

EVENING NEWS.

PUBLISHED DAILY, SUNDAYS EXCEPTED AT FOUR O'CLOCK.

DAVID O. CALDER,
EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

Tuesday, October 26, 1875.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Rev. K. G. Goddard died on Staten Island last night.

The Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal church is holding its 10th anniversary in New York. A number of colored men are present. There is also a great sale for preachers, but little response—young men are not eager to become preachers, because "the world pays better than the church."

Denis Ready was killed at New Orleans last night.

The second mate of the ship Virginia has been arrested, charged with mutiny.

Indian agents have been appointed for Montana and Milk River.

There is the report of the Treasury for the last fiscal year.

A man of epizootic is carrying off cattle in Pennsylvania.

The Richmond (Va.) Enterprise has been purchased by late attaches of New York and Boston papers, and is to be run as a conservative democratic paper.

Gov. Allen has been speaking at Pittsburgh, showing the views of the republican party.

Republican majorities are reported from Colorado.

Fighting at a funeral at Montreal, Canada.

The Prince of Wales is sick and can't see the Prince of Wales. He will send somebody.

Russia will only send Russian specialists to the Centennial.

European grain market reports not quite so favorable.

Clarke Ronald won the Caithness election in Scotland yesterday.

The Balaklava charges had a good time together in London yesterday.

There is talk of a new ministry in Spain.

The Prince of Wales arrived at Cairo, Egypt.

The Emperor of Germany has returned from his Milan trip.

Seven thousand more Spanish troops are to be sent to Cuba, and Spain is to be impartially punished.

The Carlist leader Mendizábal recognises Alfonso.

Water has burst into some Nevada mines.

about the California rifle matches. Names of horses for the four miles race at Gramma. The murderer denied a new trial.

There is a revolution in Colombia, and Graysay has been attacked.

Cardinal Metzlosky is to be handsomely received in London.

Sulton won the Cambridgeshire stakes at Newmarket.

The Odd Fellows have been parading at Louisville.

James Wright, hurt by a pitchfork at Louisville, is dead.

A Bostonian mail car clerk is charged with robbing the mails.

There is a decision in the syndicate and Jay Cooke estate case.

Jane, Democrat, is probably elected congressman in Oregon.

A great conflagration at Virginia, N.C., which had been raging for days. The whole business part of town is gone. At least one-third of the fire was started by persons who shall be able to point out, are trying to work up against it.

The Board of Managers of the New York Produce Exchange concern Archibald Butler & Co. for their conduct over their failure.

One of four mad bunglers operating at the site of the accident, N. J. Ins. Co., was hardly shot dead by the watchman. The others escaped.

Wm. Stewart, of Ansbach, Mich., was robbed and murdered last night.

Ozalde, a tragedie, imminent the bar and fell to the stage at Cincinnati. He was badly injured.

There are failures at New York, Detroit, and Montreal.

Don Carlos is entrenched at Pamplona.

NEWS NOTES.

A woman has been sent to jail at Montreal for whipping her husband.

The Rev. Miss C. E. Angell ministers to the Universalists, congregation of Kittery, Me.

"Gull Hamilton" has undertaken to preach "Sermo" to the Clergy in his new book.

"The statement to libel" is recognized as an inimitable journalistic offence in Texas.

Florida papers report an almost total failure of the sponge crop. Big yield here.

There is still a live law in Massachusetts which fines a young man $5 if he walks out with his girl after sundown.

An Indiana man recently hanged himself for fear that he might become a prey to suicidal mania if he lived.

A druggist in Bethel, Me., after closing his store the other night, was attended home by a large bear, which had been watching the demonstrations, but only left him when he got inside the house.

The Rev. Robert Laird Collier has declined the call of the Second Church of Boston, and will accept a call to become pastor of a church in Liverpool, England, where he preached recently for a year.

They do things rather "fast" down in Boston sometimes. A certificate of marriage was issued in that city a few days ago, to a woman only eighteen years old, who had been married twice before.

The Socete d'Acclamation of France has awarded gold and silver medals to the American naturalists, M. and Mrs. L. M. Mifflin, and a bronze one to Mr. Stone, Secretary of the American Fish Culturist's Association, in recognition of their labor in transporting salmon eggs.

The putting up of "Anglais" sardines, another name for small herrings, which the head and tail, etc., is a growing industry in Washington county, Maine, and the orders from New York far exceed the supply.

Hessing, the German democratic politician of Chicago, accepts the nomination for County Treasurer, admits that he has no office, and says he doesn't get any orders. I will move into the same house cottage in the city and sell what I possess in order to pay the last dollar I owe.

Susan B. Anthony said recently that she "would like just to catch a burglar in her room once." The remark having been reported she quickly received a note signed, "A Burglar," which read: "I am a burglar. If you take me to justice I would confess. I would confess to you to my room sum, sit as you like."

What about having a summer resort recently a lady found herself charged for an entire China toilet set, only one piece of which she had broken. She paid the bill, and pleading the excuse of having forgotten where she had returned to the room and broke each and every article of the set for which she had paid.

Bear-bungs, which formerly were popular, and afterward became acid and tasteless, besides becoming saturated with sour beer, now have their pores closed by the precipitation of a mineral compound, and while gas and liquid tight may be used any number of times. One Philadelphia establishment manufactures 100,000 per month.

Many useful articles, including grain bags, wine covers, hats, covers, ropes, sails, etc., are now manufactured in Russia from the inner bark of the basswood or linden tree, a million of trees, it is stated, being required annually in this industry, and the value of the articles produced amounting annually to between two and three million dollars.

Dr. Hooker, the director of the Royal Gardens at Kew, England, in his lately published report, advocates the planting of the Eucalyptus for commercial purposes, its rapid growth and hardness of wood rendering it most valuable. The tree is said to be "still unable to endure the views of those who regard the tree as capable of cultivation in tropical swamps, and as a prophylactic against ague and fever."

The Christian Intelligencer, of New York, well remarks that the people of capital and compound interest in the flush times of war and the few years succeeding it, shoddy put on silk and velvets and gold; sober-minded people caught the plague; everybody, and everything glittered.

Financial reaction has made hard times.

The London Saturday Review says of Mr. Bondocau's "Shangraun": "One easily understands the success of this play in America. The public there know less of Ireland than we do, and a fashion of Irishness is to be seen everywhere."

It is said that if one Irishman is to be roasted, another is always ready to turn the spit; and Mr. Bondocau is probably true to nature in ascribing the hero's dangers to indigenous malignity.

Remarkably indirect civil damages to the amount of $5,000 were inflicted on the Boston and Bangor postal clerks, who were arrested on a charge of robbing the mails.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbing the Mails.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Edward A. Phalen, Boston, and on the Boston and Bangor postal clerks, who were arrested on a charge of robbing the mails.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbed and Murdered.

William Stewart, liquor dealer, of Ansbach, Michigan, was robbed and murdered in that village last night. The body was found in the street this morning. His skull had been crushed.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbing the Mails.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Edward A. Phalen, Boston, and on the Boston and Bangor postal clerks, who were arrested on a charge of robbing the mails.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbed and Murdered.

William Stewart, liquor dealer, of Ansbach, Michigan, was robbed and murdered in that village last night. The body was found in the street this morning. His skull had been crushed.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbing the Mails.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Edward A. Phalen, Boston, and on the Boston and Bangor postal clerks, who were arrested on a charge of robbing the mails.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbing the Mails.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Edward A. Phalen, Boston, and on the Boston and Bangor postal clerks, who were arrested on a charge of robbing the mails.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbing the Mails.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Edward A. Phalen, Boston, and on the Boston and Bangor postal clerks, who were arrested on a charge of robbing the mails.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbing the Mails.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Edward A. Phalen, Boston, and on the Boston and Bangor postal clerks, who were arrested on a charge of robbing the mails.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbing the Mails.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Edward A. Phalen, Boston, and on the Boston and Bangor postal clerks, who were arrested on a charge of robbing the mails.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbing the Mails.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Edward A. Phalen, Boston, and on the Boston and Bangor postal clerks, who were arrested on a charge of robbing the mails.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbing the Mails.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Edward A. Phalen, Boston, and on the Boston and Bangor postal clerks, who were arrested on a charge of robbing the mails.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country."

James Wright, a teamster, who served as a driver in the coach for yesterday, in the hands of John Renz, is reported dead this morning.

Robbing the Mails.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Edward A. Phalen, Boston, and on the Boston and Bangor postal clerks, who were arrested on a charge of robbing the mails.

Mr. Barry Sullivan, in conversation with a reporter of the Boston Times, expressed his belief that there has been a conspiracy against him, and in this country, to prevent, if possible, his succeeding. Among other things he said: "I believe there is a very nasty feeling among American actors, and they get the tone of it from certain letters which were published in New York, the idea contained in which was that you don't want foreign artists to get into the country