BLACK FLAG OF TRUSTISM. Says White House is Already the Palacc of a King and the Campaign

A Family Affair.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 8 .- Henry Watterson presided and was the principal speaker at a Democratic rally in th Masonic theater here tonight. As this was Mr. Watterson's first political speech since 1892, and will probably be his only platform utterance during the present campaign, much interest was manifested. Former United States Senator William Lindsay and Congress-man Shirley also spoke. Mr. Watterman Shirley also spoke. Air. Watter-son said, in part: "I truly recognize that I have lived to look upon a reunited Democracy. I was born in a Democratic camp during what proved a bad year for Democrats, and I attained my majority just in time to see the party go over the precipice of sectionalism to what seemed its ruin. "The politicians tell that there are many issues, but I see only one. If we exhot change our rulers at will, if an organized and defiant minority inside a fortress can withstand the slege of an undisciplined and ill equipped majority on the outside, how shall the attacks of trusts and tariffs and talks about robates and bank deposits, about money and morals and stocks and bonds profit us?

of trusts and thrifs and tarks about money and morals and stocks and bonds profit us?
"I behold now an almost exact reproduction of the evil conditions of 50 years ago. The Republican party, srown cortupt and arrogant, is putting forth a tremendous effort to retain the power which it has so abused. If it succeeds, it will never surrender it short of some dire cataclysm, making it sexit the signal for, it may be, a civil war. To that end its policies of millitarsm, favoritism and class distinction long have been tending and approaching a new conflict between capital and abor. I pray God that this may never sional change of party, bringing home to be people.
"If were a Republican, I would vote for Bryan. If I were a Republican, I would turn my back upon a candidate, no matter how acceptable, who is the viceous methods of ring rary ever possessed, it has for the steam roller.
"Whatever usefulness the Republican fue outlived. It stands today a meny matry and the steam roller.
"Branck FLAG OF TRUSTISM.

BLACK FLAG OF TRUSTISM.

"They expected to draw us into this bloody ambuscade and to slaughter us like sheep in the shambles. Disappointed in their plan, what do we see now? We see all decency thrown aside; the black flag of trustism run up to the masthead; the decks crowded with corporation counsel. The occupant of the White House summons the unspeak-able Hearst as his star witness. The of reform, with Aldrich and Cannon, with Payne and Dalzell and "Sunny Jin" Sherman for their examples. "Having pitched the campaign on a false note, starting out with a man of straw on a platform of imposture, no argument is too absurd, no illustration is too rank for the men and the inter-ests that do not mean to be dislodged if fraud and force can save them. "Nicholas Longworth, the president's son-in-law, says he did not say it. But 5,000 listeners say he did. The notes of two stenographers say he did. What boots it whether he did or not? One who knows what is going on in the na-tion, and has been going on for a long time, needs not to be told that they are undermining the popular foundations of our democratic government and converting it into an imperial republic, with nothing wanting of monarchism and titular nobilty except the nomen-clature.

"The White House is already the pal-ace of a king. The president is alace of a king. The president is "ready a sovereign in everything except the name. Why should not a member of the court circle blurt it out that Taft is expected merely to hold down the job for Roosevelt, since it was thought premature to run Roosevelt for the immediate succession?

A FAMILY AFFAIR.

"The campaign was and is a family aftair. If the machine which noninat-ed Taft was so merciless toward the Republican allies who dared to resist it, why should it be counted on to share our free institutions after eight additional years of moneyed accretion and augmented power. Only this can account for the personal interposition of the president, who throws dignity to the winds and gets down like a mata-dor into the bull ring, mud-stained and powder-smirched, swearing like a trooper at all who come within the sound of his voice and the reach of his inflamed fancy."

WYOMING IN COMMISSION.

Mare Island Navy Yard, Cal., Oct. 9, —The monitor Wyoming was placed in commission at the navy-yard yesterday after having been gut of service for three years, during which time oil burning furnaces have been installed. Commander J. J. Knapp is in command of the vessel. Important tests will be made with the Wyoming to determine the advisability of installing oil burn-ing furnaces on the large ships of the navy. navy

This city has many such cases, according to Post-master Thomas, and this is but one of many such inquiries, which, with its note of pathos, causes one to wonder why so many people neglect to keep their anxious relatives informed of their whereabouts, when just a line now and then would raise some poor mother from the depths of despair to the heights of contentment. ## A NEW NATIONAL HYMN.

New York, Oct. 9.—Prof. William Mil-ligan Sloane of Columbia university, who is president of the national insti-tute of arts and letters, has suggested that the institute should bend its enerthat the institute should bend its ener-gies to the production of a rousing ma-tional song that will combine "Yankee Foodle," "The Star Spängled Banner," "Marseillaise," and "Die Wacht am Ichein," into one patriotic hymn. Pief. Sloane is sure that the need of the American people for a good ma-tional anthem will soon be supplied by the institute. It will be discussed fully at the next meeting in November and it is likely that a prize will be of-feree for the national hymn of the fu-ture. As yet the subject has not been taken up officially by the institute but Dr. Sloane has sounded the feelings of his fellow members of the society and tound that their opinions coincide with them.

When the board convened, J. W. Lat-imer, counsel for Col. Stewart, pro-ceeded to cross-question Col. Arthur and Maj. Edie, regarding their report as the medical experts of the board, on the condition of Col. Stewart's health. Both of them, who are members of the retiring board, stated that Col. Stewart is afflicted with heart disease to such an extent that any over-exertion might result disastrously to him. The fact was brought out that Mr. Stewart has been a victim of heart disease for 35 years and reference was made to a document on file in the war depart-ment showing that as early as 1877 he had requested to be excused from parhad requested to be excused from par-ticipation in an Indian expedition be-cause of an attack of his heart and present condition of health, and the board sustained his objection. Col. Stewart's attorney presented a dist of 13 witnesses, all but one of whom are fellow officers, medical and other, wise, of the army. And he asked to have all of them summoned. The board sharply refused the requests except as to Dr. Sprigg, a civilian physician re-siding in this city, who made an exam-ination of Col. Stewart's health. The board announced its willingness to hear Dr. Sprigg in case he should voluntarly appear but that he would not be summoned by the board. Two of the witnesses whom Col. Stewart asked to have ordered to Washington were Lieut. R. M. Bar-ton, of the Fifth cavalry, and Chaplain Chase of the same regiment, both of whom took horseback rides with Col. Stewart last September. Col. Latimer said that both would say that his cilent had shown no ill effect from these rides. rides.

COLD WEATHER ADVICE.

Whitney's History of Utah at Half Price. ECZEMA AFFLICTS

The Deseret News takes pleasure in announcing that it has secured the sole rights to the HISTORY OF UTAH, by Orson F. Whitney, originally published by the George Q. Cannon & Sons Co.

This work, which was begun in 1890, and printed in three large volumes (the fourth volume issued being biographical, and not a part of the direct history of Utah), is one of the largest and most exhaustive histories ever compiled of any western state. The three volumes bring the history of the state from the foundation down to the year 1890, at the time of the issuance of the manifesto, and includes the history of the Church from its organization in New York. The first ten chapters are devoted to this subject.

In the three volumes are included 235 full page steel plates, mostly portraits of leading figures in the history of the State, originally obtained at a cost of many thousand dollars. The volumes each contain approximately 800 pages, a total of 2,351 pages in the three. The binding is quarto size, full morocco with gilt edges, no other style of binding being issued.

The three volumes were originally sold at $30.00, and several thousand sets were placed throughout the state at that figure. The "News" having obtained the unsold copies of the edition, will place them on the market at the coming October Conference and sell to the first comers at HALF THE ORIGINAL PRICE, OR $15.00 FOR THE THREE VOLUMES. No single volumes will be sold. Without doubt many fibraries throughout the country will avail themselves of this rare opportunity, and Utah people who desire to add this work to their libraries are urged to call at the Deseret News book store and inspect the work during Conference.

The low price at which this rare work is offered will undoubtedly exhaust the edition in a short time. The work will then be our or PRINT, so that every book-lover should avail himself of this last chance.

The original subscribers, who already have the first three volumes of the History of Utah are entitled to the fourth volume (containing individual biographies) free, by addressing George Q. Cannon & Sons Association.

The "News" has no interest in the fourth volume, the work being complete as above stated, in the three volumes, now offered at $15.00.
