

DISASTROUS WRECK.

The Result of a Strike on the Chicago and Northwestern.

TELEGRAPHS QUIT WORK.

Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Property Lost and the Whole Line Blocked.

Chicago, May 23.—The strike of telegraphers on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, which went into effect this morning, has resulted in a disastrous wreck, involving the loss of many thousands of dollars and the blocking of the entire division.

It was just 4 a.m. when every operator on the line north of Evanston failed to answer to signals from the south. The officials at once gave orders to stop the trains, and in a few minutes the entire line was blocked.

A heavy freight train came from the north, loaded with hay and lumber. When it reached the blocked line, the engineer, seeing that all right, but nevertheless struck an open switch, pulling the engine off the track and sending the train into a ditch.

The number of men out of work all the way from Chicago to the north is estimated at twenty-five, and the loss to the company, it is estimated, at five hundred, according to the officials.

A general order, issued by Chief of the Chicago and Northwestern, states that it will affect about 500 men on the line, and that the loss to the company will be about $500,000.

The wreck at North Evanston blocked business until noon. Suburban passengers were greatly delayed. Through trains had to be brought around by another route.

Chief of the Chicago and Northwestern says that the order to quit work was issued by the union, and that the order to quit was issued by the union, and that the order to quit was issued by the union.

A Shock Close to Home. ELKHART, N. Y., May 23.—Elkhart bank closed its doors this morning as a result of the recent financial troubles. Colonel D. C. Robinson, bank examiner, said that the bank was solvent in case Col. Robinson paid his liabilities. If not, the depositors would be paid in full, and the bank would be a small loss to the stockholders.

DAMAGED STORE. Houses Cracked and Trees Uprooted in Louisville. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 23.—Early this morning a storm of rain and wind struck this city, doing much damage. It first struck the Louisville and Nashville, and then sweeping through the city, it did considerable damage. As a result of the storm, several houses were cracked, and many trees were uprooted. The streets were filled with wreckage of roofs, and considerable amounts of damage were done in the squares bounded by Campbell, Hancock, Broadway and other streets. Several of the injured received are serious.

Buried in the Ruins. CHICAGO, May 23.—Union building, until recently occupied by the Associated Press, and the Oriental building, adjoining it, are being demolished. This morning just after a large force of men had been working on them, one of the walls of the Oriental building went down with a crash, burying five men in the ruins. One unknown man was killed, and others were more or less seriously hurt.

In the Hands of a Receiver. Bismarck, Ga., May 23.—The wholesale grocery store of May and Ullman is placed in the hands of a temporary receiver; the liabilities are $250,000. Ullman sustained last week.

A System of Waterworks. CHICKEN, Wyo., May 23.—The city council at the last meeting authorized the issue of $75,000 bonds to build a system of water works in the city. The special election to vote upon the proposition will be held the 6th of next month.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH. An aged Kentuckian Falls a Distance of Nine Feet. Special Dispatch to the News. HARRISBURG, Wyo., May 23.—Judge N. B. Smith, aged 73 years, was seriously injured yesterday by falling from a ladder a distance of nine feet. He was making some repairs to his residence. He fell heavily, sustaining internal injuries which rendered him unconscious for several hours. He will recover.

Slashed by a Wolf. WAYCROSS, Ga., May 23.—Near Highland, yesterday afternoon, Ed Mervel, who murdered J. J. Brown and another negro, whose names were taken from jail and hanged by a mob, was slashed by a wolf.

WORK FOR MEN. The Force in Back Creek Pines Mines to be Doubled. Special Dispatch to the News. LANDER, Wyo., May 23.—Emile Granier, the well-known mining man, will double the force of men employed in his placer mines on Back Creek in the south fork country. Mr. Granier has been in France for some

THE RESULT OF THE FAIR.

The National Commission Considering the Fair at Chicago.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The National Commission Considering the Fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—The National Commission considering the fair at Chicago, held its meeting this morning. The commission is considering the fair at Chicago, and the commission is considering the fair at Chicago.

A CONTINGENT FEE.

Singular Episode in the Third District Court This Morning.

A "BLOOD RELATION" QUESTION.

Judge Zane, John M. Kane and Father L. Williams Were the Chief Actors.

It was the unexpected which happened in Chief Justice Zane's court this morning, and the incident was an altogether exceptional one.

Throughout yesterday Judge Zane and a jury sat and listened patiently to the testimony, legal argument, and the evidence of the case.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

THE DEEP CREEK ROAD.

The Following Case Was Heard Today.

THE DEEP CREEK ROAD.

The Following Case Was Heard Today.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

At 10 o'clock, the plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

RECOVERING.

The Many Friends of Fred H. Pull Will Be Glad to Hear that He Has Recovered from His Illness.

RECOVERING.

The Many Friends of Fred H. Pull Will Be Glad to Hear that He Has Recovered from His Illness.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

The many friends of Fred H. Pull will be glad to hear that he has recovered from his illness, and is now on his way to recovery.

WAS HE DROWNED?

Will Taylor, of This City, Said to Be Lost on the Columbia River.

WAS HE DROWNED?

Will Taylor, of This City, Said to Be Lost on the Columbia River.

Four weeks ago two young men left their homes in the Tenth ward in this city to become wanderers over the face of the country with no particular desire or care as to how or where they should travel.

They were full of life, daring and ambitious, and were thoroughly acquainted with the spirit of adventure. They then Will Taylor, a son of William Taylor, formerly of Pickwick and horse and harness shop, and Will Taylor, son of John Taylor, formerly of the same shop, and well known Salt Lake.

On reaching San Francisco it seems they secured employment of some kind as one of the steamers which plied the waters of the Pacific ocean and the Columbia river, and it is believed they were working their way northward.

Last night a young lady in the Tenth ward, who is said to have been a sweetheart of young Taylor, was greatly shocked and grieved on receiving a letter from an other stranger announcing the sad news of her lover's death. The mysterious communication was signed at Portland, Oregon, on the 19th inst. It contained information to the effect that on the night of the 17th the captain of the steamer on which himself and the two young gentlemen were riding, had been ordered to return to the city.

Young Taylor is said to have fallen into the river and was drowned. The story is very wide at the spirit of adventure. They then Will Taylor, a son of William Taylor, formerly of Pickwick and horse and harness shop, and Will Taylor, son of John Taylor, formerly of the same shop, and well known Salt Lake.

On reaching San Francisco it seems they secured employment of some kind as one of the steamers which plied the waters of the Pacific ocean and the Columbia river, and it is believed they were working their way northward.

Last night a young lady in the Tenth ward, who is said to have been a sweetheart of young Taylor, was greatly shocked and grieved on receiving a letter from an other stranger announcing the sad news of her lover's death. The mysterious communication was signed at Portland, Oregon, on the 19th inst. It contained information to the effect that on the night of the 17th the captain of the steamer on which himself and the two young gentlemen were riding, had been ordered to return to the city.

Young Taylor is said to have fallen into the river and was drowned. The story is very wide at the spirit of adventure. They then Will Taylor, a son of William Taylor, formerly of Pickwick and horse and harness shop, and Will Taylor, son of John Taylor, formerly of the same shop, and well known Salt Lake.

On reaching San Francisco it seems they secured employment of some kind as one of the steamers which plied the waters of the Pacific ocean and the Columbia river, and it is believed they were working their way northward.

Last night a young lady in the Tenth ward, who is said to have been a sweetheart of young Taylor, was greatly shocked and grieved on receiving a letter from an other stranger announcing the sad news of her lover's death. The mysterious communication was signed at Portland, Oregon, on the 19th inst. It contained information to the effect that on the night of the 17th the captain of the steamer on which himself and the two young gentlemen were riding, had been ordered to return to the city.

Young Taylor is said to have fallen into the river and was drowned. The story is very wide at the spirit of adventure. They then Will Taylor, a son of William Taylor, formerly of Pickwick and horse and harness shop, and Will Taylor, son of John Taylor, formerly of the same shop, and well known Salt Lake.

On reaching San Francisco it seems they secured employment of some kind as one of the steamers which plied the waters of the Pacific ocean and the Columbia river, and it is believed they were working their way northward.

Last night a young lady in the Tenth ward, who is said to have been a sweetheart of young Taylor, was greatly shocked and grieved on receiving a letter from an other stranger announcing the sad news of her lover's death. The mysterious communication was signed at Portland, Oregon, on the 19th inst. It contained information to the effect that on the night of the 17th the captain of the steamer on which himself and the two young gentlemen were riding, had been ordered to return to the city.

Young Taylor is said to have fallen into the river and was drowned. The story is very wide at the spirit of adventure. They then Will Taylor, a son of William Taylor, formerly of Pickwick and horse and harness shop, and Will Taylor, son of John Taylor, formerly of the same shop, and well known Salt Lake.

On reaching San Francisco it seems they secured employment of some kind as one of the steamers which plied the waters of the Pacific ocean and the Columbia river, and it is believed they were working their way northward.

Last night a young lady in the Tenth ward, who is said to have been a sweetheart of young Taylor, was greatly shocked and grieved on receiving a letter from an other stranger announcing the sad news of her lover's death. The mysterious communication was signed at Portland, Oregon, on the 19th inst. It contained information to the effect that on the night of the 17th the captain of the steamer on which himself and the two young gentlemen were riding, had been ordered to return to the city.

Young Taylor is said to have fallen into the river and was drowned. The story is very wide at the spirit of adventure. They then Will Taylor, a son of William Taylor, formerly of Pickwick and horse and harness shop, and Will Taylor, son of John Taylor, formerly of the same shop, and well known Salt Lake.

On reaching San Francisco it seems they secured employment of some kind as one of the steamers which plied the waters of the Pacific ocean and the Columbia river, and it is believed they were working their way northward.

Last night a young lady in the Tenth ward, who is said to have been a sweetheart of young Taylor, was greatly shocked and grieved on receiving a letter from an other stranger announcing the sad news of her lover's death. The mysterious communication was signed at Portland, Oregon, on the 19th inst. It contained information to the effect that on the night of the 17th the captain of the steamer on which himself and the two young gentlemen were riding, had been ordered to return to the city.

NO BLOOD DRAWN.

But there was War in the District Court Today.

NO BLOOD DRAWN.

But there was War in the District Court Today.

The brief discussion which ensued in Chief Justice Zane's court this morning between the Hon. John M. Kane and Father L. Williams, who were called to the stand by the plaintiff, John M. Kane, and the defendant, Father L. Williams, was a very interesting one.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.

The plaintiff, John M. Kane, called to the stand his father, Father L. Williams, who testified that he was the father of John M. Kane.