts. Benefit of the Ward and Association.

We are pleased to see tickets going off well for Professor Proctor's astronomical lectures on Monday and Tuesday next. They are respectively entitled "The Birth and Growth of Worlds," and "The Life and Death of Worlds."

More mining litigation is at hand. Suits for damages $50,000 and $1,500, respectively, are now pending in the District Court. The first is the Accident mine vs. the Tiewaukee, the second the Live Yankee vs. the Aladin. All of Bingham.

Mr. S. A. Kenner, who has the job of revising and compiling the ordinances of Ogden City, is in Salt Lake to superintend the printing of the same. He will soon return to Beaver, his present home, to attend

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Gen. Butler Dying.—It is rumored as we go to press, that Gen. Butler, Warden of the Utah Penitentiary, is dying, having been attacked with apoplexy at 6 o'clock this morning.

Big Affair.—There is some talk of an old-fashioned ball for people who do not "put on style" nor hanker after the waltz, to be given in the Theatre. It would be a big thing. We concur.

Firemen, Attention!—The members of the Wasatch Company No 2, will please take notice that the annual meeting for the election of officers for the ensuing year will be held at the engine house, 12th Ward, Salt Lake City, on Friday, February 4th, 1881, at 7.30 p. m., sharp.

WM. R. ADKINS, Secy.

Dedication. — The magnificent new building lately erected in Ogden by Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution will be dedicated tomorrow (Friday) at 11 a. m. President John Taylor will be there, also President Joseph F. Smith, the latter of whom will leave by the morning train for that purpose. President Taylor, as stated elsewhere, is already in Ogden.

Stake Conferences.—The regular quarterly conference of Cache Stake will be held at Logan on Saturday and Sunday the 5th and 6th insts. President Taylor, who has been in Ogden for most of the week, and Apostle Wilford Woodruff, who is in Logan, will attend the meetings. Also Elder John Van Cott.

The Wasatch Stake conference will also take place on those dates. Apostles F. M. Lyman and John Henry Smith, and W. W. Taylor, of the presidency of the Seventies, will be there.

Payson Gambling Case.—A short time since, we published the arrest of a woman in Payson, for keeping a gambling house. We are informed by our Provo contemporary, that the examination of the case came off before Justice Wride on Friday last. A jury having been empannelled, the trial proceeded. The evidence went to show that on the 4th of last month, two or three individuals went into the house of Mrs. Box, and played at dice there, and that at the close of the games, she brought in whisky, which had been ordered and received pay therefor. The case went on till shortly before midnight, when it was given to the jury, which soon returned a verdict of guilty. On Monday judgment was rendered, the defendant being fined $99 and costs. The case was appealed to the District Court.

"Mazeppa." — "Mazeppa" was presented last evening to a large and enthusiastic audience. It lays no claim, and wisely too, to dramatic merit, simply being a spectacular paraphrase on Byron's renowned poem of the same name, but is full of life and enterprise, and things are kept booming from first to last. Miss Buckingham is a fine equestrian and a skillful master of the broadsword. Her riding and combat scene were the best in the play. The piece is merely for one, and poor actors can do almost as much as good ones in the minor parts, "Mazeppa" being the only role that admits of any acting. Mr. Frank Rea, the old favorite, was warmly greeted on his re-appearance. "James Melville," the "fiery, untamed steed," is a beautiful animal and thoroughly trained. The actions of the noble beast constituted one of the best features of the entertainment. The play will be repeated this evening. Last night of "Mazeppa."

Kings and Kingdoms.

A glance at the table of ages and reigns will rather surprise the average reader, whose preconceived ideas on the subject of history are generally of the haziest and most inaccurate sort. No one will be astonished to learn that the evergreen Emperor of Germany, now nearly eighty-four years old, is the eldest of living sovereigns, the next in point of seniority being the Duke of Brunswick, born April 25, 1806; Leo XIII, born March 2, 1810; the King of the Netherlands, born February 19, 1817, and Prince Adolphe, of Schaumbourg-Lippe, born on the first of August in the same yesr.

The King of Denmark is sixth on the list; the Czar, seventh, Queen Victoria, eleventh; Dom Pedro of Brazil, sixteenth, and the Emperor of Austria twenty-fourth, the two sovereigns under thirty being Prince Milan, of Servia, born August 10, 1854, and King Alfonso XII, of Spain, born November 28, 1857, who in his short life has assisted at two revolutions, has been married twice and shot at twice. But the positions are materially changed when we come to regard the length of each ruler's reign. Dom Pedro, of Brazil heads the list, having ascended the throne April 7, 1831, at the age of six; the Duke of Brunswick (April 20, 1831,) comes next; Queen Victoria is third—June 20, 1837; Francis Joseph, of Austria is sixth—December 2, 1848; the king of the Netherlands seventh —March 17, 1849; the Czar is twelfth, and the Emperor William (as King of Prussia) only nineteenth. King George of the Hellenes ascended the throne more than five months before his father assumed the royal dignity. The junior sovereign is Charles, Prince of Schwarsburg-Sonderschausen, who, though a man of fifty, only began to reign on the 17th of July last.

Confidence and trust are beautiful things. Too much trust, however, kills a grocery store.—N. O. Picayune.

Mrs. Youngwoman wants to know "what is the best way to mark table linen." Leave the baby and a blackberry pie alone at the table for three minutes.—Boston Transcript.

"There Are No Birds in Last Year's Nests" is the title of the latest song. Something to the effect that there are no buttons on this year's shirts would be more truthful, if not quite so romantic.—Chicago Tribune.

A circus manager wanted a new name for his show, and a sophomore collegian suggested "monohippic aggregation" as good, and the circus

Various Causes,

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointed, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous. 3dsw

Be On Your Guard.

During this very changeable weather people are just as changeable in regard to their clothing; one day heavy clothing and the next day thin; consequently, there are more Coughs, Colds, Influenza and Affections of the Lungs in this season than in any other. Parents, be on your guard, and always keep in the house, ready for use, a bottle of that pleasant and effectual remedy, known as

"Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar."

All druggists sell it, at 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Depot, Crittenton's, 7 Sixth avenue, New York City. Great saving to purchase large size.

TO SEE what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East, the popular and well-known

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

You are landed by the Union Pacific R. R. in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the C. and N. W. Palace train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, elegant Day Coaches, Smoking, Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., ready to convey its passengers through Iowa and Illinois, and into Chicago. Gliding smoothly along over the superb track of steel rail, through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discovers the high rate of speed at which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and ease in traveling, will find the "North Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. Insist upon Ticket Agents selling you Tickets via this road; all Agents sell them. Examine your Tickets, and refuse to buy if they do not read over this Road. If you wish the

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

It seems strange that anyone will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and has proven itself to be the best blood purifier ever discovered, effectually curing Scrofula, Weakness of the Kidneys, all Nervous disorders and Debility. It corrects indigestion. It makes the old feel young, and the young feel gay; and will invariably drive out of the system the many ills that human flesh is heir to. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health renewer, for it acts like a charm, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system. MONDAY AND TUESDAY,
February 7th & 8th.
Two Lectures by the world-renowned
ENGLISH ASTRONOMER,
PROFESSOR RICHARD A.
PROCTOR.

SUBJECTS:

Monday—"The Birth and Growth of Worlds."
Tuesday—"The Life and Death of Worlds."
Both Lectures illustrated by a Stereopticon.

To those who have read the works of this eminent man, or heard him speak upon this the grandest of all themes, no word is necessary.

The Boston Post says of him: "The interest in the astronomical lectures of Professor Proctor does not lessen in the smallest degree. On the contrary, there is hardly one of his audience who will not regret to hear the final words of the last discourse of the series. His explanations are so easily understood, and his reasoning is so conclusive, that the clouds of doubt and perplexity which mar the pleasure of the average student disappear, and he is delighted with the harmonious beauty which the universe presents."
