

MEETING HOUSE FINISHED.

The second in Indian Territory—Mesa of Mesas.

Mesa of Mesas.
Chapman Indian Indian Territory, Sept. 28th, 1894.

President Andrew Smith.
Dear Brother—As you desired to your last letter that we notify you of the completion of our Mesa house of worship, it is with the greatest pleasure that we now tell you the information that the same is completed and now stands out in bold relief, a credit to the Indian mission, and a monument which covers the hearts of the Latter-day Saints in this Indian Territory.

When work was first commenced by us upon this building the same by which to bring about its completion had indeed been a mountain, but through the faith and work of those men in the completion of our second house of worship in this Indian Territory.

Every one who passes along the highway will be admiring it as well as wonder, upon our little mission house. Not only is it a credit to the work of the Indian mission, but it is the first thing that greets the eye in the Indian Territory, and it is a credit to the Latter-day Saints in this Indian Territory.

On Sunday, the 28th inst., we held a meeting at our new building for the first time. After singing songs, prayer, and reading of the scriptures, Elder James H. Hunt spoke and exhorted the congregation upon the Gospel of the Latter-day Saints and the eternal blessings to be enjoyed by them.

Elder Richard G. Winter then bore his testimony to the validity of the Latter-day work, having witnessed many signs and wonders.

Elder H. E. Campbell next spoke upon the blessings to be gained for every Christian who is faithful to the teachings of the Kingdom of God.

Elder E. A. Simmons then spoke upon the speaking by inspiration, and the power of the Holy Spirit, in which he is engaged as a missionary.
A good spirit existed throughout the whole meeting, and all departed to their homes in peace.

Next Saturday and Sunday being our conference, we expect to fill your desire in dedicating our new house to the Lord, and thereby add to the Indian Territory mission a step towards the fulfillment of the cause of truth.

Trusting this will find you, together with your wife and family, in the enjoyment of health, peace and prosperity, and ever praying the blessing of the Lord to attend you all, we remain, very respectfully, your faithful servants in the Gospel of Christ.

By H. E. C.
To the foregoing letter Elder Andrew Smith appended the following:
Dear Brother: Dear

All the Elders laboring in the mission among the Indians have been assisted with gifts, contributions, towards the house, aggregating $700.00, and $200 in labor, total $900.00. Some cash and labor have been received by the Elders. Elder E. A. Simmons and the traveling Elders under the direction of Elder James Hunt have done all the work.

First Ward Y. M. M. I. A.

Last evening the Y. M. M. I. A. association of the First ward effected a reorganization by the election of the following officers: George B. Hill, president; William T. Jack and M. E.
Kane, counselors; Jacob Melchior, secretary; John Midway, treasurer; and Don C. W. Mueser, historian.
The organization starts out with bright prospects for the coming year's work.

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah, - Sept. 28, 1894.

Alleged Illegal Assesment.

In the Fourth judicial court, before Judge King, there has been considered the suit of J. C. Armstrong vs. Ogden City. It is sought to have the assessment of taxes for the year of 1893 set aside on the ground that the city will occupy the suit a number of days.

Sales.

There has been a lot of real estate sold in Ogden. A very large quantity of the real estate is being sold in Ogden this season.
