

DESERET EVENING NEWS

The Semi-Weekly News.

Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Misses Beatrice Buckle and Catharine Cullen have issued invitations for a Halloween party this evening.

Helen Youngberg, aged 7, of 125 Fuller avenue, fell from the front porch of the family home on Saturday, and broke her arm.

M. P. Rockwood's new dance hall at Centerville has been completed, and will be opened Friday night, Nov. 4, with a free dance, to which the public is invited.

Mont Fisher, Glen Waterman and Oliver Goodwin will be initiated into the Delphi mysteries of the Lilly club this evening, at the rooms in the Auburn club.

J. A. Cunningham is being well cared for at the Hotel Lido, El Paso, Tex., and is recovering from typhoid fever. His son Alma is up from the republic to care for the patient.

There are many coyotes in the hills to the north and east of the city, and their howling may be heard every night as they come down for forays on chicken yards and garbage cans.

Word has been received by the Salt Lake officers of the Studebaker Manufacturing company, that the company had received a grand prize at the world's fair for its goods.

Director General Whitaker wives Hoyt Sherman that Utah has taken two more medals at the world's fair. Mr. Whitaker has arranged for the disposal of the state building furniture when the fair ends.

Fish and Game Commissioner John Sharp has been out on the nights and ponds watching for violations of the law, but so far finds that hunters are, as far as can be seen, minded to keep within legal limits.

Contractors report a scarcity of buff brick in the Salt Lake market, owing to the fact that local brick burners have been unfortunate in getting the suitable color; so that recourse has been had to Provo manufacturers.

Dr. Lorenzo W. Snow has been chosen vice president of the Jefferson Medical college Alumni association for the ensuing year. The doctor graduated from the Utah University in 1882, and from the medical college in Philadelphia in 1888.

Prof. Bicknell Young, whose Salt Lake friends know him best as R. S. Young, the horticulturist, will be in Salt Lake on Nov. 13, and will lecture at the Theater on Christian Science. Mr. Young has given up music entirely for the lecture platform.

J. Richardson, a Light and Railway employee, caught his right little finger in the machinery Saturday afternoon, and so mangled the member that it had to be amputated. Leonard Compton, also an employee, while cutting wood at the railway barn badly slashed his instep with an axe.

Rector P. J. Darnelle of St. Peter's church, Carson City, is in the city and preached last night in St. Mark's cathedral, from the text, "On this rock will I build my church," etc. His theme was unity of Christian people, and said that the church was in its broadest sense composed of all Christian people, without particular regard to sect or denominational doctrine. Rector Darnelle is en route home from attendance on the Boston convention.

Tonight the wise will hold onto their buttons and the prudent will remove their gaiters and place them securely in the family closet to await the passing of the ancient and not always honorable night of Halloween. Tomorrow those who were young once will repair their damaged faces, and put the wither bridge back across the ditch, with a smile for young days of vandalistic freedom, while those who were always old will frown upon the youngsters and breathe vengeance on the spirit of which runs rampant in them.

The Unity club holds its next regular meeting this evening, Oct. 31. The entire evening will be occupied by Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. L. C. Kelsey and Miss Grace Dale Davis, who will present "In a Balcany." Much interest has been expressed in regard to this presentation and a large number of friends have been invited to hear it with the club. Answering the desire of many persons wishing to attend separate evenings, single admission tickets have been issued good for any club evening of the season. These tickets may be secured at the regular meetings of the club.

A runaway horse dashed into this dispersing congregation of worshippers from the fourteenth ward meeting-house early last evening, and Mrs. A. N. Peterson of 43 south First street and Mrs. Christina Sorenson of 23 west First street were injured. Mrs. Peterson's left hip was badly bruised and left arm broken, while the other woman was injured internally in addition to being badly bruised after being caught in the rig and dragged a short distance. The horse belonged to Lee Beckstead of 294 Thirtieth east street.

Said the eminent writer, John G. Saxe: "Hires as this is pleasant-riding on a rail." He referred to the excellent trains of the Erie Railroad where comfort and speed are combined. And then the scenery is certainly charming. Have you seen it in the autumn months, when the leaves are turning red and yellow and golden brown? If you go East, hear it in mind. Three daily trains Chicago to New York, 11:55 a. m., 6:30 p. m., and 9:20 p. m. No change of cars.

SEELY'S SHEEP WIN.

Mount Pleasant Man's Thoroughbreds Bring Him World's Fair Honors.

Mr. Pleasant's Pyramid: John H. Seely's bunch of thoroughbred Rambouillet sheep reached home from their world's fair trip last night. Sixteen ribbons were won by them at the exposition, one first, five second, and others. The sheep, with one exception, were all natives of Mt. Pleasant. The sheep were not properly handled after they left this city and persons acquainted with them who saw them on the fair grounds say they were far below their normal appearance when judged. However, Mr. Seely is satisfied with the showing made. It is a great distinction to have one's stock judged the best in the world in such a contest, and Mr. Seely, his town, county and state, ought to feel satisfied and proud of such an achievement.

Mr. Seely shipped another carload of his sheep to New Mexico this week. This bunch makes about 800 he has sold this year, which took about all he has. It seems strange that out of the entire 800 only 50 have been sold in this state. They have all brought top prices, where they have been sold.

MONEY IN LUCERN SEED.

Alfalfa Good as Gold Mine to the People of Emery County.

Emery County Progress: Seed buyers have placed a sum of money on deposit at Emery to buy every pound of lucern seed raised at that place this year, offering 8 cents at present, or more if any other buyer will beat this figure. Some lucern is threshing as high as 10 and 11 bushels to the acre, and some farmers have grown as much as 200 and 300 bushels. At 8 cents a pound, lucern seed is now worth $6.40 a bushel, there and some individual growers will take in close to $2,000 for this crop alone this season. The success of the Emery people in this one product is causing other people in Emery county to open their eyes a bit.

How to Cure Corns and Bunions. First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by all druggists.

SUNDAY FUNERALS.

Gertrude Marie Jaspersen and Norman Moncrieff Laid to Rest.

Solemnly impressive were the services held yesterday afternoon over the remains of little Gertrude Marie Jaspersen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Jaspersen of the Fifth ward. The obsequies occurred in the ward meeting-house. Bishop S. M. T. Seddon presiding, and the ward choir and members of the local musical fraternity, in which Mr. Jaspersen is quite prominent, furnished the music. As an opening hymn to the choir sang, "Gloria, ye fond parents, cease to weep." Prayer was offered by Elder William A. Cowan. The choir further sang, "Though deepening trials through your way." The speakers were Elders S. H. Harrow, Joshua Midgley, George E. Gibbs, George E. Burbridge and Bishop Seddon, all of whom spoke words of comfort and consolation to the bereaved, and referred to the lovable disposition and gentle character of the deceased. During the services Miss Sigrid Pedersen rendered with much feeling, "The Day is Ended," and members of the State Band and Theater orchestra played several selections. The closing hymn was, "Unveil Thy Bosom," and the benediction was pronounced by Elder Alex. Buchanan, Jr. There was a splendid attendance and many beautiful floral emblems. Interment was in the city cemetery.

VALTON M. PRATT
SUED FOR DIVORCE.

Wife Makes Some Decidedly Unpleasant Charges Against Her Inhuman Husband.

HEARTLESS ACTS OF SPOUSE.

Left Wife Sick and Suffering to Apply To County Commissioners for Charitable Aid.

Cruelty, desertion and failure to support are the grounds for divorce set out in a complaint filed in the district court by Zina E. Jenkins Pratt against Valton M. Pratt. It is alleged that the parties were married in this city on June 26, 1895, and that defendant deserted his wife on March 18, 1903, and has failed to provide for her and their three children for several years and has compelled them to apply to the county commissioners for assistance.

It is alleged that defendant has frequently used vile and abusive language towards his wife and has expressed the desire to get rid of her. In July, 1899, when plaintiff was very sick she asked him to send for a doctor. He promised to do so but instead he went up town and purchased some medicine himself without consulting a physician and gave it to plaintiff, causing her to grow much worse and had one child to take the medicine she claims that it would have killed her.

When she was ill again in July, 1900, she claims that he left her alone without medicine or food for two days, after having cursed her in a cruel manner. In March, 1901, she alleges that he struck her a violent blow with his fist and cursed her. Again in June of the same year just after the birth of their child she says that he threw her violently back on the bed and cruelly abused her.

She asks that she be awarded the custody of the three children, $35 per month as alimony and $75 as attorney's fees.

SUED FOR DAMAGES.

Federal Building Contractors Are Made Defendants in Action.

Georgia A. Kendall and her infant daughter, Mary C. Kendall, by her guardian Alvin B. Kendall, have filed two damage suits in the district court against the Campbell Building company for personal injuries received by them on Sept. 2, when they were crushed by the falling of the fence in front of the federal building. Mrs. Kendall asks judgment for $5,000 and her daughter asks judgment for $1,000. The defendant company has charge of the construction of the new federal building and as the city has disclaimed any responsibility for the accident the suits have been filed against the company.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Lewis has granted Mary A. Colburn a divorce from Thomas Colburn on the ground of desertion. They were married in this city on Jan. 4, 1893.

W. S. McCormick has filed suit in the district court against Dan Reber to recover $7,319 and interest alleged to be due on a promissory note and also $100 as attorney's fees.

Suit for divorce has been filed in the district court by Robert M. Wilkinson against Theresa M. Wilkinson, on the ground of desertion. It is alleged that the parties were married in this city on Aug. 23, 1898, and ever since Sept. 21, 1900, defendant has deserted plaintiff, and has been "keeping company" with one J. L. Brady.

Suit has been filed in the district court by James E. Beveridge against A. J. Orem and Walter C. Orem to recover $5,000 alleged to be due as commission for the sale of the Trade Dollar group of claims in Idaho by defendants to the Trade Dollar company. It is alleged that defendants agreed to pay him that amount for his services in making the sale.

C. B. Farman was brought before Judge Lewis in the criminal division of the district court Saturday and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of embezzlement and was sentenced to one year in the state prison. Farman, on July 1, embezzled $90.00 of the funds of the Cooks and Walters' Alliance of this city. He entered a plea of not guilty several days ago, but today withdrew that plea and pleaded guilty.

Could Not Be Better.
The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Chicago, who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by all druggists.
