FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS
CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 22.—The President presented the Secretary of the Treasury's answer to a resolution regarding the method of the revenue service in subtracting tare on foreign sugars imported in boxes.
Forty-four per cent. is allowed in such cases, but importers may insist on actual tare.

The bill passed extending the northern boundary of Nebraska so as to include the present Territory of Dakota south of the 43rd parallel, east of Keyapada River and west of the main channel of the Missouri River, where the Indian titles are extinguished.

The bill on Presidential electoral counts was discussed.
Morgan argued for harmony. Let the Houses meet as judges.
Conkling said the bill accomplished nothing.

Morgan intimated the Republicans opposed the resolution from a desire to have the President control the count indirectly.

Conkling humorously assured Morgan, and Thurman (who was making side remarks) that their proposals for the President were a dissolving view; that the President would be elected by the people next time, and therefore he looked upon this legislation with much greater pleasure than he otherwise would.

Morgan said four years ago were said to have been put in position to bear upon this capital to control the counting of electoral votes.
Conkling said he had never heard that, and declared it was vapory talk. This resolution was merely a temporary expedient. Conkling expressed the hope that the President would be the democratic candidate for president. The count contemplated by this measure was to be made by these two houses, both democratic, but the movers were aware that the next houses might be republican and were resolved only to make sure of the present opportunity to test a temporary thing. It should be a law and not a joint rule which should regulate this question.

Morgan said that Morton favored this rule and had proposed it as a law, but instead, the two houses had adopted the joint rule, and had three courts under it, and they alleged the rule when they gave the count would be democratic. He affirmed that the republicans were determined to quarrel with any rule whatever. The democrats had done their duty and would submit to the approval of the people. He alluded to the threat of Conkling that New York (which he said went and came like a locomotive at the bidding of her manager, Conkling) would withdraw her votes in the usual way, and said New York was dreading all over the land.

Adjourning.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 22.—There was much confusion over the consideration of the public buildings bill, and when the vote was taken, the result was made a point was raised, "no quorum." Finally the House decided 146 to 40 to go into committee. The House considered the committee reports from committee on public buildings.

Cook, from the committee on public buildings, said his committee had a minority bill for public buildings, involving an appropriation of $15,000, and had reported thirty-three, involving $3,000,000. There was considerable discussion about the economy of renting buildings for government use.

The committee also after finding it impossible to transact business on account of no quorum.

After some filibustering, the purpose of which was not apparent, adjourning.

AMERICAN

WASHINGTON, 22.—The action of the Illinois and Alabama Conventions adding 62 votes to the Grant column, has caused a great deal of speculation as to the result of the election. It is commonly believed that a "bulge" for the ex-president, and the fact that this feeling has been in the air during the past week preceding the meeting of the National Convention is considered to be decidedly advantageous to Grant.

It is apparent that a great many Congressmen who ten days ago did not think that Grant could be nominated, have since the action of the Illinois convention reconsidered their conclusion and now freely admit that it will require a combination of unexpected circumstances to defeat him. The most prominent friends of the candidacy of Blaine and Sherman do not, however, despair of still achieving success for their respective candidates. Sherman's friends stoutly deny the rumor that he is now desirous of obtaining the nominations on the platform. One of his managers to-day denounced the rumor as grossly untrue, and asked that Secretary Sherman is not a candidate for the second place with him, but is, in fact, a supporter of Grant.

William H. Chandler, who was in this city last night, said that Grant cannot and will not be nominated, and the theory of the Blaine men, all of whom think as Chandler does, is that Grant will not succeed on the first ballot and after that there will be a general breakup, when Blaine may run in.
There is one fact apparent, that is, by securing the bulk of Grant delegates at the second choice. The majority of both think that the delegates instructed for Grant will not stand by the unit rule, and in such event Grant will lose twenty per cent. at least of his estimated vote on the first ballot. The Grant men pool pool this, and while some little defection is conceded by them to the Blaine men, they claim with confidence that they will not be serious enough to defeat Grant's triumph on the first ballot.
Again, some of the Grant leaders believe that if the unit rule is broken Grant will draw away from Blaine as many votes as Blaine will draw from Grant. Notwithstanding the confidence of the Grant men they are still active and alert, and do not propose to lose any points by over-confidence.

Senators Cameron and Conkling will be in Chicago early next week.
Gen. Logan is already there, and several other republican Senators will also start for Chicago during the next four days, all of whom are for Grant. Geo. C. Gorham leaves Washington for Chicago to-morrow night, several days in advance of the meeting of the Convention. There will be a large force of influential and influential managers on the ground, laying the wires and looking after details.

There has been some intimation that Blaine would go to Chicago to work his wires. Nothing is better known than that the comparative weakness and inefficiency of Blaine's managers at Cincinnati was the cause of his not receiving the nomination in 1876, and nothing is better known now than that the men who will have charge of his interests in Chicago will be lamentably inferior in point of manipulating power to those of his managers.
Blaine is conscious of this himself, yet with all his remarkable boldness in forming and pursuing his own policy, he has not been able to manage his own affairs. Nothing is more certain than that he will be the first presidential candidate to set the example of personal attendance at a national convention in his own interests.

The democratic situation does not attract so much interest even among democrats as does the Chicago fight.
It is not denied by the long-headed democrats that Tilden is making a good deal of headway, and the fear of a defeat in the hands of many that he is to be the source of very serious trouble to Cincinnati.

Thanks from Great Britain.

The British Minister here, under secretary of state, received to-day the Government of the United States sincere and cordial thanks of Her Majesty's Government for the generous and friendly conduct in having dispatched the United States ship Constellation loaded with provisions, which were so much needed for the relief of distressed subjects in Ireland and which besides substantial to them, have been accepted by all Her Majesty's subjects as a proof of friendly feelings entertained towards them by the citizens and government of the United States.

National Greenbacks.

Although the National Greenback Convention is to be held in Chicago on the 9th of June, there is but little interest attached to it. It is said that if Gen. Grant is elected, the Gen. Butler will support him. In view of this report, Butler's nomination by the Greenbackers, which of one thing is certain, is a serious contestation, no longer appears probable.

California Progress.

PHILADELPHIA, 22.—The subcommittee on coinage, weights and measures visited the Philadelphia mint yesterday, and at a colloquy subsequently given by the Board of Trade, Davis, of California, spoke as follows:

"When all the rest of the country was forced to paper currency, California adhered to her currency of gold and silver. The people there were always a large number of at that time interested themselves in examining the coins that came from other places and they found a great deal of difference in the another and an "O" upon still another. These they recognized as coming from the mints at Charlotte, Dahlgren and New Orleans. But there was a large number of coins which bore no letter. These were from the oldest of the sisterhood of mints and they needed no distinguishing mark. They also showed the daughter of the family is Miss Smith and not Miss Charlotte. It turns out, however, that one of the junior sisters, she at San Francisco, has a great large number of coins, and among them the oldest sister has, and I am in favor of placing the latter upon at least as high a level as the more favored daughter on the Pacific. Referring to a comparison between the mineral wealth and agricultural wealth of California, Davis said the wheat crop alone of that State, leaving out barley, oats and all other products of the farm, is now greater in value than the production of precious metals. This is the second stage of California's progress and she has entered upon the third, which, as he believes, the State has upon the subject of "Protection," and it may be set down with reasonable certainty that California's voice hereafter will be in favor of the free trade policy. He concluded with his remarks, and especially at the conclusion, he was greeted with frequent demonstrations of applause."

E. E. Conference.

CINCINNATI, 22.—There was a stormy and exciting session of the E. E. Conference to-day. Dr.
Evans, of Colorado, moved a substitute for the majority report on the book concern which recommended a consolidation of the two southern societies. Dr. Kynett, of Iowa, moved to table the minority report. Gillet, layman from Illinois, moved to have the vote by separate orders and was sustained. After the greatest confusion and many points of order, the minority vote resulted in favor of tabling Dr. Evans' report 131 to 93.
The majority report was adopted 100 to 35. The two orders were then carried, the report was not tabled and the conference adjourned.

More About the Race.

Captain George N. Stone has today sent the following telegram to E. A. Buck, editor of the Spirit of the Times, New York, in reply to his letter of the 19th inst. in which he proposed a match between Maude S. and Santa Claus:

CINCINNATI, May 22, 1880.
To E. A. Buck, New York:

I do not believe even the appearance of a hippodrome, I make my second proposition $20,000 and $10,000 a side. Will you let Col. Finney $1,000 for expense.

(Signed) GEO. N. STONE.

The second proposition referred to was a single race, mile heats, best three in five, over a track to be mutually agreed upon for $5,000, $5,000 a side.

Heavy Rain.

COLUMBUS, 22.—From Friday at 9 a. m. to Saturday at 5 a. m. 9.92-100 inches of rain fell, eight and one-half inches falling in ten hours. All the railroads are broken up.
The through freight and accommodation train from Macon to Mo-gomery last night ran into Scho-bay creek on the Southwestern road, nine miles east of this city. Engineer John I. Wade, from Macon, and Joseph L. Brown were killed.
They were while en route from Macon. The engine and eleven cars were wrecked. The Grand Creek bridge was washed away. The lowlands are submerged and all crops damaged; cotton will be replanted.

The river rose fifteen feet in two hours.

Of for the Pole.

SAN FRANCISCO, 22.—Captain Hopper of the Arctic relief cutter Thetis, received his sailing instructions from Washington this morning, and was accompanied outside the Heads by the revenue steamer Richard Rush.

Treasure for China.

The steamer Gaelic sailed to-day for Hong Kong via Yokohama with the following treasure list: Silver bars, $27,000; Mexican dollars, $15-500; gold coin, $30,400.

A Complaint from Blaine Men.

CHICAGO, 22.—Hon. C. B. Farwell, manager of the Blaine forces in the State campaign, will to-morrow publish a card setting forth that after packing the convention, and overriding the will of the people bolting his own delegation, counting out and opposing the whole district, Logan secured the pliable majority of 39 in the State convention for Grant. Had the Chicago delegation been admitted, the majority against Grant would have been 58. He compares Logan to Garcelon, and declares he will uphold the majority of the people and the majority of the people.

Shipping Business.

NEW YORK, 22.—The World says: Business at the Mining Stock Exchange to-day was duller than for some time past, the sales amounting only to 32,942 shares, against 70-150 yesterday and 89,975 the day before. The opening prices were generally lower, but the market has been steady at the decline, and a few stocks closed at higher figures than the opening.

Propeller Burned.

PORT HURON, 22.—The Northern Transportation Company's propeller burned to-day in the water's edge this morning. The cargo and hull are both insured; amounts unknown.

Murder and Arson.

LOCKHAVEN, 22.—The residence of Mrs. Baker Friedler burned this morning. Her remains were found in the ruins. There are suspicions of murder, robbery and arson.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Foreign Notes.

LONDON, 22.—The following is Boswell's letter to the Times denying that he uttered the speech attributed to him in the reports of the conservative meeting on the 19th inst. The liberty of the press is the most precious privilege of Englishmen, and therefore it is to their interest that it should not be abused. I never have been apt to complain of reports of anything I said, and which convey in every circumstance the truth, and which contained inaccuracies which pressure or even some little malice might occasion or inspire, but when an elaborate and malicious report is placed in my mouth, as was done in the report of the proceedings of the meet-
