DESERTION AND NON-SUPPORT

Rather Oniet Recital of Marital Un rest at Regular Friday Matinee Of Divorce Court.

Three divorces were granted by Judge Morse in the district court yesterday afternoon, in each instance the decree going to wives who sought legal separation, two for non-support and one for desertion.

What might have been a lively pro eeding had it come to trial on the original complaint was the case of Mabelle C. Gustaveson against D. H. Gustaveson. However, a modified complaint was filed yesterday by the plaintiff, by consent of defendant, and the hearing was brief and without sensational feature. A simple assertion of non-support supplanted the sensational charges of cruelty that Mrs. Gustaveson made against her husband, and the counter charges made by Mr. Gustave-son against his wife no longer figured in the case. The divorce was granted and it was left to the parties to the and it was left to the parties to the suit to arrange the matter of alimony and attorneys' fees. Upon the allegation, sufficiently proved, that her husband deserted her nine years ago, Emma Smith was granted a divorce from Haydn Smith. The couple married in England 45 years ago. Protest From Tooele-The woll growers of Toole county are strongly protesting against the proposed es-tablishment of a forest reserve in the Cedar Mountain country in the Toole desert, which was asked for by Grantsville citizens in an application ad-dressed to Senator Reed Smoot. The growers say that the land in question is not adapted to forest purpose and that its segregation as such would deny grazing to 200,000 sheep.

Idaho Growers With Utah-That Idaho growers are co-operating with the Utah association plans is evi-denced from a communication re-ceived yesterday from Adrian Grimane of Blackfoot, Mr. Grimane stated that of Blackfoot, MF, Grinane stated that he had a carload of wool ready to ship under the association's eastern storage plan. The officials of the Utah association' of wool growers were much pleased to learn that the plan is meeting with favor in other states.
