Rio Grande Western Tickets Will be Sent Out from Headquarters.

Major S. K. Hooper, general passen-ger agent of the Rio Grande roads, arrived in this city from Denver last night and today has been looking into affairs of the office of the Rio Grande Western with Assistant General Pas-senger Agent George W. Heintz. The old time passenger M. old-time passenger man stated to the "News" that there were no changes under contemplation at the office here and that there was no significance to be athis visit.

From another source it is learned that orders have been issued for all tickets to be sent to the Denver & Rio Grande headquarters in Denver by September In future all agents' supplies and tickets will accordingly be sent out from Denver and not from the headquarters of the Rio Grande Western as has always been in vogue hereto-

Vosberg Passes Another Worthless Check and Gets $17.50.

H. Vosberg, an old German who recently served fifty days in the city bastile for passing a worthless check on the Lambert Paper company, seems to have a predilection for that sort of thing, and the probabilities are that ere long he will again find himself in the meshes of the law.

It came to light last evening that he had swindless the Robinson drug store out of $17.50, by cashing a worthless check for that amount. When it became known that the instrument WAR bogus, it was placed in the hands of an officer, and it was the intention to file a complaint against Vosberg. Later, however, the officer was informed that Vosberg had called at the drug store and agreed to pay back the The police believe that this is merely a bluff in order to gain time. Mr. Austin's estimate is an increase of 5,000 tons over that given out two or three weeks ago. He added that many patches of beets in Lehi would give 20 tons to the acre. He is now on way to the Bear River property of the Sugar company, where he says they intend planting 1,000 acres of beets next year. . . .

The price of both beet and cane sugar fell off ten cents per hundred pounds yesterday. Mr. Geoghegan, the sugar broker, says that the fall is a natural one due to the fact that the supply of sugar this year is heavier than it was last. He thinks the conditions point to low prices of sugar but that the growers will be amply compensated by the immense crop.

Z. C. M. I. quotes the price of beet sugar today as follows: $5.75 retail; state commissioners for the promotion of uniform legislation which began vesterday gave a hearing this forenoo: to a delegation of Denver clergymen headed by Dr. J. D. Rankin, who presented their views on the divorce question. They contenaed that divorces are too casily obtained in many states, and advocated changes in the laws to correct the alleged evils under the present system.

After listening to the arguments of the ministers the conference resumed consideration of the proposed uniform divorce act, discussing the question whether section one should be eliminated. This section provides that 10No divorce shall be granted for any cause arising prior to the residence complainant or defendant in this state which was not a ground for divorce in the state twhere the cause arose point had been raised that this section. if enacted into law, would work ship in many cases, particularly where bona fide residence has been acquired by the petitioner.
