POOR RAILROAD SERVICE.

Sunday News Items From the Busy Burg on South Teton River.

Special Correspondence.
REXBURG, Nov. 28.—Thanksgiving services were held this morning, and were largely attended. A program embracing the best talent of Rexburg had been secured. Harold Goff, of the academic faculty, delivered a most excellent address which was well received. Mrs. Geo. Flaming gave a Thanksgiving reading. The "A's" quartet sang. Household "Mark Twain" and Miss Leslie Jameson recited a Thanksgiving story, and Miss Gladys Bassett sang solo. Bishop Oliver C. Dauby presided, and Nathan Ricks was chaplain.

The Hicks academy held Thanksgiving services yesterday. On account of the sad death of Principal Ezra Dauby's baby Eugene, a gloom was cast over students and teachers. Memorial services were held last Friday morning, at which there were appropriate exercises. All of the faculty spoke expressing their sympathy with the bereaved parents. Resolutions were read by the school and the students, the now-stricken father and mother. The little one was the youngest of the family, being but 20 months old.

The 7-year-old daughter of E. T. Covington, who recently moved here from Ogden, died in this city on Tuesday evening, from diffuse septic peritonitis. The little girl underwent a painful operation about a week ago for appendicitis, but never rallied. Brief funeral services were held at the family residence yesterday afternoon, which was addressed by Bishop O. C. Dauby and Elder El McElroy. A soloist rendered very sweet music. The body was taken on last night's train to Ogden, where it will be interred in the family burial ground.

DEED OF A FIEND.

It is reported that a 12-year-old girl at Sugar City, named Comish, was assaulted yesterday morning, between 6 and 7 o'clock, by some unknown person, supposed to be some member of the mob, on his road to the sugar factory there. As soon as the little girl could get home, she gave a description of the fiend, and the officers think they have the guilty party located.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

A meeting of the First ward missionaries of the First ward was held at the Commercial club on Sunday morning last, presided over by Bishop Oliver C. Dauby. It was decided unanimously to perfect an organization to be known as the Missionaries' association, for the purpose of assisting missionaries to teach labor, and supporting them and their families while engaged in so as to give them a genuine home-coming when released. Another meeting will be held on Friday evening, at which the organization will be perfected. James H. Walls was unanimously elected president.

Godfrey Klingler, one of the pioneer farmers of this section, left on Saturday for a mission to Switzerland.

President Heath is home again from Menden Utah, to which place he was summoned a few days ago because of the precarious condition of his aged father there, he being very low with Bright's disease. It is not expected that he will live long.

Mrs. Dr. L. F. Rich is home again after a very pleasant visit to her relatives in Utah.

Manager Ron Thatcher, of the Ballin & Thatcher Co., of Rexburg, is back from a trip home in Logan, Utah. He is accompanied by his sister, Miss Lou Thatcher, who will visit with her old Logan friends here for a few days.

On the 12th of the coming month the local camp of the Woodmen of the World will give their annual banquet and social in the Commercial club rooms.

There is a universal complaint among the farmers and business men generally throughout this section at the indifference manifested by the U. S. L. officials with regard to the poor passenger accommodations on the branch line. Petition after petition and request after request have been ignored by these officials, and it is to be regretted that the U. S. L. which could have been avoided the people here. It is to be hoped that some attention will be given this matter.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

Misses May and Violet Walls are spending Thanksgiving with their Bear Lake friends, their old home.

Councilman W. C. Holley is all smiles over the advent of a fine baby boy at his home Thursday last.

The criminal charge against John Vorse, the druggist here, for selling Nitro to a minor, has been dismissed by City Attorney Walls, because of the continued absence of the complaining witness.

Elder John P. Parker of Hibbard is home from his mission to the Southern part of the state. North Idaho was nearly all the time he was away, and was one of the two elders on Hibbard's Island at the time the marsh there burst down the Mormon church and their schoolhouse.

Nicholas Newby has commenced bargaining for water on his dry farm.

The winter term of the district court convened in St. Anthony on Monday morning with Judge J. M. Stevens on the bench. The trial is set for Friday. There is a large trial calendar.

James Gilligan has been appointed agent for the Western Loan & Savings Co. in Rexburg, to succeed Deputy Sheriff Miles R. Cahoon, who is also to attend in it.

MISS Lawrence Alma-Tadema.

MISS ALMA-TADEMA HERE TO TELL US HOW TO BE HAPPY.

To preach the gospel of happiness to benighted America Miss Alma-Tadema, the painter, has crossed the seas, the daughter of Sir Lawrence Alma-Tadema, the painter, has crossed the seas.

Miss Alma-Tadema wore a smile of content and a dark brown traveling gown and carried her receipt for the gaiety of nations in a bundle of manuscript. These are not inspirations of the moment, a suggestion of bubbling effervescence, like a cocktail of high spirits, warranted to exhilarate while you wait. They are on the contrary, entirely serious. Happiness is a solid in Miss Tadema's philosophy—the joys wrong from grief, in fact.

"How does one attain happiness?" Miss Tadema repeated in answer to a question. "By self-control, developing one's powers to the utmost. Happiness never comes to a person; it must be sought. It has nothing to do with class or conditions."

the lead. O. C. Dauby was made chairman of the meeting, and Joseph Adams, secretary. The following officers were elected for the first year: President, O. C. Dauby; stage director, George Goff; manager, James H. Walls; treasurer, Arthur E. Clark; and Secretary, George W. Flamm.

Sheriff Samuel Barron is receiving the congratulations of every one for his capture in Tacoma, Washington, of C. E. Loveland, charged with embezzlement. Loveland conducted a tailoring establishment in Rexburg last winter and spring, and skipped out in the night, leaving a number of people to mourn his sudden departure. He first went to Teton Basin, where he had several hundred dollars in checks on different banks, and then skipped off. Sheriff Harrop trailed him down and brought him back. He faced Judge Stevens in the district court on Monday and pleaded guilty to an information charging him with embezzlement.

Joseph G. Camp, the well known southern orator, delivered an excellent address at the Commercial club rooms on Saturday night on "The Truth vs. Shams." The club has gone to much expense to secure some fine attractions, in the interest of great credit. Mr. Camp's lecture showed the excellency of these attractions, and was highly enjoyed.

CASHIER'S CHECKS ISSUED AT SHELLY.

Special Correspondence.

SHELLY, Nov. 28.—This has been one of the finest falls ever known in these parts. No snow or storms of any kind up to the present. Farmers have been able to gather their crops in good shape and had it not been for the stringency in the money market most of their produce would have been marketed, but the market still be closed, until spring.

The bank is issuing cashier's checks, which enables the people to continue doing business, but all hope that normal conditions are not far off.

Thanksgiving was generally observed by the people, all places of business being closed.

At 2 p.m. today the funeral of Mrs. Martha Anderson of A. M. Nielsen, was held from the Letter-day Saints church. Consulting remarks were made by Bishop Christen of Goshen, Elder Soren Yorgenson, President J. P. Shelly and Bishop Joseph Holland. Beautiful selections were rendered by the choir also two solos by Mr. Walker of Idaho Falls. After the services the remains were taken back to the home, to remain until the evening of the 27th, when the services will be rendered by Hyrum, Utah, where interment will take place. The family and many friends will accompany the remains to Hyrum, where funeral services will be held Friday at 3 p.m.

A successful operation was performed by Dr. Edwin Cather, assisted by his brother, Dr. C. C. of Preston, on the person of Miss Celia of Goshen. The stentor, the oldest fine, this being the third day since, and she is doing as well as it is possible for her to do.
