BREVITIES.

Mr. Wasson is struck with the absence of extreme poverty in Germany. In Hanover, after much search, he discovered one ragged boy—not very ragged he; in Hamburg, not one man, woman or child that had the appearance of destitution.

A young man was recently sentenced to be married by an English court. A singular sentence, certainly; but if the girl was good and amiable and pretty and refined and intelligent and rich and an orphan, it was better than hanging, we should think.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Greediness is its own reward. Some workmen at Pine Bluff, Ark., lately found an old pocket book containing $100,000 in antiquated bills, which was probably secreted by some miserly wretch years ago, and in a general scramble for the plunder tore the pocket book and contents all to pieces.

The Registrar-General of England reports that the cold weather which set in the 30th of July continued throughout the week, and that the mean temperature of the week at the Royal Observatory, Greenwich, was 59.2 degrees, or three degrees below the average for the corresponding period during the last fifty years. More than an inch and a quarter of rain fell in London, half of which was measured on one day.

The York, Pa., Democrat says:

All the old cider mills and presses are put in order. Hand presses are also in demand in some localities and improved large new presses, to supply an entire neighborhood with facilities for all to make cider. Some of these presses will be at work day and night, the rush of the season. It is predicted cider will come down to $1.50 a barrel; already it is as low as $2 50 a barrel; cider, vinegar, unfermented cider and hard cider will all be plentiful the coming winter.

It is stated that the potato disease has appeared to an alarming extent in the valley of the Severn, Gloucestershire, England, and other parts of the country.

Rector's daughter, "Well, Dennis, how are you getting on? How do you like your new master?"

Dennis, "Faith, miss, I dunno!"

Rector's daughter, "He's a very kind and excellent man; you can't do too much for him."

Dennis, "An' shure, miss, I don't mane to!"

"The horse that frets is the horse that sweats," is an old saying of horsemen, and it is just as true of men as horses. The man that allows himself to get irritated at every little thing that goes amiss in his business, or in the ordinary affairs of life, is a man that, as a rule, will accomplish little and wear out early. He is a man for whom bile and dyspepsia have a particular fondness, and for whom children have a particular aversion. He is a man with a perpetual thorn in his flesh, which pricks and wounds at the slightest movement; a man for whom life has little pleasure and the future small hope.

The New York Sun may not be able to beat the Herald in enterprise, but it can make faces at Stanley, whom it accuses of all the crimes in the calendar. Meanwhile the country is devastated by fac-smiles of the hand writing of everybody except the parties interested. All of which results from Dr. Livingstone's inability to "stay put" amid the hussies of Unyanyembe and the bulbous chiefs of Ujiji, and astonishes the outer world, which cannot perceive the necessity for attacking, or the possibility of vindicating the character of a Herald reporter.—Mo. Democrat.

The German army undoubtedly expects another war with France, and that all the sooner because of the wonderful financial resources of their great rival. They do not seek it or wish for it, having gained all they wanted. They neither despise nor under-rate the abilities of the French soldiers, and they say that the next war will be a much harder task than the last. But they have the start in military knowledge, they have been trained to victory. Officers and men, from highest to lowest, are in sympathy and mutual confidence; they are losing no time in their preparations. Bavaria is a little behind in her organization, but will soon be fully ready, as all the rest now are. Who can wonder that they say, "We can never be sure, but we believe in future victories as astonishing as those of the last war?"—Berlin Cor. London Times.

SPECIAL TO THE DESERET NEWS.]

By Telegraph.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, 5.—Aiken, the burglar policeman, was tried to-day and found guilty of grand larceny.

Andrew Carrigan, a well known citizen and one of the commissioners of emigration, died to-day, aged eighty-six.

SYRACUSE, 5.—In the Democratic and Liberal State Conventions this afternoon, after several meetings the conference committee finally agreed upon a division of the State ticket, the Liberals being given the lieutenant governor and State prison inspector, and the Democrats taking the rest, including Congressmen for the State-at-large. The Democratic Convention then nominated Sanford E. Church for governor, on the first ballot; but on a delegate stating he would not accept, the second ballot was taken, with Francis Kernon, Augustus Schell, Lucius Robinson, A. Beach and H. A. Nelson in nomination. Kernan received a majority and the nomination was made unanimous. S. S. Cox was then nominated for Congress from the State-at-large, and John F. Hubbard for canal commissioner.

The Liberal convention ratified the nomination of Kernan, Cox and Hubbard, by acclamation, and nominated Chauncey M. Depew for Lieutenant Governor, with E. C. Brooks for prison inspector; they also adopted a platform embodying the principles of the Liberal party, pledging a warm support to the State ticket and a majority for it and for Greeley and Brown equal to that given Lincoln.

At the evening session of the Democratic convention, the Liberal nominations were endorsed, and an extremely lengthy set of resolutions were adopted, covering every issue between the two political parties.

After each convention had ratified the nominations and adopted resolutions separately, the Liberals came over in a body to the Democratic convention, and the two bodies acted with great enthusiasm, and finally, with three cheers for the ticket, adjourned sine die.

RUTLAND, Vt., 5.—Bennington county elects two Republican senators, by about 1,000 majority. The county elected two Democrats last election.

LOUISVILLE, 5.—Another telegram from Chas. O'Connor is said to have been received, in which he further reiterates his determination not to accept the candidacy so urgently pressed upon him. Some delegates still adhere to the belief that he will consent to run, after he has had consultation with members of the convention.

MANSFIELD, O., 5.—A collision occurred this evening on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, between an excursion train of three cars filled with passengers, and an express train. Five persons were killed outright and twenty-eight wounded. There is no telegraph office at Independence, and full particulars have not been received.

NASHVILLE, 5.—On Monday night a number of burglaries were committed at Athens, Alabama. Wednesday night there was a similar occurrence. Two of the burglars were captured today, with the stolen property, and were taken to Florence and hanged in the public square.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

ELKO, Nev., 5.—A dispatch received from Kelton, by sheriff Fitch, states that his posse which went in pursuit of the three men who robbed the stage near Humbolt Wells, a few nights since, overtook the robbers near Goose Creek, where they had a desperate fight with them, a deputy and two assistants having their horses shot dead under them. The posse were armed with Henry rifles, but could get nothing after losing their horses, and were obliged to make their way to Kelton on foot.

EUROPEAN.

BERLIN, 5.—The Emperor of Russia and the Grand Duke Vladimir arrived this afternoon and were met by the Emperor William, the Crown Prince and a large number of other German princes and ministers, with Bismarck at the head. The most famous generals of the army and chief dignitaries of the imperial court were also present. The Czar on alighting saluted and embraced the emperor most cordially, and the two emperors entered the same carriage and passed slowly through the streets amid the cheers of immense multitudes. The imperial carriage stopped at the Russian embassy, into which the Emperor Alexander was conducted, where he was visited by the Empress Augusta and the Princess Victoria, the wife of the crown prince. Later in the day he proceeded to the imperial palace. After making quite a long visit, the Czar returned to the embassy.

The Emperor of Austria meets with the most enthusiastic reception from the people of Germany. He is the guest of the King of Saxony to-day, at Dresden; and to-morrow evening will enter Berlin.

It is again denied that the meeting is of a political character.

THE HAGUE, 5.—The Congress of the International Society held its first public sitting this morning. A resolution was introduced and unanimously adopted, expressing, in the name of the working classes of the world, admiration for the heroism of the champions who have fallen in battle for the people's rights, and greeting with hope the freedom of all people still in chains. The president of the congress, in a violent speech, denounced General Trochu as a traitor to his country and called Jules Favre a wretch. The report that the congress had refused to verify the credentials of twelve delegates from New York is not confirmed, but it appears that Dr. West, of Philadelphia, will be refused admittance as a delegate.

LONDON, 5.—The steamship Minnesota from Liverpool to New York yesterday took out 600 Mormon emigrants for Utah, most of them Scandinavians.

DUBLIN, 5.—Many Jesuits, expelled from Germany, will come to Ireland, where they are promised welcome.

LONDON, 5.—The Royal Mail steamship from the Cape of Good Hope has arrived, bringing Cape Town dates to August 5. Discoveries of valuable diamonds continue frequent, and crimes and disorders among the mining communities are on the increase. The governor is absent from his post, lynch law prevails, and a large number of persons, mostly natives, have suffered from violence.

PARIS, 5.—The Department of Oude is threatened with a declaration of a state of siege, on account of attacks on the military by the inhabitants of Nanbonne.

Synopsis of the Naturalization Laws.

The following synopsis of the Naturalization laws will be found of interest to those who are about to take out naturalization papers.

Aliens who arrived in the United states before they were eighteen years of age, and who have continued to reside here, are not required to take out any "first papers," or certificate of declaration, but may receive their "full papers" after having resided five years in the United States and become twenty-one years of age.

Soldiers who have enlisted in the regular or volunteer army of the United States and been honorably discharged, do not require any certificate of declaration.

All other persons must procure a certificate of declaration, at least two years prior to getting their full papers or certificate of naturalization, and no length of time or residence will obviate the necessity of procuring the first papers.

First papers may be obtained at any time by an alien of the age of twenty-one years or upward, and no testimony other than that of the applicant is required.

To obtain full papers the applicant must have resided at least two years in the United States after receiving his first papers, and the whole term of his residence in the United States must have been not less than five years, and one in the State where the final application is made.

Upon making application for full papers, the applicant must bring into court his first papers, and have with him a witness who has been acquainted with him five years, who can testify to his good character, and that he is attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

If first papers have been lost, copies may be obtained by writing to the clerk of the court from which they were issued.

When a father receives his full papers, his children who are under the age of twenty-one years, and whose residence is then in the United States, are considered citizens.—Ex.

A Strict Constructionist.—A young woman recently appeared before the court at Liege with a demand for a separation or divorce from her husband, on the ground that her husband had hired, without her consent, a suite of apartments which she could not occupy. She was informed that this simple disregard of her wishes was not sufficient ground for a divorce. The law demanded that she should follow her husband, "What!" the law compels me to follow my husband?" "Certainly." "We shall see, then." The lady disappeared and at once attached herself to her husband and followed him every step that he took for two days. This was sufficient to attract the attention of the whole city, for the poor husband could no more escape her than he could his shadow. Finally the police interfered and she was arrested for causing the gathering of a crowd in the streets.
