FRAGMENTS.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.

THE First District Court convenes at Provo next Monday.

ALMOST too cold for sleighing, and yet it is all the rage.

LAST night was another "scorcher," antithetically speaking.

FIREMEN'S Valentine Ball at the Opera House this evening.

"SKIPPED by the Light of the Moon" is "funny, very, very funny."

LOOK out for your legs—there have been several wrecks on the coast already.

"SAID BUSINESS" should be "sad business," shouldn't it, Brother Enquirer?

Sixty-two of the Wyoming excursionists are domiciled at the Walker House.

"OLD-man-afraid-of-the-toothbrush" is the name Louis Harrison gives to an Indian in Arizona.

THE programme for Saturday night at the Salt Lake Theatre, when Holland takes his benefit, is just immense.

"A CYCLONE in Kansas carried a pillow ninety miles through the air, and then came back for the bed quilt"—so says Harrison.

"THIEVES broke into the house of ex-President Hayes; the thieves lost nothing"—is the way Louis Harrison puts it in "Skipped."

To see the cutters and bobs darting about, one would almost think Samson was around "sleighing his thousand" over again.

THE Eighteenth Ward concert, the programme of which appeared in our columns the other evening, is postponed till Monday the 18th.

THE two wings of the Legislative Assembly met in joint session to-day to welcome the Wyoming visitors. Read the minutes elsewhere.

A CUTTER, minus the tongue, followed by a horse in harness, was pushed past the NEWS office this afternoon. The sleighing continues fine.

A number of ladies from this city, Sisters Wells, Horne and others, will visit South Jordan to-morrow and meet with the Relief Society there.

THERE was a big turnout at the Fort Douglas Theatre last evening, to witness the production of "Led Astray," by the Holland Comedy Company.

The Legislative Halls were crowded to-day. Many visitors being present to have a peep at the good looking bachelors of the Wyoming Legislature.

A DRIVERLESS sleigh, drawn by a spirited horse, dashed along Second South street this afternoon and ran into a livery stable west of the White House.

"AN Ogden girl caught cold and now has one foot in the grave," said Harrison last night, and then added: "They are unable to put the other foot in until the cemetery is enlarged.

JAMES MCKNIGHT was to-day arrested by Deputy Marshal Sprague, on an indictment recently found by the Grand Jury, for assault with deadly weapon and intent to do bodily harm.

DR. TALMAGE says there's an epidemic of crime in the air. One would think it was in his 'air, if he were not so bald, judging from the way he wants to slaughter the "Mormons."

THE Utah Central train, which ordinarily leaves for the north at 4.30 p.m. will not depart till after eleven to-night, as it will be held for the Harrison-Gourlay troupe, it being their purpose to "skip by the light of the moon."

It is stated that Mr. E. J. Friedlander is about to bring suit for $50,000 against the little sheet known as the Chronicle, for slander. If the gentleman would put the damages at 50 cents he might, providing he obtained a verdict for the full amount, stand a remote chance of recovering the sum.

LOCAL NEWS.

High Council.—The members of the High Council will meet in the Social Hall, to-morrow, Friday evening, Feb. 15, 1884, at 7 o'clock p.m.

WILLIAM W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Police Court.—Today, Jim Davis, for inebriation and disorderly conduct, was mulcted in the sum of $20 and costs.

Joseph Jackson, for creating a disturbance at the Theatre last night, was fined $10.

Surgical Operation.—Mrs. Julia Swain, wife of Robert Swain, of the Tenth Ward, underwent a severe surgical operation yesterday at the Deseret Hospital. She had been suffering for some time with an ailment of the womb, that was gradually undermining her constitution, and which rendered the operation necessary. It was performed by Drs. Anderson and Hughes, assisted by other physicians. The patient was doing well this morning.

Municipal-Legislative Ball.—Following are the committees on the grand ball to be given by the municipal authorities, in honor of the Wyoming Legislative party, at the Theatre to-morrow evening:

ARRANGEMENTS AND INVITATION.

Mayor William Jennings, Alderman Henry Dinwoodey, Councilor William W. Riter, Councilor Junius F. Wells.

RECEPTION.

Alderman Spiers, Councilor Romney, Councilor Clark, Councilor Taylor, Councilor Watson, Collector Winder, Mrs. Mayor Jennings, Mrs. Alderman Dinwoodey, Mrs. M. G. Clawson, Mrs. Attorney Miner, Miss Emma Jennings, Miss Alice Dinwoodey.

FLOOR.

Recorder H. M. Wells, Marshal Phillips, Chief Engineer Ottinger, Justice Pyper, Collector Hampton.

A Ward Entertainment.—Woodward's Sensational Temperance Drama "The Social Glass, or Victims of the Bottle," which was played before a crowded house in the Third Ward, on Tuesday evening, by the local company passed off very well with the exception of one or two hitches at first, caused by the unfinished condition of the scenery arrangements. In the Olio which preceded the drama great credit is due to Prof Jos. J. Daynes, who favored the audience with an organ solo. Also to Prof. J. M. Chamberlain for selections rendered during the evening; to Mr. Josiah Burrows for recitation and encore; to Miss Katie Spencer for song and guitar accompaniment, and to Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Meakin for comic specialities. The company desire to return thanks to the above named ladies and gentlemen, who kindly contributed to the evening's enjoyment; also, to Messrs. Daynes & Coalter, for the gratuitous use of one of their fine organs which was furnished for the occasion. The performance will be repeated on Friday evening next.

OUR WYOMING VISITORS.

THEIR ARRIVAL AND RECEPTION AT THE WALKER OPERA HOUSE.

Elsewhere in this issue appears a full list of the Wyoming Legislative party and their friends, now on a visit to Utah and Salt Lake City as the guests of the Territorial and Municipal authorities. The visitors arrived here at about half-past 8 o'clock last night, having been delayed on the way some five-and-a-half hours. It was expected they would reach this city at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, but owing to the heavy snow and a broken car wheel, which had to be repaired at Evanston, it was fully 4 o'clock when the party left that point for Ogden.

They were met at Evanston at 3 p.m. by the following named gentlemen from this city, who left here at 7 a.m. for that purpose: Governor Eli H. Murray, Secretary A. L. Thomas, Hons. E. G. Woolley, Joseph Barton and Abram Hatch, Gen. McCook, Mr. J. H. Van Horne, Dr. J. F. Allen and Mr. W. C. Borland. Hon. D. H. Peery, who boarded the train at Ogden, and representatives of the Salt Lake press, also accompanied the party of reception.

The Wyoming company, which left Cheyenne at about 4.15 p.m. on Tuesday, were warmly welcomed by the Governor, the Legislative committee, and those who accompanied them, and the Pullman car with the Utah party having been joined to the train carrying the visitors, which consisted of three Pullmans, a smoking car, Superintendent Dickinson's private car and a baggage car, all filled to overflowing, the conductor gave the word to start and the train moved out for Ogden.

Arriving there at 7 o'clock, they were met and welcomed by a number of prominent citizens of that place, and by the Ogden brass band, which had been waiting all the afternoon to give the visitors a rousing serenade, but the excessive cold rendered this impracticable. However, the will was taken for the deed. Here also the Wyoming party was met by Councilor W. W. Riter, Alderman Henry Dinwoody and Councilor J. F. Wells, acting as a committee of the Salt Lake City authorities, who extended to the incoming guests an invitation to a grand ball arranged by the municipality in their honor, to come off at the Theatre on Friday evening. A splendid banquet had been prepared at Ogden, but owing to the lateness of the hour of arrival there, it could not be partaken of, and a few minutes after 7 o'clock, the train left Ogden for Salt Lake.

They arrived in this city, as stated, about half-past 8 o'clock, and were conveyed from the depot to the Walker, Continental and other hotels, by carriages provided for the purpose. As the party were somewhat weary from the long journey and its delays, they did not immediately assemble at the Opera House, but first took refreshments at their hotels and then attended the reception given by the Governor and Legislative Assembly at the above named place.

It was about half past 10 o'clock when the programme was formally commenced. A large assembly was present, both on the floor and in the galleries. Governor Murray made a speech of welcome on behalf of the people of the Territory, which was responded to by Hon. W. H. Holliday, President of the Legislative Council of Wyoming. The Fort Douglas band enlivened the occasion with stirring airs and the rest of the programme, embracing vocal and instrumental music by Messrs. Carlisle, Welhe, Van Pragg and Krouse, and concluding with dancing, then followed in order.

Provo City Election.—The municipal election in Provo on Monday passed off peaceably. There was only about 20 per cent. polled of the registered number of voters. The cold and stormy weather, together with the fact that so "Liberal" opposition ticket was in the field, had the effect to keep hundreds of voters from the polls. There was, however, a trick perpetrated that deserves the condemnation of every consistent and loyal member of the People's Party. Early in the day some "nigger in the fence" succeeded in getting possession of from one hundred to two hundred of the People's tickets, and, having scratched off one of the names, inserted in its place the name of another gentleman; then, to escape detection and mislead voters, mixed the defaced tickets among the straight ones.

The trick was soon discovered, however, and the scratched tickets were separated and placed on another part of the table. This proceeding was a violation of the principles of the People's Party, and it is hoped that the guilty person has no connection with it. The People's convention unanimously adopted the ticket as printed and if any voter was not satisfied with it, he could have voted just as he himself chose to do, but to deface other tickets and seek to impose them on the members of his party is a piece of deception that savors strongly of treachery.

Court adjourned till Friday at 10 a.m.

DIPHTHERIA.

MAYOR'S NOTICE.

Credible information having been received from a regular physician of this city, to the effect that there is a well developed case of diphtheria in the First Ward, this is to caution the residents of that ward and vicinity to refrain as much as possible from visiting houses where sickness prevails, unless acquainted with the nature and extent of such sickness, that the further circulation or spread of the disease, diphtheria, may be prevented. More definite instructions to these cannot now be given, from the fact that the physician aforesaid, refuses to give the name or residence of the afflicted family.

WM. JENNINGS, Mayor.

PERSONAL.

Kate Homer Clayton, special correspondent of the Boston Globe and Journal, and lady lecturer, arrived in the city last evening with the excursionists and as one of their invited guests.

Gov. Ramsay, of the Utah Commission, left last evening for his home in St. Paul, Minn., going via the Union Pacific, and he will be absent about two weeks.

H. L. Dudley and S. A. Barnett, of Pueblo, and I. C. Rhodes, of Lake City, Col., were registered at the Valley House to-day.

B. Black, of Cleveland, Ohio, is at the St. James.

P. Phelan, of Bingham, is registered at the White House.

J. M. Moffatt, of New York, arrived at the Walker House yesterday.

B. Franklin, of Ohio, is at the Valley House.

W. N. Platner, of Blackfoot, is a guest at the White House.

Miss N. Pennoyer, of New York, is stopping at the St. James.

"Skipped."—An immense audience, one of the largest ever seen within the walls of the Salt Lake Theatre, witnessed the presentation of "Skipped by the Light of the Moon," last evening, by the Harrison—Gourlay combination; perhaps a livelier scene in the way of laughing and other demonstrations of merriment, was never beheld in that or any other building.

Harrison and Gourlay, the two stars, shone with superior lustre, and from first to last kept everything in an effervescence of hilarious delight. Still, they did not furnish all the fun. The part of the Irish policeman, enacted by Mr. Morris, though briefer than the others, was fully as amusing, and was one of the best things in the piece. The stars were well supported throughout.

The play itself is a perfect budget of absurdities, mingling the extravagance of the farce with the sleight of the pantomime, and is in fact put together for the especial purpose of creating laughter and nothing else. There are weak spots in it, and some straining after humor, but this is forgotten in the rapid action, lively spirit and genuine mirth-provoking qualities of the whole.

No one can sit through the performance with unruffled face, and scarcely any with unaching sides. It will be repeated this evening, when the Wyoming and Utah Legislators will attend the performance in force. "Skipped" is a good thing for the blues, and will undoubtedly draw another crowded house.

A MAGIC POWER.

A Secret Agent at Work.

We were surprised the other day to learn that certain individuals in this city, who had for many years yielded to what was apparently an inevitable fate, were startled from their torpid condition of semi-stupidity, into asserting their right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." These parties had been bound by an influence as powerful as it was incomprehensible. They knew not the cause, yet they were victims to the result. They were enchained, but they could not discern by what means they had been manacled. They had long sought deliverance in vain. Their appeals to science and the knowledge contained in books were equally unavailing. At last, relief came! It was not through any action of the President, or of Congress, for their trouble was not of a political character. Neither did the Governor's Message relieve them, nor any action of the new Legislature, for it was out of their power, and foreign to their jurisdiction. Yet they were suddenly and effectually released from the bondage they suffered, and placed on the equal scale of human happiness. "What was their trouble?" is what our readers will ask. They had been rendered helpless by that universal enemy—rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved without pain for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there," they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. This secret agent quietly coursed through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition, and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph, and the acquisition of the knowledge, by which they can at any time resist the encroachments of their common foe. We could give the names of the parties, but will wait a future time.
